AMATEUR ROBBERS HIDE IN TIMBER

CHEWELAH, Wash., Sept. 23.—(AP)—With all roads in the district blocked, a new sheriff's posse went today into the heavily timbered district north of here in the search for two armed men who robbed the First National bank here of $8,000 yesterday and escaped in an exchange of gunfire.

Sheriff Kelly Jackson and a federal bureau of investigation agent were leading the manhunt.

Bank employees said the holdup men were apparently "amateurs" and nervous. They fled when the one at the door shouted: "They're coming; let's get out."

Wandering Bear Killed
BAKER, Sept. 23.—(AP)—A youth identified as Edward McIntosh of Memphis, Tenn., met instantaneous death early this morning in Huntington when the right side of his head was crushed by a sliding steel door on a freight car on which he was riding.
