Fred Astair, Ginger Rogers Comedy

Together again after being apart and in different pictures, the popular team of Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, dancing to the melodies of Irving Berlin, come to the Craterian theater tomorrow in the four-day showing of their new co-starring picture "Carefree".

The endeavors of a psychiatrist to play Cupid and marry off his best friend to the actor actress is the light-hearted theme of the musical romance. However, the scheme runs into difficulties when the patient falls in love with her doctor instead of the man she's supposed to marry.

Women through the story are four notable dance routines, including the new "Yam" which is expected to replace most of the current ballroom dances.

Now At Rialto - Robert Young and Ruth Hussey have roles with Lew Ayres and Guy Kibbee in "Rich Man, Poor Girl", playing today and tomorrow only at the Rialto theater as the companion feature with "The Lady Objects".

Popular singing star, Lanny Ross, and Gloria Stuart have the starring roles in "The Lady Objects," a tense story of a woman lawyer who defends her own husband against a murder charge for killing the "other woman". Joan Marsh and Robert Paige have supporting roles. Ross sings several new songs hits!

Exciting and sensational feats of magic gathered from the remotest corners of the globe will be displayed to an expected capacity audience Wednesday night in the Medford Junior high school auditorium, when Marquis, world-famous magician, stages his amazing performance. The show starts at 8 o'clock sharp. The public is invited.

Among the features of the program will be the attempt by Marquis to escape from a tightly sealed wooden packing box, considered an impossibility by those who have examined the box. The magician claims he will escape from the box inside five seconds.

At the weekly luncheon-meeting of the Rotary club this noon, Bob Holmes of junior high school made announcement of the magical show.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE - Without Calomel - And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning!

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks pink.

A man whose liver doesn't get at the cause, it takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25 cents. Stubbornly refuse anything else.
