

A. P. COVERAGE OF EUROPEAN CRISIS ACCURACY MODEL

News Based On Truth and Facts, Not Rumors, Furnished Readers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(AP)—General Manager Kent Cooper today addressed the following to the staff of the Associated Press: "Our staff has just passed through a time of extraordinary stress and extraordinary responsibility in its coverage of the international crisis. The burden has fallen chiefly on those assigned abroad, but many at home also have helped.

"It has been a time when calm, sound and accurate reporting, in the midst of rumors and alarms, was a requisite of highest consequence. Millions of Americans have made their first reliance in their eager quest for the truth. The staff has met that responsibility fully. It has recorded only the truth. It has reported no wars that did not materialize, and no peace settlements until they were arrived at.

"It is gratifying to know that developments were covered with uniform promptness—in many instances with surprising and unparalleled speed. But far beyond that, it is more satisfying than words can express that nothing you have written need be erased, but can stand as an authentic day to day history one of the great international episodes of our times.

"KENT COOPER."

COQUILLE, Sept. 30.—(AP)—The Sentinel and the Tribune, weekly newspapers, merged here yesterday. T. F. Hatch sold his interest in the Tribune to William McKnight, his partner, and Allan Young and Mrs. Alton Grimes of the Sentinel.

TILLAMOOK WOMAN WINS MONEY SUIT

Judgments totaling $5,500 were awarded yesterday to Mrs. Mignon Baker Brown, Tillamook, Ore., by Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco in a suit growing out of the death of her first husband, Lewis Baker.

Dr. Nathan S. Housman and John C. Farrell, former San Francisco policemen, were directed by the judgments to pay Mrs. Brown $2,500 and $3,000 respectively. Testimony heard by Judge Trabucco last July showed Baker carried $9,944 in cash when he was fatally injured in an automobile accident near here in October, 1936. Mrs. Russell Sweet, wife of the San Francisco State college football coach was killed in the same accident. Farrell testified he was given the $9,944 by Baker to pay for medical attention and for other expenses. Farrell said he paid Dr. Housman $5,000 for his services, $561 to an undertaker, $1,000 to rush Baker, bro-

UMATILLA PROJECT FUND REQUESTED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Senator Schwelienbach (D-Wash.) said today he would ask congress next session to authorize the construction of a $23,700,000 navigation dam across Columbia river at Umatilla rapids.

He said President Roosevelt had told him it was impossible for the public works administration to finance the entire project and that it could not, under the law, undertake to do only part of the work. Schwelienbach had asked the president to authorize enough public works funds to complete surveys for the structure which would form part

4-H CLUB QUALITY — ALL THE TIME!

WE WERE asked why we make no extra charge for 4-H Club Beef. Frankly we don't like to charge extra for what our customers are used to getting all the time.

'Tis true we pay more for it but all of it's cost is not for the beef. The extra is our cheerful contribution to what we consider one of the most worth while occupational youth training movements ever inaugurated.

To show that our customers really do get 4-H quality all the time we mention that we have just bought the Lee Bradshaw herd of fancy Hereford steers.—From this herd a goodly number of 4-H prize winners have come for the last two years.—Merton Bradshaw's steer rated second among 60 at the 1937 San Francisco stock show.

Not just once a year, but every day in the year—4-H Club quality.
