

RIISING COST OF WELFARE WORK IN OREGON PUZZLES

How to Pay Mounting Toll Perplexes Oregon County Officials.

How Women in Their 40's Can Attract Men

Here's good advice for a woman during her change (usually from 35 to 42), who fears she'll lose her appeal to men, who worries about hot flashes, loss of lily, dizzy spells, upset nerves and moody spells. Just get more fresh air, 8 hrs. sleep and if you need a reliable "WOMAN'S" tonic take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made especially for women. It helps Nature build up physical resistance, thus helps give more vivacity to enjoy life and assist calming jittery nerves and those disturbing symptoms that often accompany change of life. Pinkham's is WELL WORTH trying.

of Oregon's 36 counties scratching their heads trying to figure out how to pay for relief without crippling other government functions. Counties are prevented from increasing their taxes by more than six per cent, but if the number of relief recipients continues to mount, the counties will be unable to pay welfare costs unless they take the money from other government activities.

"There is no danger of counties becoming insolvent," one state financial expert said, "because of the six per cent limit. But there is a danger counties will have their efficiency impaired if essential governmental functions have to be sacrificed on the altar of relief."

The University of Oregon's bureau of municipal research said this week that welfare expenditures by counties have increased 200 per cent in the past 10 years. There is no end in sight, but the time will be reached soon when the counties won't be able to pay their share because of the six per cent limit, the official said. The state is in the same boat. During the 1939-40 biennium the state will have to pay $10,000,000 in welfare costs, about $5,000,000 of which will be raised by House taxes. Where to get the other $5,000,000 is a problem that the legislature, which meets in January, will have to crack. "We could try and get Oregonians to drink more whiskey, but we feel they have reached the saturation point," the official said. "About the only alternative is for the state to slap on the property tax again, which would give the state the highest property tax in history. "There is no chance of getting a sales tax, as the people have rejected it too many times." No property tax for state purposes was levied this year, but counties do have this tax.

Another problem for new legislation will be the request of the 11 state institutions for $6,157,184 during the next biennium, a 39 per cent increase. Of course the requests will be pruned down plenty, but there will have to be some increases because of larger institution populations and because institution employees being placed on a 44-hour work week.

Press association newsmen with the news of the Czechoslovakia crisis hot off the wires, have done little interviewing lately because of being interviewed themselves by state officials.

Most of them are sorry about the Czechs but admit they would have sought a peaceful solution just as France and England did. One exception, however, is the national guard high command, who said that if they were running France and England, they would fight right now.

BRIDGE PROMISED MARYLAND DURING PRIMARY OKAYED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—(AP)—President Roosevelt approved a $2,167,000 public works grant today for construction of a $4,815,000 bridge across the Susquehanna river at Havre de Grace, Md.

The president had instructed Administrator Ickes during the recent Maryland Democratic senatorial primary to expedite the application for PWA aid for the Havre de Grace bridge and another span across the Potomac river, at Morgantown, Md.

Subsequently, Rep. David J. Lewis, whose candidacy Mr. Roosevelt favored, was defeated for the senatorial nomination by the incumbent, Millard E. Tydings, and the president said at his Tuesday press conference the two-bridge program would not be carried out for the time being.

The president explained Maryland backers had declined to finance Maryland's share of the bridges' cost. He added the PWA money intended for the bridges would be distributed among smaller projects.

TRANSFER FOREST AIDE AT EUGENE

EUGENE, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Perry A. Thompson, supervisor of the Willamette national forest, announced here Wednesday night that he had received confirmation from Washington, D. C., of his transfer appointment to the Missoula, Mont., regional foresters office, where he will serve as assistant regional forester in charge of personnel.

Successor to Thompson at the Willamette office will be J. R. Bruckhart, who will be transferred from his present post of supervisor of the Olympian national forest in Washington.

Thompson has been with the forest service since 1912 when he joined the service as a forest ranger. He has been in the Eugene office for the past eight years.

OREGON LAW DEAN FILES RULING IN SAN PEDRO STRIKE

EUGENE, Sept. 23.—(AP)—A decision in the dispute between the waterfront employers' association and the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union local 1-13, of San Pedro, Cal., has been reached by Wayne L. Morse, dean of the school of law at the University of Oregon, who was appointed special arbitrator by the U. S. labor department. Dean Morse stated here today.

The award was forwarded to the national labor relations board committee at San Pedro, where it will be made public, Dean Morse stated. He did not announce his decision here. The dispute involved the terms and conditions under which liftboard operations should be performed.

A decision on another case for which Dean Morse served as arbitrator, which involved the dispute between the water front employers' association and longshoremen in the port of San Francisco, will be forwarded to the Bay city within a few days, the Dean said. This dispute involved the right of certain longshoremen to be dispatched for employment through hiring halls. His decisions will be final in both cases.
