P.T.A. Activities
The Parent-Teacher association of Washington school held its first meeting Thursday afternoon. Sixty members met in the school auditorium which was beautifully decorated for the occasion by Mrs. W. Williams, acting hospitality chairman, and her committee. Guests, as entering, were presented with printed programs of the meeting.
Mrs. E. T. Curran, president, presided at the business session. The budget for the current year as recommended by the budget and finance committee, was voted upon and approved.

Mrs. W. Williams, membership chairman, outlined her plans for enrolling members in the campaign to be held next month. She has worked out very novel contests that will keep both the children and their parents working towards a new goal for membership.
All members were invited to join the Parent Education Study club, meeting twice monthly at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Hobart M. Price. The first meeting will be held Monday, October 10.
Mrs. A. C. Wilson, health chairman, announced that the lunch room will open as soon as the remodeling is completed. This year, with the cooperation of Mr. Hedrick and the school board, the four grammar schools of the city will work together in the operation of their cafeterias, effecting great savings through a system of centralized buying. Standardized menus will be used. Mrs. Mabel Mack of the state extension service acting as advisor. Prices for all dishes will be four and three cents.

Mrs. Clifton R. Pond, president of the P.T.A. city council, reported on the aims and purposes of that organization and announced that at the next council meeting to be held Tuesday, October 4, Washington P.T.A. will act as hostess club. Mrs. E. H. Thomas will open her home for the occasion and it is urged that all Washington members attend. Mrs. Pond also announced the forthcoming school of instruction to be conducted by Mrs. Walla, Oregon State P.T.A. president on October 13. The place of meeting will be announced later.
Other chairmen presented to the members were: Mrs. A. D. Turnbow, homemaking; Mrs. Frank Humphrey, school publicity; Mrs. W. S. Estep, finance and budget; Mrs. C. E. Burg, publications; Mrs. Jack Fortin, recreation; Mrs. Charles Pritchett, magazines; and Mrs. H. Jenkins, news publicity.

Mrs. Dwight Houghten, program chairman, introduced the speaker of the day, Mrs. Mabel Mack, who spoke briefly and interestingly on "New Standards for Family Living." Mrs. Mack listed on a blackboard the ideals and values for which each family is striving, the members joining in the discussion.
Mr. J. C. Tucker, principal, introduced the teachers of the school to the group. Miss Gertrude Watling, speaking for the school, welcomed the new mothers.
The room count was won by Mrs. Blanche Canode, and her class will be awarded a prize to be selected by a committee of two teachers and two mothers.

Mrs. Curran introduced her fellow officers, Mrs. Hobart Price, vice-president; Mrs. W. J. Cooney, secretary; and Mrs. E. H. Thomas, treasurer. Mrs. Clifton R. Pond will serve as parliamentarian. On behalf of the officers and chairmen, Mrs. Curran thanked the members for their attendance and interest.
At the close of the business session, Miss Laura York, music instructor for the school, led the group in singing. Mrs. Houghten has planned to have a favorite school song of the various state P.T.A. presidents sung at each meeting. The first one was that of Mrs. Walla, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."
A social hour was enjoyed at the end of the meeting under the direction of Mrs. Iral C. Nelson and her committee at a beautifully appointed table with lace cloths and centerpiece of Michaelmas daisies and gerberas. Tea was served. Mrs. Pond and Mrs. Canode pouring, and the executive board acting as hostesses.

On Friday evening at 8 o'clock there will be a card party in the Howard school gymnasium. Bridge and pinocle and 500 will be played. The affair is sponsored by the Howard school P.T.A. and proceeds will be used to carry on the tuberculosis tests in the school. Refreshments will be served.
The Jackson School Parent-Teachers association met at the Jackson school Friday, September 23 in the new addition of the school for its first meeting of the parents and teachers.
The executive board of the P.T.A. had a short business session before the regular meeting. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. L. E. Clevenberg, our able president of last year. The fifth and sixth grades contained with the three songs led by Mrs. Lorton, teacher, after which the business meeting took place. Mrs. Clevenberg had turned in her resignation so a new president was elected. Mrs. Albert Rollinson was chosen as our leader for the coming year. The chairman for the new year were as follows: program, Mrs. Ray Harrison; publicity, Mrs. Frank Silva; hospitality, Mrs. L. P. Wilcox; study group leader, Mrs. Henry Padgham; magazine chairman, Mrs. D. O. Nell; finance and budget, Mrs. L. E. Clevenberg; welfare, Mrs. Charles Ray; membership, Mrs. G. R. Shore; publications, Mrs. Jack Swam; parliamentary, Mrs. Harry Baker; refreshment, Mrs. Parker; legislative, Mrs. Charles Thompson.
Mr. Quastin, the Jackson school principal, welcomed the mothers present, took room count, then announced that Mrs. Henderson's room won the prize for having the most mothers present. He also invited everyone to go through the new addition of the building, which is most thoroughly appreciated by the parents and teachers and also the students.

Mrs. Harrison, our program chairwoman, told us about the coming meetings for the year and we are sure it will be a most successful year for the Jackson school Parents and Teachers Association.
We invite all interested to come and take part in our plans and activities for the year of 1938 and 1939. There was a splendid turnout for our first meeting and we hope that each and every mother will come to our next meeting and bring along at least one friend.

THROGS ATTRACTED BY THRILLING LIFE STORIES OF THE LONG QUARTET

Mrs. Lou Milton, of the Long Quartet, now appearing every evening at the special evening lecture series of the Church of the Nazarene, was one of the speakers Friday night, in which the Longs revealed their life story to a crowd that taxed the two auditoriums.

Mrs. Milton was associated with her husband in the theatrical business for 18 years. During this time she gained volumes of inside information relative to life and the influence the theater and movie had in moulding character. Mrs. Milton revealed the average life of the movie star and gave a resume of the following:
"The average life of a child star is from 4 to 6 years, and that of a young person from 8 to 10 years. The biggest part of them die a tragic death or wind up penniless, even after all the money they receive. The influence it has had upon children was shown when welfare workers in Chicago went to some of the public schools there, and spoke to children, asking them why they liked certain pictures, and what was the interest they had in pictures. One little boy of fourteen said, 'I love pictures where there is fighting and torture scenes.' Another little boy of sixteen said, 'I like to see pictures where guys are dynamiting buildings and destroying things.' A little girl of thirteen: 'I love the scenes where a girl steals another girl's husband; a girl of sixteen liked great love makers as Valentino and Tallulah, and then a girl of fifteen said she loved Joe E. Brown because he had such a pretty big mouth.'

"In the city of New York, 10,000 children choose their own pictures—they are not influenced by their parents. The Child Welfare Committee of the League of Nations found 280 pictures in 1932 and found the following scenes—97 murders, 51 cases of adultery, 19 cases of seduction, and 220 of abduction, 45 suicides, and the principal characters in 250 films were as follows: 176 scenes of thieving, 250 prostitutes, and 33 drunkards. In four years in New York city the censors eliminated 4823 scenes tending to incite crime; 3762 indecent or immoral scenes and the Woman's Club of the Parent Teachers Association in Chicago reviewed 216 pictures and found that 185 were fit for children to see and 86 for youth, and 81 for adults and the rest were not fit for anyone to see.

Professor Ross of the Wisconsin University says, 'There was more sex-excited, and sex-absorbed pictures for the young people in this generation than the country has ever had knowledge of (thanks to the exposure of the movies). God have mercy on us in the United States.'
There was a beautiful boy in my sister's church, in Billings, Montana, who attended a dance one night, and danced with a Crow Indian girl and kissed her. In about a week he developed Syphilis of the throat from the kiss and later this sickness went to his brain and this fine youth lost his mind, and now is in the insane asylum in Billings, Montana. From a young boy, he has changed to a gruesome old man; caused from this original sickness through just one kiss on the dance floor.

Mrs. Milton added after fifteen years of theatrical service, 'I did not see a single so-called moral picture that did not show either before or after something that did not contribute to evil influences.'

The Long Quartet will be heard at three services today at 10:45 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. Monday night and Thursday night of this week, they will have the entire evening. The topics on which evangelist Fred M. Weatherford will speak today are as follows:
10:45 a. m., "The Dwelling Place of God."
2:30 p. m., "Knowing This and That" (A treatise on holiness).
7:30 p. m., "The Opiates of Life."
The series will continue every night this week. The public is invited to attend each night.
