Younger Set Members Off To College

Among members of Medford's younger set leaving today for Eugene to enter University of Oregon were Barbara Roberts, Catherine Conroy and Josephine Bullis.

Miss Roberts was accompanied to Eugene by her mother, Mrs. Fred Hahn, Miss Conroy and Miss Bullis were motored to the campus by the latter's father, Mr. Seth Bullis.

The young ladies are all entering their first year at the college. Upon their arrival they will be housed in dormitories and rushed by sororities for the next four days. Following their pledging they will move directly into their respective sorority homes for the school year.

Leaving tomorrow by motor for the north will be Miss Nancy Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark. She will enter her sophomore year at Reed College in Portland. Mr. Clark will accompany his daughter to Portland.

Antelope Club Meeting Changed

ANTELOPE, Sept. 16.—(Sp.)—The Ladies' Social club will meet Tuesday, September 20, at the home of Mrs. Floyd Harper, instead of on Wednesday, as originally planned. All members are asked to remember the date.

Grants Pass Couple Announce Betrothal At Dinner Party

Friends of Miss Margaret Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gray of Orchard avenue, Grants Pass, learned of her engagement to Clarke Stokes, son of Harry Stokes of Grants Pass, at a dinner party held Monday evening at LaTosca Inn in Prosser.

Individual announcement cards marked the places of each guest enjoying the Italian dinner at which Miss Marilee Fry, Miss Ella Cameron and Miss Helen Entrikey were hostesses.

Miss Gray will become the bride of Mr. Stokes the latter part of next month.

Guests at the affair included Miss Gray, Mrs. Harold Kiebel, Mrs. William Black, Miss Barbara Emerson, Miss Betty Emerson, Miss Jeanette Turner, Miss Pieradale Campbell, Miss Mary McAdam, Miss Mildred McCarthy, Miss Ardis Jenkins, Miss Genevieve Treadgold, Miss Roberta Borland, Miss Thelma Holloway, Miss Marjorie Cameron, Miss Naomi Smith, Miss Maxine Love, Miss Lavona Nelson, Miss Anita Feldmaler and Miss Maxine Jester.

Miss Gray and Mr. Stokes are both well known in this city as well as in the valley.

Zonta Club Forms Interesting Plans

The Medford chapter of Zonta, International service club of executive women, held the opening meeting of the year in their club rooms on Monday evening. The session was well attended.

Committees for the year were organized and reported tentative plans. The club elected Margaret Patrick as a delegate to the Zonta district convention to be held at Spokane, Wash., September 24 to 25th.

An exceptional program for the year was outlined, one of the outstanding features of which is to be a series of lectures, proposed by the international relations committee on the economic and racial background of political conditions in central Europe.

Moving pictures of the international convention held in June at Banff, Alberta, Canada, were enjoyed by the group.

Plans were also formulated for a combined initiation and birthday party to take place October 10.

Rotary Women To Have Tea

There will be no meeting of Women of Rotary next Wednesday as per scheduled.

The first Wednesday in October, however, there will be an informal tea for Women of Rotary given at the home of Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap, 35 Geneva street.

Hostesses will be past and present officers of the organization.

AAUW Luncheon Next Saturday

Because of conflicting social engagements pending for tomorrow, the American Association of University Women will not meet as previously announced.

The meeting, a luncheon session at the Hotel Holland, will be held next Saturday, September 24 instead of tomorrow. Mrs. Justin Smith, president of A. A. U. W. will preside at the affair and plans will be formulated for the year's work.

Two Return From Missionary Meet

Miss May Phipps and Mrs. Riley D. Henson have returned to their respective homes from Cottage Grove where they attended the annual Cascade district missionary convention.

Miss Phipps is the district corresponding secretary. Mrs. Henson has the distinction of having been the district recording secretary for the past 19 years.

Miss Phipps will attend the branch missionary convention meeting in Boise, Idaho, October 6 to 8th inclusive.

Piano Recital to Be Wednesday

An interesting program will be presented at the Baldwin Piano shoppe Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock by three of Mrs. Lois Young's piano students. They are Dorothy Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Young of Eagle Point, Eloise Peyton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Peyton of this city and Helen Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Young, Medford.

The three pupils are all just twelve years of age and possess outstanding talent and exceptional ability for their age.

The program for the evening will consist of favorite numbers from Chopin, Grieg, Paderewski, and other masters. Assisting on the program will be Verlyn Thomas, violin pupil of Mr. John R. Knight, who is also well known for his accomplishments as a young violinist.

The public is invited to attend the recital.

Nevada Visitors Medford Guests

Mrs. Ed Waits and Mrs. Jim Connolly of Gerlach, Nev. were recent Medford visitors and house guests of Mrs. George Coddling and Mrs. Robert Watson.

During their stay, the visitors were entertained at a number of small, informal bridge affairs.

Couple Visit In Trail

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loder of Wilkes, Cal., have spent the past several weeks visiting in Trail.

The couple were guests of Mrs. Loder's mother, Mrs. Marie Bennett and of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Swingle.

Jobs Daughters Meet Monday

Jobs Daughters will hold their first fall meeting Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Masonic temple. Mrs. L. L. Sanderson, guardian, asks that all members be present as important business will be discussed.

P.T.A. Activities

P.T.A. executive council of the city council met September 14 at the home of the president, Mrs. Clifton Pond. General objectives and the program for the coming year was discussed by members present.

Junior High P.T.A. is formulating plans for a reception to be held Tuesday evening at the school house at 8 o'clock. An enjoyable program will be held with Mrs. Lois Young in charge of the vocal solos and community singing. Greetings will be heard from Mrs. Alta McDougal, P.T.A. president and James Mullins, who will introduce the Junior high school faculty.

Mrs. Connie Ballentine is in charge of refreshments, hostesses will be Mrs. R. D. Morrison and other past presidents.

The pleasant get-together will afford an opportunity for parents to meet their children's teachers and each other and to learn the aims of the P.T.A. units for the coming year.

Madcap Merry Weds Again

IF YOU FEEL SUNK
Read this and cheer up
Are you so blue that life is no longer worth living? Do you cry easily? Do you feel lonely, depressed—just absolutely SUNK?
Then here's good news for you in case you need a good general system tonic—just take famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Let its wholesome herbs and roots help Nature build up more physical resistance and tone up your system, so that it can more easily throw off the "blues" and give more energy to enjoy life.
MILLIONS of women have depended upon this Compound and have passed the word along to friends and neighbors, and to their children.
Why not take Pinkham's Compound and go "smiling thru"?
