Style Show Heads Social Calendar

Medford society is anticipating the style show to be held Thursday of this week in the First Presbyterian church recreational room.

The event is sponsored by the Sunny Sisters circle of the church and is always regarded as an event to be enjoyed.

Models will display clothes from the following Medford firms: Adrienne, Bureison's, Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann, Jacque Lenox, M. M. Department store, Mann's, Mode o' Day, Montgomery Ward and Jennie Riddell's Needle, Arts and Junior shop. The style show and program committee, with Mrs. A. J. Hanby, chairman, and Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. R. A. Work and Mrs. Jap Andrews, promise novel entertainment in the presentation of styles of the gay nineties and an interesting musical program will also be offered.

Reservations for the unique event may be made by calling Mrs. G. H. Maasdam at 618-M or Mrs. E. Baker, 1088-W.

It is advised by the committee that reservations be made as soon as possible because of the large crowd expected. They are to be made by Wednesday noon.

In addition to the other events offered at the affair, there will be a fancy work booth at which pillow cases and yarn dogs will be sold. Mrs. William Young and Mrs. R. E. Sweeney are in charge of this booth.

Bay City Residents Vacation In City

Mrs. William Moroney and Miss Alice Brophy of San Francisco are spending some time in Medford, visiting friends and relatives. They are registered at the Holladay Hotel.

Mrs. Moroney is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Reddy of this city and well known here. She is the former Dorothea Reddy.

The two plan to remain until the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Bigelow to California Mrs. F. B. Bigelow left Medford Sunday for Los Angeles where she will spend six weeks visiting her cousin, Mrs. Edwin Biggs.

Many Enjoy Event At Ashland Club

One of the most enjoyable events of the season took place yesterday in Ashland at the golf club when a group of Medford women golfers were guests of honor at a luncheon sponsored by the Shasta Cascade-Wonderland association with the Ashland golfing women as hostesses.

The delightful luncheon was followed by a tournament with the following Medford women participating: Mrs. Robert Watson, Mrs. F. G. Bunch, Mrs. Althea Vauter, Mrs. Ivan Harrington, Mrs. George Codding, Mrs. Thomas J. Fuson, Mrs. Leland Clark, Mrs. Gordon Green, Mrs. R. J. Conroy, Mrs. Bell Thompson, Mrs. Jerry Jerome, Mrs. G. O. Humphrey, and Mrs. R. A. Mikache. Today a number of Medford women have been invited to a luncheon and bridge party in the Civic Community clubhouse in Libby park in Ashland. This event is also sponsored by the Shasta Cascade-Wonderland association.

Many To Attend 'Back To School'

Plenty of good old school spirit will prevail tonight when parents will troop joyfully 'back to school' at Junior High.

The 'tardy bell' rings at 8 o'clock and 'students' are asked to be in their seats in the auditorium by that time. Principal Mullens will take charge immediately following a very short P-T-A business procedure.

It has been reported from numerous sources that potential 'students,' especially fathers, have been busy 'polishing apples' since viewing the recent picture of the Junior High faculty.

A liberal education is in store for every ambitious parent at 'back to school' tonight.

Schedules will be distributed at the entrance of the auditorium.

Mrs. James Mott Visitor Yesterday

Mrs. James Mott of Salem accompanied her husband, Congressman Mott, to this city yesterday, and while he was busy contacting Republican leaders and friends she spent the day visiting Mrs. Lottie Daniels at her home on South Grape street.

Mrs. Mott is a long-time friend of Mrs. Daniels' daughter, Mrs. R. M. Evans of Washington, D. C. The two were active in social and club affairs in the capital city.

Mistletoe Club to Convene Mistletoe club will convene tomorrow afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Pearl Miller on Stewart avenue. A covered dish luncheon will be served. Members are asked to bring their own service.

Women of Moose to Convene Women of the Moose will convene this evening at 8 o'clock in the Knights of Pythias hall for a regular business session, after which refreshments will be served. They will also hold a joint meeting later with the Moose men. All members are asked to be present.

Golfers To Elect Officers Tomorrow

Women members of the Rogue River Valley Golf club will meet tomorrow for luncheon in the clubhouse. Hostesses for the affair will be Mrs. Larry Schade, Mrs. Willis Wood and Mrs. Althea Vauter.

An important feature of the session will be the election of new officers.

A point tournament will follow the luncheon and also the first play of the 94-hole derby to be held tomorrow, Thursday and Friday.

As the gathering will be a very important one, it is asked that all members attend in order to participate in the election of officers.

College Club Has Interesting Meet

Rogue River College Women's club met at the home of Mrs. E. H. Hurd on Saturday.

An interesting program consisting of two piano numbers: one by DeBussey and one by Grieg were played by Miss Helen Young.

The book 'Forbidden Journey' by Ella K. Mallart was reviewed by Miss Clare Gumelius. This book was the description of a trip made by the author who was a newspaper reporter from Paris and her traveling companion, a newspaper man from London.

Refreshments appropriate to the season were served by Mrs. G. W. Wilson and the following committee: Mrs. G. O. Taylor, Mrs. F. J. Newman, Mrs. A. R. Clement, Dr. Sual Standard, and Mrs. H. Miller.

Browns Return From Sojourn

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown of Eagle Point arrived in Medford this morning by train from a three weeks' vacation spent in southern California.

The couple were home guests in Santa Barbara of Mrs. Brown's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Light. They also enjoyed sojourn in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

P.T.A. Activities

Mrs. C. W. Walls, president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, will conduct a school of instruction for P.T.A. units of Jackson county at the Methodist church, south, Thursday, October 13, beginning at 10 a. m. She conducted a similar school here a year ago, at which 17 units were represented with an enrollment of 88 officers and chairmen. It is hoped that an even larger number will greet her this year, as it is a wonderful opportunity for P.T.A. workers to prepare themselves for greater success in their work. The council extends a cordial invitation to anyone interested in child welfare to attend.

Mrs. James K. Hoey, president of the Jackson county council, has appointed the following committees for the school: Hospitality, Medford City council, Mrs. P. D. Morrison in charge; decorations, Mrs. Aberle; group singing, Mrs. Wm. Holloway and Mrs. E. H. Thomas; nursery, Mrs. Kennebeck. The nursery for pre-school children will be held in the church. Mothers leaving children are asked to provide them with a lunch.

Luncheon will be served at a nominal cost. A special feature of the luncheon will be music under the direction of Miss Floy Young of the senior high school faculty.

Schoolmaster's Club Names Beck As Head

Adjourning early to allow members to hear the political addresses held in the local high school, the Schoolmasters' club held its first meeting in the banquet room of the Jackson hotel, 6:30 p. m., Oct. 10.

Among other business, they elected the following officers for the coming year:

President, A. L. Beck, superintendent of Jacksonville schools.

Vice-President, R. H. Gandee, principal Central Point grade school.

Secretary-treasurer, Joseph L. Fisher, principal West side school.

Excellent entertainment was furnished by Roger Wolf, piano soloist who played among others his own composition; Miss Sipes, Medford Junior high, who gave several comic impersonations; and the high school quartet and sextet directed by Floy Young, which sang three numbers.

Miss D'Albini Visits Parents

Miss Ruth D'Albini of Baltimore, Md., arrived in Medford recently to spend several weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini, at their home on Quince street.

Miss D'Albini is associated with the social security department in Baltimore. She motored to San Francisco with friends and came the rest of the way to Medford by bus.

Two Attend Legion Installation Rites

Mrs. O. L. Overmyer and Mrs. Thomas Freed left yesterday by motor for Coquille where they will attend installation services of the American Legion auxiliary of that place.

Mrs. Overmyer, who was elected president of district 4 at the Legion convention at Pendleton, will conduct the installation.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Stocks put on numerous quick-change acts in today's market and generally convinced traders the hand was faster than the eye so far as confusing trends were concerned.

Dips and rallies were so frequent the customers no more than took a position on one side of the market than prices pointed in an entirely opposite direction.

Will strong spots were in evidence here and there, along with an assortment of new highs for the year, minus signs were plentiful throughout and closing quotations highly irregular.
