Many Stars In Craterian's Musical Hit

Tyrone Power, Alice Faye and Don Ameche bring to the screen of the Craterian theater Sunday, for one full week's engagement, the greatest motion picture ever produced, Irving Berlin's "Alexander's Ragtime Band."

Other members of the brilliant cast include Ethel Merman, Jack Haley, Jean Hersholt, Helen Westley, John Carradine, Paul Hurst, Eddie Collins and Douglas Fowley. Twenty-eight Irving Berlin numbers are heard in the production, which comes to the Craterian at no raise in prices.

Bobby Breen In Rialto Show

With Bobby Breen singing sweet tunes, Charlie Ruggles is tempted and falls into an exhibition of vocalism so astonishing that even Bobby is startled at the result. Ruggles is starred with Bobby in his newest singing hit, "Breaking the Ice," coming to the Rialto theater for Sunday and Monday.

Due Tonight—A. L. Greenwalt of Portland, district manager of Dun & Bradstreet, is expected to arrive here tonight with several cars of Portland Legionnaires to join the Oregon caravan to the Los Angeles convention, which leaves tomorrow morning from Medford. Mr. Greenwalt, who is state chairman of the "On to Los Angeles" committee, is one of the most prominent Legionnaires in Oregon and has many friends throughout southern Oregon.

To Parade Dogs—Paul Bulkin, manager of the Chateau, will leave last evening. Loss was negligible.

On Roxy Bill

Judith Allen is co-starred opposite Gene Autry in "Boots and Saddles," coming to the Roxy theater for tomorrow only. Smiley Burnette is also in the cast of the popular western. Episode 8 of the serial, "Dick Tracy," plays an added attraction tomorrow at the Roxy.

Cause was not determined. The shed was used for storing tree props. The fire department answered a ward alarm at 3:45.

Articles Claimed—A coat, camera and roll of film, stolen from a parked car Tuesday night by Robert Leo Laird, 17, now serving a five-day city jail sentence on a vagrancy charge, were identified yesterday by their owner, Olat Severson of 805 Beatty street. Severson told city police the articles were stolen from his Chevrolet sedan parked on North Grape street.
