Big Applegate
BIG APPLAGATE, Sept. 30.—(Spl.) Harry Gilson has returned to his home at Etna, Cal., after coming here to visit his brother, Ansel Gilson, who had been ill. Mr. Gilson has recovered and soon will be able to work again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Dodge of Medford, enjoyed picnicking at McKee Bridge forest camp Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Alice Hed-burg of the community.

Mrs. J. A. West left early this week for Lebanon, Ore., where she will spend a short time visiting her mother.

John Pernoll, well known Applegate storekeeper, was taken to the community hospital at Medford Tuesday for treatment and observation.

Full activities of the Applegate extension unit will open Wednesday, October 5, with the first project meeting on "Does Diet Make a Difference?" given by Mrs. Mabel Mack, home demonstration agent. Mrs.
Alice Hedburg, chairman, has requested that everyone arrive at 10 a. m. for a business and social meeting before the afternoon project is given. Everyone interested is invited to attend the all-day session.

Rev. D. D. Randall and J. J. Ray, Sunday school missionaries from the Medford and Eugene areas, presented a series of colored picture slides at Upper Applegate Grange hall Tuesday evening, which were filmed, edited and colored by Mr. Ray. A number of scenes were filmed in the Mc-Kenzie Pass section, while others were taken in southwestern Oregon, showing the work of the missionaries.

A song service also was enjoyed.
Beaver Creek Sunday school convenes at the Grange hall at 2:30 p. m.

Victors listed at Dutchman's Peak lookout early this week included Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Finley and daughter Margaret of Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. E. Finley of Medford and Miss Claire Hanley and Wesley Hartman of Jacksonville.

"Bear season hasn't opened yet, but the Coffman, fanned hunter of Jacksonville, told a little bear story this week. He was in the Star Gulch region here, and enjoyed an intimate glimpse of a mother bear and her two cubs. The little fellows were about the size of polecats, and were endeavoring to obey their mother's orders in slowly making their getaway. It was a tiresome job. Mother would wait for bruns to catch up with her, but never did she give them time to rest. One little fellow lagged behind, and couldn't keep up the pace, nor could he keep on the trail, so he sat down and squaled in desperation.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Morris of San Francisco are spending three weeks here as guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Harry Helms.

Miss Lorna Kubi of San Francisco was a recent guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Maud Kubi.

A lively evening program observing national booster night has been prepared by Upper Applegate Grange, and will be presented here Friday evening, September 30. O. C. Maust of Central Point, manager of the cooperative exchange, will be the principal speaker. Musical numbers, readings and skits will be presented, as well as a debate on the question:

"Resolved, that the needle is more important than the nail
