Many Attend B.P.W. Dinner Meeting In Grants Pass

The Business and Professional Women's club of Grants Pass was hostess Tuesday evening to 110 women from Klamath Falls, Coquille, Grants Pass and Medford for a dinner session in the Caves Grotto of the Redwood hotel.

Members and prospective members took part in the enjoyable affair. After a dinner and program, numerous games were held in the banquet room with Miss Nola Walsh directing the fun-hour.

The presence of Mrs. Leona Bryant of Coquille, state president of the Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs and several members of her staff, added much to the auspicious occasion. Club officers of state importance were introduced by Miss Marian Miller, program chairman as follows: Mrs. Bryant, state president; Martha McCollum, Klamath Falls, state international relations chairman; Mabel Mack, Medford, state second vice-president; and Irene Ringuette, of Grants Pass, state recording secretary. Others introduced were Jaque Lenox, Medford, president; Ruth Bathany, Klamath Falls, president; Annie Robinson, Coquille, member and Lois Blankenburg, Grants Pass, immediate past president.

State President Leona Bryant told the assembled women that the B.P.W. club is the only group of truly democratic women, as it compares with other organizations. She said that 28 club members from the United States attended the international meeting this year in Budapest, and added that it was apparent at the session of the Federation of Women's clubs that the women of the western part of the United States held rights that are now being sought by women in the midwest, south and east.

"The value of membership in the Business and Professional Women's club is priceless," declared Jaque Lenox, and listed the many advantages, values and educational points of belonging to B. P. W.

Claudia Lorenz, Klamath Falls, cited attractions of the recreational program provided by the B. P. W. club of sports, hobbies and crafts in which the club is interested and the companionship and fellowship they afford.

Mrs. Ringuette, president of the Grants Pass club, adjourned the speakers' program with a humorous invitation for all prospective members to join the club.

Mabel Mack, Medford, led the group singing at intervals during the program and Celia Barton gave the club collect.

Ever Wonder Why You're Constipated?
Do you ever have days when you just have to drag yourself along, when you feel tired, sunk-because of that constipation? Then why not find out the real cause of your trouble?
What have you had to eat lately? Just things like meat, bread and potatoes? If that's it, you may not have to look any farther. It's likely your trouble is you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and aids elimination.
If "bulk" is what you lack, your ticket is a dish of crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast every day. It contains the "bulk" you need plus Nature's great intestinal tonic, vitamin B.
Eat it every day, drink plenty of water, and join the "regulars." Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Same Officers Re-elected at W.C.T.U. Meet

Mrs. Grant Thrasher, Grants Pass, and her staff of Medford and Ashland officers were re-elected to head the bi-county W. C. T. U. of Jackson and Josephine counties at a one day convention held at the First Baptist church in Grants Pass Tuesday.

Others re-elected were: Mrs. E. G. Roseborough, Medford, vice-president; Mrs. William Hill, Ashland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Minnie Bryant, Medford, recording secretary, and Mrs. D. Magerie, Rogue River, treasurer.

The regular order of business was considered throughout the forenoon session at the close of which a brief memorial service was held in memory of members who have passed away.

The Ashland union trio presented the beautiful old hymn, "Jesus Lover of My Soul."
These short addresses gave the assembly glimpses of the national W. C. T. U. convention by Mrs. Necla Buck, history of prohibition laws in Oregon by W. T. Miller, and a history of the Children's Farm home by Mrs. Della Miller.

Proceeding the evening address a half hour of music was enjoyed by a girl's trio, a mixed quartet, a solo and a duet, both organ and piano.
Mrs. Necla Buck spoke on "Youth in the Market Place." She read three measures which will be placed on the ballot this fall and asked the audience to think "through each measure before casting their votes for either candidates or measures. Particular mention was made of measures pertaining to required examinations of men and women contemplating marriage, anti-gambling, the placing of sales of all liquors, including wine and beer, under state commission stores and not allowing new state stores to do business within a half-mile of church or schoolhouses.

Mrs. Della Miller again spoke briefly of the Children's farm home. The convention voiced their desires in resolutions, which will later appear in local union reports.
