

FIGHT PROPAGANDA WITH EDUCATION IS HOOVER PROPOSAL

Former President Says U. S. Should Keep Out of Other People's Wars — Free Discussion Seen Need

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 18.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover, asserting the United States ought to keep out of "other people's wars" and conflicts which did not threaten her "independence or honor," proposed today America use education as a weapon against propaganda.

"In a free country, the only answer to propaganda is more education," the former president said at a press conference. "I don't mean school education, but more free discussions. We can't stop propaganda, otherwise we sn'rench on free speech."

Word to Voters.

The Republican leader who in a rally speech last night urged the election of "independent-minded" men to congress, told reporters he had "no fear propaganda will get far" in the United States.

"But," he said, "it has to be met. Somebody has to answer it."

Hoover said he had no fear of a possible economic invasion by the western hemisphere by totalitarian countries. He suggested Americans "build a little province of our own in the western hemisphere" as an answer to trade "provinces" based on quotas and other restrictions which he said were being established by such countries as Germany, Great Britain and Japan.

Word to Voters.

The former president, recommending trial for a "stop, look and listen" policy for the next two years, urged American voters to elect "independent-minded men" to congress to halt experiments "with the American way of life" by the New Deal and "its yes-men" which he said had been carried on "at dreadful cost in human misery and despair."

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(AP)—A rally in motors, together with persistent strength of aircraft and several specialties, revived a sinking stock market today and converted early losses into gains of fractions to around three points for selected issues.

The upward reversal followed a statement by Chairman Sloan of General Motors announcing re-employment of 35,000 workers during the next two weeks and restoration of pay reductions of office workers instituted last February. Sloan also expressed optimism over the sales outlook for new cars.

Transfers approximated 2,400,000 shares.

SECRET PRACTICE DECEERED FOR BOWERMAN'S BOYS AS TOUGH TILT NEARS—FOUR MEN OUT WITH INJURIES

Severely crippled by injuries to four squadmen, two of themarsity regulars, Medford High's Black Tornado football machine will this week receive a final tuning-up in preparation for the invasion next Friday night of Klamath Falls' undefeated and untied Pelicans. Starting today, the Tigers will practice on the stadium turf behind locked gates.

Definitely relegated to the sidelines for the Klamath game are Franklin Jones, first string guard; Gene McCurley, regular blocking quarterback; John Sausberry, second fullback and Shorty Campbell, second halfback. Jones sustained a concussion in the brutal Eureka tilt Friday night, and Sausberry and Campbell are out of the encounter because of injured legs. McCurley has a broken rib.

Although they are bruised and battered considerably, the remainder of the squad is in good condition for the battle, which will undoubtedly decide the Southern Oregon conference championship. Also leading a faint ray of hope to the Tornado cause is the return to action of Bill Piche, 150-pound right halfback, whose speed and shiftness is expected to live up to the Tiger attack. Piche will alternate with Dowd Cooper at the right halfback post, as Bill Caples, regular right half, moves to the quarterback position, where his superb blocking ability is sorely needed. Bob Newland and Jack Bowman will operate at left half, while Louie Thurman will start at the fullback spot.

Only light workouts are planned for the Tigers this week, with little body contact on schedule. Coach Bowerman intimated the team would drill intensively on several surprise maneuvers, hence the workouts being staged behind closed gates.

BEAVERS DRILL ON PASSING, RUNNING

CORVALLIS, Oct. 18.—(AP)—The Oregon State college Beavers, undefeated with their 13 to 0 victory over Washington, drilled today on running and passing attacks for a football game at Portland next Saturday with Washington State college.

Pleased with the Beavers' first win of the conference season, Coach Lon Stiner was not so jovial over his squad's "faulty execution" of several plays.

Budge said he had been offered $70,000 for a one-year professional tour, but he wants at least $100,000. The offer was made by Jack Harris, Chicago sports promoter.

MIDNIGHT GETS NOD AFTER POOR FINISH

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Although he was hanging on for the last two rounds, Midnight Bell of Portland, Ore., was awarded a decision over Dick Foster of Berkeley, Cal., in an eight-round boxing bout here last night. A substantial lead piled up the first six rounds won the nod for Bell. The Portlander weighed 158; Foster 156.
