BUYING REBOUND IN RETAIL TRADE STORM AFTERMATH

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Retail sales turned upward at most leading centers of distribution this week as shoppers made purchases deferred during last week's stormy weather, Dun & Bradstreet reported today.

The buying rebound lifted retail volume for the country as a whole to within 2 to 12 percent of totals for the like 1937 week.

Wholesale trade, however, lagged 3 to 8 percent under last week and 5 to 17 percent below last year.

"As shoppers in the east made up for buying postponed during the storm period, total retail volume rebounded quickly, the credit agency said.

"In stricken areas, an avalanche of calls for roofing materials, glass, electrical specialties, small tools, candles, and kerosene lamps depleted store stocks.

"Low temperatures favored the movement of winter coats, three-piece suits, knitwear, and leather sporting goods.

"Although most cities reported sales still below totals for the corresponding period of 1937, many pointed out that the decrease in dollar volume was approximately equal to the fall in prices and that unit sales were actually close to those of last year."

Of wholesale trends, the agency added:

"In the absence of any general interest in forward buying, spot demands continued to provide the bulk of volume in wholesale markets. What contracting ahead there was confined itself principally to goods in which shortages had developed and price rises were thought imminent."

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Stocks swept upward 1 to more than 5 points in today's market as Europe's war crisis collapsed.

Heavy overnight buying orders from all parts of the country and abroad swamped the stock exchange during the first half hour's dealings and the ticker tape was behind as much as two minutes throughout this period as large blocks of the favorites changed hands at soaring prices.

The feverish rush to get aboard the ascending van lost momentum near the second hour and, from then on, the proceedings were orderly Transfers for the full session were around 1,900,000 shares.

Bonds generally exhibited strength Most rail loans were leading gainers although nickel plate bonds, as well as stock, dropped sharply as the question of the road's meeting a maturity tomorrow became urgent.

Longview Man Wins Triangle See-Reel Contest Number One

L. W. Johnston, 2342 Forty-Sixth avenue, Longview, Wash., has been adjudged the winner of the first prize of $15 in cash for the best solution to Triangle "See-Reel" number one, published in this paper September 16. Second prize of $7.50 in cash goes to Orval W. Dow, 930 Elm Street, Albany, Oregon, and third prize of $2.50 in cash to Mrs. E. Kochelhoffer of Corva... Oregon.

Readers of this newspaper were invited to submit answers to a cartoon which depicted the mishaps of Mary Sweet in her efforts to evade the villain, ... Hart. In the final frame Mary's horse had thrown her over a cliff, but she had miraculously landed uninjured on a ledge. The question, to which readers were invited to submit solutions, was "how does Mary get off the cliff?"

Prizes, according to the judges, were awarded on the basis of ingenuity, believability and relation of the solution to the subject matter and characters referred to in the episode.

New episodes will be printed in this newspaper each Friday with readers invited to submit solutions. Cash prizes total $350 with three new prize winners each week. The contest being conducted by the Triangle Milling company of Portland, Ore.

AMBASSADOR SAYS NO LINK BETWEEN ENVOY AND BUND

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Dr. Hans Dieckhoff, German ambassador to the United States, assured the state department today there was no "understanding" between the German-American bund and German envoys in this country.

The house committee investigating un-American activities was told yesterday there was such a connection. Its testimony came from John C. Metcalfe, a committee agent, who quoted Fritz Kuhn, the bund's leader.

While the ambassador was at the state department, the embassy issued the following statement, which it said was in substance what Dr. Dieckhoff told Sumner Welles, undersecretary of state:

"The German government has always taken the point of view the Amerika-Deutscher Volkabund is to be considered as a purely American affair. There has never existed any open or secret 'understanding' between the bund and the German ambassador, the German embassy, or the German consulates.

"On the contrary, for a long time all German nationals have been strictly prohibited to be or to become members of the bund, in view of the fact that it is their duty to refrain from any interference in internal American affairs. The government of the United States is informed about this point of view adopted by the German government."

Meanwhile, Representative Dies (D-Tex.), the committee chairman, accused Dr. Hans Thomsen, German embassy counselor, of issuing an "unfair statement" criticizing Metcalfe.

He quoted Thomsen as saying Metcalfe was "not a trustworthy person" and suggested if the committee wanted facts, it question Kuhn himself.
