"Parents Back To School Night" at Junior high school on Tuesday, October 11, will provide a splendid opportunity for parents to learn just what is being done for their boys and girls in this modern and highly specialized school.

Holly at First
We are expecting today to be a great day, with the Long quartette. In the Sunday school rally at 9:45 we are pulling for over 350 to make a record breaker, under the direction of Mrs. Clara Caulkins and the Long quartet.
The pastor-evangelist Fred M. Weatherford will be heard at 10:45 a. m. from the topic, "God's Counsel." The Long quartet will render attractive numbers in songs and instrumental music.
At 2:30 p. m. the evangelistic party will sponsor a mass meeting at which time they will sing several numbers, and the pastor evangelist will speak briefly from the topic "God's Spiritual Recipe for Man."
At 7:30 p. m. the closing evangelistic service of the day will be conducted, under the evangelistic party's direction. The pastor will speak from the topic "Sanctification and the Voice of Creeds." The quartet will inspire their hearers with several numbers.
The two auditoriums were required to seat the people last week with about 75 professions of faith. The series will continue for another week, owing to the intensified interest from Medford and out-points.
The Young People's society will meet at 8:30 under the direction of Mrs. Mattie House, Floyd W. Hawkins, assisted by the quartet, will furnish the program.
The Junior society will meet at 8:30, under the direction of Mrs. Fred M. Weatherford.
The public is most cordially invited to attend the evangelistic series throughout the day and nightly.
