

CANADIAN BORDER FLAMES CLAIM 21; FEAR MORE DEAD

Another Family Perishes—Scattered Showers Bring Some Relief.

(By the Associated Press.)
(By the Associated Press.)
Finding of four more bodies in the Dance township, Ontario, forest fire area brought to 21 today the known dead from the blaze that swept the Minnesota-Canadian border region Monday. Several others were missing including six members of the Stone family.

The latest victims accounted for were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fyle, aged 31 and 19 respectively, and 18-month-old son, Donald, and Mabel Larson, 12-year-old sister of Mrs. Fyle.

The constable directed a crew into the Dance township region, 80 miles northwest of here, where 14 victims have been accounted for, and found ruins of the Sam Fyle home. The occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Fyle, their one-and-one-half year old son and Mr. Fyle's sister-in-law were missing. Police searched, fearing they had been trapped.

Also missing was a family named Stone who lived in Kingsford township which, like Dance township, was swept by the roaring fire. The Stone family included the parents and four children. Police said it may be days before fate of all residents of the area is learned.

Airplanes, national guard trucks and thousands of men patrolled the fire-ravaged Canadian border district between northern Minnesota and Ontario today on the 20th anniversary of a forest fire that took hundreds of lives.

Although scattered showers and lower temperatures had greatly improved conditions, authorities said, grimy, weary fire-fighters were watching blazes from Warroad, Minn., eastward on both sides of the border, to prevent new outbreaks of the fire that already claimed 17 lives.

About 30 persons, including one whole family, were missing in the Dance township, Ontario, region north of Fort Francis, where a crackling timber fire yesterday killed 14 settlers. Three men lost their lives fighting blazes on the Minnesota side of the border.

MIDDLE GROUP OF RAILROADS THORN SAYS LABOR AIDE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—(AP)—A militant labor leader asked President Roosevelt's emergency board today to segregate railroads into three financial groups before passing judgment on the 15 per cent wage reduction asked by the carriers.

George M. Harrison, spokesman for eighteen brotherhoods and unions which have voted to strike rather than take the pay slash, contended a "problem group of railroads" was the cause of the present emergency.

The labor leader testified about one-third of the railroads were in sound financial shape and well able to pay present wages, while another third was in receivership or trusteeship and did not have to meet fixed charges.

"It's the middle group that is the problem child of the industry and the designation is not mine," he said. "It's that prepared by the Interstate Commerce commission for a group appointed by President Roosevelt to study the industry."

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning!

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food will not digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks pink.

A more bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25 cents. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

Lindbergh's Visit to Moscow Turns Sour

This previously unpublished picture shows Col. Charles A. Lindbergh on his visit to Moscow last August, when he was enthusiastically received by Soviet airmen, who since have called him a "stupid liar." The man in white is Vladimir Kokkinnik, Russian air hero and host to Col. Lindbergh, whose name was on the statement exhorting the American flier.

RESOLUTION HITS 'SOCIALIST TREND' IN LEGISLATION

expressive of the philosophy and practice of socialism."

The committee said it had no disposition to question the "sincerity of motive of legislation," enacted after President Roosevelt came into office "to bring about restraint of undue and often brutal defiance of labor, of the citizenship and of all standards of decency."

Caution Urged

"But we have arrived at the point," the report said, "where we must repeat a phrase that we have used since the infancy of our government: We must not allow our movement to be run by those outside our movement, no matter how sincere their friendship or who they may be."

"In years gone by," it added, "we have had to fight an unceasing battle to protect ourselves and our movement from the machinations of uplififers and professional savers of the people."

The committee said it had no fear of dictatorship in the United States, but added:

"We have been too willing to accept gains at the price of lost liberty and lost capacity for self-determination and self-action. We may well hesitate and consider how much further we will travel in the present path."

"We must examine every measure," the report added, "with this test in mind: Is the aim a further guarantee of human rights and a service to our people, or is it the creation of another link in a growing incubus of bureaucracy, soon to be translated into another step toward a state supreme? On that basis we must judge and the time to take our stand and draw the line is now."

"We have come to a time when there must be a halt," the committee asserted, "for we fear there can thereafter be no halt. We do not question or disparage any motive. But we do raise the question of present day trend and tendencies. Much of this trend has developed out of a lack of consultation with labor in the affairs of state."

"A nation may be well fed, and sacrifice its liberties," the report concluded. "Life calls for food, but it calls, finally, for something above all substance, and that is what Patrick Henry had in mind when he proclaimed to the colonial patriots, 'Give me liberty or give me death.'"

EUGENE HAS URGE TO GET ITS POWER FROM BONNEVILLE

EUGENE, Oct. 12.—(AP)—A proposal whereby Eugene would become a unit in the vast northwest power system headed at Bonneville dam was formally submitted to J. D. Ross, administrator, by the Eugene water board today.

Under terms of the proposal, Eugene would contract to purchase power over a period of ten years, with the city given the right to benefit thru any rate reductions made during that period.

For the period, the city would pay Bonneville $203,825 for power to provide peak service in Eugene and for whatever standby service might be required.

Eugene has proposed to construct a standby plant to provide standby and peak service and has a FWA grant of $214,000 authorized for this purpose. Should the Bonneville authorities accept the local proposal, it is expected plans for the local plant would be abandoned.

Figures compiled by water board engineers indicate the cost of operation and maintenance of the standby plant over the ten-year period would total $266,000 compared with the cost of $203,825 if the Bonneville proposal is accepted. In addition, Eugene would be spared the cost of constructing the plant.

SHASTA MEETING TOLD OF FEDERAL ROAD ALLOTMENT

ASHLAND, Oct. 12.—(Sp.)—Representative James W. Mott told the general assembly of the Shasta Cascade Wonderland association convention here Tuesday that $9,000,000 of federal funds would be available for highway work in Oregon in the next two years.

The convention, which opened Monday with nine northern California and southern Oregon counties represented, concluded Tuesday night with a banquet at the Elks temple and a vaudeville show.

A feature of the meet was the public initiation by the Medford Crater club. Twelve notables were initiated during the ceremonies which stress Crater lake legends.

Speakers at the various unit sessions included: W. Lloyd Craig, E. C. Manning, George I. Erwin, Victoria, B. C.; Dr. Carl Swartzlow, Lassen park naturalist; Karl Janouch, Rogue river forest; Stanley Jewett, United States biological survey; Charles Sprague, gubernatorial nominee; Commander A. W. Scott, Rosier Mike; Golden Gate Exposition commission; Tod Fowell, San Francisco Chronicle; Ralph Billings, Ashland; George B. Nordenholt, director California natural resources; F. L. Touville, Oregon highway commission; C. W. Vandenburg, J. W. Smythe, Golden Gate exposition; Tevis Paine, California state fair.

Counties represented were: Tehama, Lassen, Siskiyou, Modoc, Shasta, Trinity, California; Jackson, Klamath, Lake, Oregon.

DALL LIBEL SUIT FOR 'TIME' STORY ORDERED RETRIED

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 12.—(AP)—New York's court of appeals has cleared the way for retrial of a libel suit brought by Curtis B. Dall, New York City, former son-in-law of President Roosevelt, against Time magazine.

The state's highest tribunal denied yesterday the magazine's motion for judgment of the case, in which the court last July 7 upheld a lower court ruling calling for a new trial to determine the amount of damages to be awarded.

The suit arose from a story in the magazine, comparing American and foreign treatment of news stories. Dall charged as a fictitious example, the magazine story represented him as having committed suicide in the White House in the presence of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and his former wife, now Mrs. John Boettiger.

Although a state supreme court jury gave a verdict in favor of the magazine, the presiding judge set aside its findings and ordered a retrial. The appellate division and the court of appeals upheld his action.

Long Lived The King ... But It Was a Hard Life

All Europe marveled at the pomp and splendor of Louis Fourteenth. Yet, in all his 77 years, the French King had no refrigerator, fans or telephone...no radio or moviettes...no inflated tires on his gaudy coach.

So, it appears that we Americans don't live like Kings at all. We live better... far beyond the dreams of our pioneers... in a land of peace, coddled by science and invention...strengthened by the knowledge that this land of ours will always offer ample rewards to those with faith in the foundations laid down by our forefathers...faith in our national destiny... faith in themselves.
