

LAKE CREEK 4-H STOCK DISPLAY SLATED SUNDAY

LAKE CREEK, Sept. 16.—(Spl.)—Lake Creek community is justly proud of the achievements of its 4-H club members. Many of the accomplishments of the children and their leaders will be exhibited at Lake Creek Grange hall Sunday, September 18.

More than 20 calves, which have been carefully fed and groomed by their young owners, who are members of the Baby Beef club, will be on display. Members of the club are Lewis Welch, Charles Stanley, Janet Charley, Merton Bradshaw, Willard Welch, Clayton Charley, Gordon Stanley, Katherine Welch, Bob Damon, Dorothy Stanley, and Lee Damon. Floyd Charley is local leader.

Under the leadership of Myrtle Charley, the clothing classes made a splendid record, as shown by the results of the Home Economics fair held in Medford recently. All members of the Clothing I B club were awarded prizes, receiving all those offered in the county for that division.

Awards were as follows: Lella Damon, first; Joan Damon, second; Janet Zundel, third; Dorothy Stanley, fourth; Lillian Damon, fifth; Katherine Welch, sixth.

Those enrolled in Clothing II work unit and their awards were: Gwendolyn Charley, first; Lois Wright, second; Janet Charley, third; Allen Hansen, Betty Jane Trueblood.

These two clubs received nine of the total of 12 prizes offered in the county. All this work will be exhibited September 18.

Gwendolyn Charley and Lella Damon comprised a champion judging team which won a trip to the state fair. Lois Wright and Dorothy Stanley rated second in clothing judging.

In the style review for Clothing II, Lois Wright won second place and Gwendolyn Charley, third.

Livestock judging team which won a trip to the state fair was composed of Charles Stanley, Lewis Welch and Willard Welch; Charles Stanley rating first in the county.

One of the major attractions of the day will, of course, be the bountiful chicken dinner, for which systematic arrangements are nearly completed.

Community exhibits will also be on display.

NEW SONS STUDENTS TO RECEIVE WELCOME AT MONDAY OPENING

SOUTHERN OREGON STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, Ashland, Sept. 16.—(Spl.)—New students at the Southern Oregon Normal school will take the spotlight for the first week, beginning Monday, September 19, and will be personally welcomed, entertained and oriented with a program of lectures and social activities, while former students returning "take a back-seat."

Entertainment for entering women students, each of whom will be greeted in person by a big sister, has been planned for Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, with the all-school mixer on Friday night. Dorothy Thomas and Marilyn Christlieb of Ashland, president and vice-president of the associated women students, will welcome all new girls on the first day of school.

The program for men, with Lee Merriman of Trail, president of the associated men students as general chairman, includes meetings and discussions on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with a stag on Wednesday evening in the gymnasium.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be filled with registration and entrance examinations during school hours. Classes and clubs will get off to a flying start this week, as hours are scheduled for their organization and election of officers.
