

RESORT OWNERS OF UPPER ROGUE ARE ORGANIZED

Meeting at Rogue River Lodge Elects George Howard President—Tourist Increase Is Objective

An organization of resort owners and managers in the upper Rogue river district was formed to promote tourist trade at a meeting last night in the Rogue River Lodge near Trail.

George Howard, manager of the Diamond Lake resort was elected president; H. G. Montag, owner of Tate's Rogue River Resort, vice president, and A. H. Banwell, manager of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, secretary.

The meeting was sponsored by the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce to develop ways and means of increasing tourist trade in southern Oregon and, more particularly, of providing such excellent services and recreation as to encourage tourists to prolong their visits once they arrive here.

Aim Outlined
The aim of the meeting was outlined to the group by Glenn L. Jackson, vice president of the chamber of commerce, who emphasized that the chamber was in no wise trying to tell the resort owners how to run their business but was simply offering its help in bringing a larger number of satisfied travelers to southern Oregon.

The tourist trade is big business and we're not getting our share of it in southern Oregon," Mr. Jackson said. "Next year, with the world's fair on in San Francisco, we're going to win or lose. We are trying to make preparations now so that we shall win."

Mr. Jackson told of a series of classes to be sponsored by the chamber of commerce after November 1 to coordinate all interested agencies in catering to tourists in such a way as to satisfy them completely with their visits here. The first class, he said, would be for service station attendants who come in direct contact with the traveling public and who thus can assist materially in selling southern Oregon to the tourists. Other classes will be held for resort owners and managers, hotel and restaurant employees and other enterprises that cater to the touring public.

Leavitt Backs Idea
E. P. Leavitt, superintendent of Crater Lake national park, endorsed the idea of the classes. He told of the large sums of money being spent by the national park service to traffic Crater lake a tourist mecca.

Homer J. Merchant, district traffic manager for United Air Lines at Los Angeles and a director of the All Year Club of Southern California, declared that winter sports were being overlooked as a southern Oregon lure. An objective, he said, should be to keep tourists here for longer visits. He told of plans to increase use of air transportation by tourists and said to this end his company would sponsor a fishing contest on the west coast.

It was decided that the resorts would supply information as to their services and facilities to the chamber of commerce so that there would be a complete picture of what is available for tourists. This information is to be provided through a questionnaire to be prepared by the chamber of commerce. Through postcards furnished by the chamber of commerce the resorts are to provide publicity material on guests and their activities.

In addition to those already mentioned there were present at the meeting Eugene Thordike, president of the chamber of commerce; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Johnson, Sunset-on-the-Rogue; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brill, Rogue Allure; W. G. McDonald, Rogue Elk; Mrs. A. Gilhouse, Rogue River; Mrs. Mary Grieve and Mr. and Mrs. Heston Grieve, Prospect Resort; R. Axel, Prospect guide; Mrs. George Howard and Mrs. Homer J. Merchant.

CZECH 'WHACK-UP' KNOTTY PROBLEM FOR NAZI UMPIRE

Hopes to Mediate Disembodiment Without Alienating Any of Three Nations Interested in Action

(By the Associated Press.)
The changing face of central Europe posed a knotty problem for Germany today while two of the world's three great powers—Spain and Palestine—were relatively calm and the third, China, moved toward a new crisis.

Germany, as mediator, optimistically confronted the necessity of arranging the disembodiment of Czechoslovakia without alienating any of three friends whose interests conflict.

Poland and Hungary, old allies of Germany, want a common border by cession to Hungary of areas of autonomous Ruthenia and Slovakia in the former Czechoslovak region.

Czechoslovakia, who now pins her hope for future peace and prosperity on Berlin, wants to keep what she has left.

Jerusalem Calm
After 30 months of continuous Arab-Jewish turmoil and bloodshed, the holy city of Jerusalem enjoyed relative calm with British soldiers again in possession of its old section.

While lieutenants worked on the problem, Reichsfuehrer Hitler received the acclaim of Sudetenlanders as he went from Lis to Kruman in the former Czechoslovak region. He told the inhabitants it was their duty to guard Germany with the same ardor they showed in defense of their nationality while they were under Czechoslovak rule.

A general staff report to Prague said six persons were killed in disorders provoked yesterday by Sudeten Germans. What apparently was the German version of the same disorders said five Czechs were killed and one German was wounded.

To Halt Insurrection
Repossession of ancient Jerusalem capped 24 hours of steady military efforts to eliminate rebellious Arabs who had held the old city for four days. It was the first step in a larger campaign to subdue Arab insurrection against British rule throughout the Holy Land.

The threat of new internal disension was raised in France by strongly-organized government workers who warned Premier Edouard Doledeley they had decided on "action" if their demands for higher wages remained sidetracked.

Swiftly striking Japanese forces were reported to be threatening the next line of defenses for Hankow, provisional capital of China, in a drive up both banks of the Yangtze river from 80 miles east. Civilian evacuation of the Hankow area was accelerated.

In the south, another Japanese army drove forward in a hurried effort to reach Canton, main southern metropolis, but it was believed to be heading into a strong Chinese defense line.

Only occasional aerial combat on the Ebro river front in lower Catalonia broke the calm that settled over the Spanish warfront.

LETTERS LINKING SPY OPERATIVES READ AT HEARING

"She said that was very mysterious, and what it was about," Rumrich continued. "I said 'use your imagination'."

Schlueter, Rumrich said, had asked him if Miss de Wanger was "approachable to appointment." He said the woman, who operated a liquor store near Mitchell field, said she had some friends in Berlin who might have sent a message.

Didn't Keep Date
Rumrich testified he made an appointment to meet her at the McAlpin hotel in New York, "but I didn't keep it and shortly afterward I was arrested."

Dunigan read a letter purportedly written by Rumrich addressed to Mrs. Jesse Jordan at Dundee, Scotland. (Previous testimony had brought out British agents were intercepting letters addressed to Mrs. Jordan.)

The letter began "Dear sir," and told of receiving a visit from a man and woman who had arrived on the Europa (supposedly Schlueter and Miss Hofmann) and asked "am I justified in dealing with people from the Europa?" It also said "am very short of money," and complained "I have not heard from you for some time."

Another letter read by Dunigan addressed to Mrs. Jordan read: "Dear sir: As yet I have had no news from you since December. I am getting rather worried, kindly advise if everything okay." It said a cablegram would "do the trick."

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly once they discover the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 quarts of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Hart of 28 South Columbus avenue today in the Community hospital, a girl weighing 8 pounds, 12 1/2 ounces. The baby has been named Ada Erlene.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Tresham of Central Point today at 12:31 p. m. in Community hospital, a boy weighing 7 pounds, 12 1/2 ounces.
