No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Second Inning.

YANKEES—Hack took DiMaggio's grounder near third base and threw him out. Gehrig walked on four pitches. Dickey slashed a single into right field and when Cavarretta tried to catch Gehrig with a throw to third, Dickey went to second, Gehrig making third easily. Herman fumbled Selkirk's easy bouncer. Gehrig scoring Dickey going to third and the batter reaching first safely on the error. It was scored as a run batted in for Selkirk since only one man was out at the time. Gordon's hard roller went through Hack and into left field for a single, scoring Dickey and sending Selkirk to second. Ruffing grounded to Jerges, who threw to Herman, forcing Gordon, and Herman's throw to Collins retired Ruffing for a double play.

Two runs, two hits, one error, one left.

Cubs

Gehrig took Cavarretta's grounder back of first base and stepped on the bag to retire him. Gordon went back on the grass to take Reynolds' high fly. Hartnett fouled to Dickey off the first base line.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Third Inning.

YANKEES—Crosetti flied to Reynolds in center. Rolfe sent a long fly to Demaree. Henrich singled over first. Collins taking the ball several yards back of the bag but having no chance to make a play. Henrich was caught stealing. Hartnett to Herman. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Cubs

Collins smashed a long angle to right. Jerges fanned on four pitches. Dickey took Lee's weak roller five feet in front of the plate and threw him out. Collins advancing to second. It was not a sacrifice. Hack smashed a single to right, scoring Collins, and went to second on the throw-in to the plate. Herman's liner bounced off Rolfe's glove for a single but when Hack tried to score on the play Crosetti, backing up third, recovered the ball and threw him out at the plate.

One run, three hits, no errors, one left.

Fourth Inning (Yankees)

Jerges made a fine gloved-hand stop of DiMaggio's grounder and threw him out. Gehrig sent a long single to right but was out when he tried to stretch it to a double. Cavarretta to Herman to Jerges. Dickey singled over second. Herman stopping the ball but being unable to catch him. Selkirk popped to Hack. No runs, two hits, no errors, one left.

Fourth Inning (Cubs) When Demaree tried to dodge a pitch the ball hit his bat and bounced to Ruffing who threw him out. Cavarretta struck out. Reynolds popped to Gehrig. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fifth Inning (Yankees) Gordon smashed a double to the left field corner. Demaree racing over but being unable to get his hands on the ball. Ruffing sacrificed. Hartnett to Collins. Crosetti struck out, swinging at a low third strike. Herman threw out Rolfe. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Fifth Inning (Cubs) The clouds were heavy overhead as the Cubs came to bat in the fifth Hartnett fanned. Dickey dropped the third strike and had to throw the Cub manager out at first. Gordon made a sensational stop of Collins' grounder with his back to the plate and threw him out. Jerges struck out. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Sixth Inning (Yankees) Henrich slashed a double off the wall in right. He slipped rounding first and just beat Cavarretta's throw to second. DiMaggio flied to Cavarretta in right. Henrich holding second. Gehrig struck out. The count had gone to three and two when Tony Lazzeri, a former Yankee, called third baseman Hack to the Cub dug-out and obviously told him what pitch to throw to the New Yorker. It was a low ball and Gehrig missed it by several inches. Dickey's high fly fell safely in left for a single. Henrich scoring. Selkirk grounded to Lee and stepped on the bag for a single, just reaching the bag in front of Lee's throw. Collins protested. Dickey went to second on the play. Gordon fanned. One run, three hits, no errors, two left.

Sixth Inning (Cubs)

Lee flied to DiMaggio in deep center. Hack beat out a bouncer down the third base line for a single. Herman rolled to Rolfe who threw to Gordon forcing Hack but Herman was safe at first, beating Gordon's throw to Gehrig. It was scored as a fielder's choice. Demaree popped to Crosetti. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Seventh Inning (Yankees)

Ruffing sent a long fly to Demaree in left center. Crosetti was hit on the left leg by a pitched ball and went to first. On the hit and run. Rolfe single to right sending Crosetti to third. Jack Russell began to warm up in the Cub bullpen. So did Larry French, a left-hander. Collins made a beautiful stab of first to retire Rolfe who was off the bag. It was an assisted double play. Seventh Inning (Cubs)

Henrich fell in a desperate lunge at the ball and the big Cub manager galloped to third. Crosetti made a fine stop of Collins' bouncer and threw him out. No runs, two hits, no errors, one left.

Eighth Inning

YANKEES: Jerges threw out DiMaggio on a nice play. Gehrig was called out on strikes on a three and two pitch. He thought he had walked and started for first and when Moran called to him that he was out he raced back to the plate and registered a vigorous protest. Several Yankees also gathered at the plate. Gehrig protested so vigorously and seemed about to rush at Moran, that his mates pushed him toward the Yankee dugout. Coach Art Fletcher finally quieted the first baseman and the crowd boomed. Dickey singled to right center. Dickey stole second. Hartnett's throw drawing Jerges wide of the bag. Selkirk flied to Reynolds in center.

Cubs

Before the Cubs came to bat it was announced the argument on Gehrig's strikeout in the first half of the inning had arisen over a foul tip for a third strike which Hartnett caught. Gehrig apparently let his bat down as the pitch came toward the plate and nicked the ball. Gehrig did not know this, but the umpire called it that way. Jerges singled to right. O'Dea, the Cub's reserve catcher, batted for Lee. He sent a roller to Crosetti who threw to Gordon, forcing Jerges. O'Dea beat Gordon's attempt at a double play and was safe at first on the fielder's choice. Hack rolled into a double play. Gordon to Crosetti to Gehrig.

No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Ninth Inning

YANKEES: Old Jack Russell, veteran right-hander, went in to pitch for the Cubs. Gordon sent a high fly to Reynolds in center. As Ruffing came to bat the crowd gave him a round of applause. Ruffing was thrown out by Herman. Crosetti's fly fell just inside the right field foul line for a double as Collins. Herman and Cavarretta all raced after it. Herman threw out Rolfe.

DiMaggio raced over to deep left center to take Herman's fly. Demaree flied to Selkirk near the left field foul line. Cavarretta lined a single to right and went to second when Henrich fumbled the ball for an error. Reynolds popped to Gordon.

WAREHOUSE PEACE AT 'FRISC LOOMS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—(AP)—The C.I.O. warehousemen today accepted an invitation of the Association of San Francisco Distributors for a meeting to discuss "our mutual problems" in the tie-up of more than 100 warehouses because of a contract dispute.

Distributors had proposed a blanket contract for the industry and offered to take 1,300 men back to work during negotiations. Meanwhile, a meeting of a committee of five industrialists and five union leaders, scheduled this afternoon in attempts to settle the retail store clerks strike, was postponed until tomorrow afternoon because several committee members were on serving Yom Kippur, Jewish holiday.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Brisik buying kept the stock market pointed upward today in extension of its wide upswing since fear of a general war in Europe diminished. The market near the second hour was virtually back to the highs of the June-July advance. Steels, motors, chemicals, building supply and miscellaneous industrials were rising but the whole list felt the favoring lunge in some degree. Bonds and most commodities also tended upward.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Broad-scale buying gave the stock market another strong boost today and many shares sold at the highest prices recorded this year.

The complete change in sentiment since the announcement of the Munich four-power parity a week ago dispelled immediate war fears, was apparent all along trading fronts. Bonds and commodities rose with stocks.

"Isolation is the price France will pay for Munich, where she received 'not even a scrap of paper' but only an oral promise from Adolf Hitler," the paper asserted.

It added, after the capitulation of Munich (where France, Italy and Great Britain reached an accord September 30 granting Chancellor Hitler Sudeten German areas of Czechoslovakia, a French ally), who will believe again the word of France? Who will remain her ally?

LONDON, Oct. 5.—(UP)—Sir John Simon declared before the house of commons today Britain had no desire to shut the Soviet union out of "any future settlement of Europe."

The chancellor of the exchequer, a member of the "inner cabinet" which urged Prime Minister Chamberlain on the Czechoslovak-German crisis, urged Russia to join other powers in guaranteeing the boundaries of the Czechoslovakia that is to be left after dismemberment.

BERLIN, Oct. 5.—(AP)—German claims for "reparations for injustices inflicted by the Czechs on the Sudeten since 1918" loomed today as a formidable obstacle to completion of a peaceful settlement of Germany's quarrel with Czechoslovakia. German financial experts were understood to be busy already drawing up a bill for such damages, and informed observers believed Reichsfuehrer Hitler would press the reparations demands as insistently as his previous ones.

A foreign office spokesman said this question was one of several difficulties confronting the international commission for supervision of the cessation of Sudetenland, which resumed its deliberations at the foreign office today.

Others were delimitation of the fifth zone of German occupation and determination of a just basis for plebiscites in doubtful areas of Czechoslovakia. Even as the Czechoslovaks were withdrawing from the lost territories, Der Angriff, organ of Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels, declared:

"Provision has been made for keeping exact count on everything in the case of Sudeten property the Czechs have taken with them."

However, no estimates of what may be claimed as reparations were available. Neutral observers believed Hitler's reparations claims would furnish a powerful incentive for Czechoslovakia to fall into line economically with Germany as soon as possible.
