Klamath Blasted From State Title Race By Bowerman's Squad

TIGERS WIN, 6-0, IN HECTIC GAME, PASS GIVES WIN

Record Crowd Sees Over-Touted Klamath Falls Team Defeated Friday Night.

A determined Medford high school football eleven, two to one underdog in the betting, shot down the hitherto undefeated, over-touted Klamath Falls Pelicans Friday night at the stadium before a record crowd of 6,000 — largest in local history—and catapulted itself directly into the front ranks of prep teams gunning for the mythical Oregon state championship. The score was 6 to 0.

Accorded only an outside chance against a Pelican team which had piled up 195 points in five straight victories, the Black Tornado, inspired to supreme heights by a savagely-fighting forward wall that yielded no further than its own 28-yard line, tallied its touchdown in the fourth quarter, five and one-half minutes before the final gun.

It was a 14-yard forward pass from Left Halfback Jack Bowman to Right End Don Monteith that gave the Tigers their startling upset win over Klamath Falls, a crazy, wobbling aerial shot over the goal line that Monteith literally battled from the arms of two Pelican backs in one of the most sensational catches ever witnessed on the local field. Don Gillespie, rushed into the game to attempt a dropkick for the extra point, saw his boot blocked by the Klamath Falls line.

That touchdown, coming after three and one-half quarters of probably the most vicious and thrilling grid action ever displayed by the two bitter rivals, climaxed a 90-yard sustained drive by the Tigers, which started on their own 9-yard stripe at the close of the third period, and moved straight down the field to the Klamath Falls foot and one-half line. There, with first down and goal to go, Bob Newland fumbled on the first play when he was terrifically smashed by three Pelican linemen, and Klamath Falls recovered.

Not to be denied, Medford's great line blasted through to partially block the punt of Ramos, Klamath fullback, as he attempted to kick out of danger. Medford's Bill Caples caught the ball on the Klamath Falls 18-yard line, and the Tigers, who had been knocking at the door all night, went into their payoff action.

On the first play, Newland fired a pass to Bowman, good for four yards. Another pass was incomplete, then Bowman took the pass back from center, faded back and to his left, and with three Klamath Falls linemen rushing him furiously and clawing at his arm, he tossed the ball over the goal line and into the end zone. It appeared like Monteith didn't have a chance to catch it. The Pelican backs apparently had him covered like a blanket. But, as the ball drifted lazily downward and directly into the center of the three straining players, the fighting Tiger wingman desperately clutched the pigskin, practically jerking it from the arms of Klamath's Ramos, and fell to the ground with the ball firmly clutched to his chest.

It was a miraculous catch, a miraculous play in all respects. It appeared like Bowman would be thrown far behind his line of scrimmage as Pelican linemen charged him hard. He shook off one tackler, though, dodged another, and cut it loose. It was not a pretty pass. It was wobbly as a punt and rather high, but it carried with it a 6 to 0 victory for the Black Tornado, and one of the biggest form reversals in Southern Oregon conference history.

Klamath Falls tried valiantly to score in the final minutes of play, moving to the Medford 32-yard line once and coming back to penetrate to the 30 in the closing seconds, but Caples intercepted a long pass on his own 20-yard marker and ran it back 15 yards as the game ended.

Three times in the first half the Black Tornado was within scoring territory, all those opportunities resulting directly from Klamath Falls fumbles which Medford recovered. The Pelicans fumbled seven times during the game, and six of them were recovered by the Tigers, taking savage advantage of every break. Those Klamath fumbles were attributable to the vicious tackling of the Medford line, which time after time smashed through to break up the vaunted Pelican razzle-dazzle.

It was that line play which swung the advantage to the Tigers. Monteith and Verbick, ends, were magnificent. Coach Bill Bowerman, after the game, stated that he had never seen such great end play on a Medford team, and said that "Verbick turned in the finest performance at end I have ever seen in high school football." Clute and Barrow, tackles; Childers, Eri and Howard, guards; and Prentice, center, all performed brilliantly, and all played an equal part in the grand victory.

In the backfield, Caples, Newland, Bowman and Louie Thurman turned in slam-bang exhibitions. Newland and Bowman, dividing the kicking duties, averaged 39.8 yards per boot, and those beautiful punts kept the Pelicans deep in their own territory most of the ball game.

It was in the second-half that Medford's superiority became apparent. The Pelicans chalked up seven first downs to the Tigers' two in the first two periods, but in the last two quarters Medford blasted through for eight first downs to three for Klamath, and 179 yards gained to 61 for the visitors. In the first half the Tigers made only 18 yards from scrimmage and passes, while Klamath gained 80 yards on the ground and through the air. Not considered a forward passing team, the Tigers completed eight of 20 aerials for 69 yards gained, while the Pelicans hit three out of ten for 38 yards.

The game was not two minutes old before Medford made its first break and was threatening to score. Mayhew, Klamath fullback, was smashed by Medford's Al Barrow on the Klamath Falls 30, and Monteith recovered for the Tigers. Thurman made 8 on a reverse over right tackle, Bowman passed five yards to Piche and a first down on the Klamath 20. An offside penalty put the Pelicans back on their own 15, but Medford passes were incomplete and the Pelicans took the ball on their own 18.

After an exchange of punts, Medford's Gillespie recovered another Klamath fumble on the 28-yard line, but Mayhew of the Pelicans intercepted a pass on his own 16 to again halt the Black Tornado. The fumble was the result of a terrific tackle by Bill Clute, Tiger tackle.

As the second quarter began, Monteith recovered still another Pelican fumble, this time on the Klamath 22-yard line. Cooper got 11 yards on a reverse over right tackle, and Klamath was penalized one-half the distance to the goal line for holding, putting the ball on the 5½-yard stripe. Four Tiger line plays lost two yards as Klamath dug in, and the Pelicans took the ball on downs on their own 8.

After another exchange of punts, the Pelicans started from their own 39-yard line and traveled to the Medford 28, the closest they approached the local goal line all evening. Ramos got a first down in two plays at center. Anderson went for nine on a reverse over Medford's left tackle, and a pass from Ramos to Harran advanced the ball to the Tiger 28. There, Medford again recovered a fumble as the half ended.

Starting the third quarter, the Tigers, sparked by Caples, went from their own 35 to the Klamath 24, where they lost the ball on downs. Caples tipped off a 20-yard run on a reverse. Bowman and Newland smashed the center of the line for nice gains, and a pass from Newland to Caples gained nine yards in the drive. A moment later, after Klamath Falls punted, a lateral pass from Newland to Bowman gained 22 yards and again put the Tigers in Klamath territory, but they were unable to penetrate the fighting Pelican line, and Newland kicked out of bounds on the Klamath 10.

Klamath moved back up the field, then was forced to punt, and when Bowman fumbled the kick on his own 39, Mayfield recovered for Klamath Falls. The Pelican ground attack bogged down, and Ramos hurled a long pass which Bowman intercepted on the Medford nine-yard line, and here started the Tigers' 90-yard drive which ended, indirectly, in a touchdown.

Newland, apparently back to punt, crossed up the Klamath line by racing through a gaping hole at right tackle for 13 yards to the 22-yard line as the third quarter ended. Bowman passed to Caples in the right flat for 10 yards. Caples made eight on a reverse around right end. Newland hit right tackle for a yard. Bowman, with great blocking skirted the Pelicans' left end for 16 yards. Newland and Caples picked up seven through the line.

Then Newland hurled a sharp pass straight down the middle to Verbick, who took the ball on the dead run and raced to the Klamath 11-yard line. The aerial was good for 20 yards. Newland hit center for a yard, then fired another forward pass to Verbick, who fought his way to the Klamath one and one-half foot line, and a first down. On the first play, Newland fumbled when cracked by the desperate Klamath line, and the Pelicans recovered. Then followed the partially blocked Klamath punt and Medford's touchdown.

That 90-yard drive of the Tigers, a beautiful thing to see, was manufactured with 10 scrimmage plays and five straight first downs. Bowman, calling the plays, mixed the attack with rare football genius, and the Pelicans were literally bewildered. The drive started just after Caples went into the game, injured leg and all.

Ramos and Mayhew, backs, starred for the Pelicans, while the entire Klamath line turned in sterling performances. In fact, it was a battle of lines all the way through, with honors about even. Seldom has there been seen such a terrific line play, in this conference.

The game, last conference tilt for the Pelicans, established Medford odds-on favorite to successfully defend its championship. The Tigers have Ashland and Grants Pass remaining on the league slate. Next Friday night, Medford travels to Bend, then returns to face the Eugene high Axmen here November 4.

All Tiger players, with the exception of Verbick, came out of the gruelling battle uninjured, although bruised and battered. Verbick sprained his knee in the last minute of play, and Coach Bowerman reported the great wingman would probably be out of action for a week.

The huge crowd packed the grandstand, 1800 temporary bleacher seats on the east side of the field, and was packed 10 deep along the sidelines. It was the largest attendance in the history of Medford high football, and probably of southern Oregon.

SOCKEYE RETURNS TO ARMORY WARS

It's Sockeye Jack McDonald, the rough, tough and popular ex-Seattle longer, returning to the Medford armory grappling ring tomorrow night to face equally popular Paul Murdock in the main event of another great ladies night program. For the third straight week, a capacity crowd is expected.

Pete Belcastro and Buddy Knox clash in the center attraction, in a cleanie versus meanie squabble, with Belcastro furnishing the villainous action. In the opener, Monte LaDue, brutal Frenchman, collides with Frankie Schroll, absent from southern Oregon for four years. This will also feature a cleanie versus a meanie, with Schroll attempting to defeat LaDue by legitimate tactics.

Although he is undefeated in the Medford armory to date, Murdock will be no better than an even bet to wallop the husky Sockeye.

J'Ville High Defeats Talent In 6-Man Tilt

In the first six-man football game ever staged in Medford, Jacksonville high beat Talent high yesterday afternoon at Van Scoyoc field, 26 to 0, in a Jackson county conference tilt. Score at the half was 6 to 0.

The game was replete with long runs, White, Jacksonville end, running back a fumble 30 yards to score. Right Halfback Eaton tallying after a 65-yard dash, and a pass from Gunter to Riana for 30 yards bringing another touchdown.

Friday afternoon, Rogue River defeated Gold Hill, 36 to 14, to run its point total to 170 in three games. The score was 31 to 0 at the end of the first half.

Jacksonville travels to Rogue River next Wednesday afternoon, the game starting at 2:30.

PITT CONTINUES AS LEADING GRID TEAM OF NATION

Syracuse And Georgia Fall By Way—Texas Christians Show Class—Indiana Loses.

(By HERBERT W. BARKER)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23—(AP)—Pitt's Golden Panthers, No. 1 team in last week's Associated Press poll, gave another awesome demonstration of all-around power and skill today as Syracuse, Georgia and Carnegie Tech fell off the unbeaten football bandwagon.

In a day conspicuously free of major surprises, Notre Dame's Irish, the Horned Frogs of Texas Christian, the Indians of Dartmouth, Oklahoma, Duke and half a dozen others kept pace with Pitt in the dizzy dash for national championship recognition.

Pitt, mixing its powerful running attack with effective passing, buried the Mustangs of Southern Methodist under a 34-7 count before 37,000. Notre Dame, blocked for three periods by Carnegie Tech's rugged defense, finally pushed over a touchdown in the fouth for a 7-0 triumph.

Texas Christian, heirs-apparent to the Southeast conference throne, toppled Marquette, 21-0, as Dartmouth overcame stubborn Harvard, 13-7. Oklahoma twice pierced Nebraska's defense and won a 14-0 Big Six triumph as Duke was held to a 7-0 score by Wake Forest.

Syracuse's first defeat was a 20-12 set-back by Michigan State's speedy Spartans while Georgia, previously unbeaten, was soundly trounced by Holy Cross, 29-6.

Fordham and Colgate upheld Eastern prestige in intersectional warfare as the rams, boasting a scoring punch for the first time in years, buried Oregon under a 26-0 score and Colgate traveled west to shellack Iowa 14-0. On the other side of the larger, Michigan spotted Yale a 13-2 halftime lead and then won 15-13.

In the east, Lafayette's 7-6 victory over New York university was the only surprise as Cornell tripped Penn State, 21-6; Georgetown topped Manhattan, 14-13; Penn nosed out Columbia, 14-13; Navy and Princeton tied at 13-13; Aarmy routed Boston university, 40-0, and Amherst won the first "little three' game from Wesleyan, 13-0. Brown and Rhode Island State scored 61 points as the former earned a 40-2- decision.

With Minnesota idle, Northwestern took over the Big Ten headlines by throwing Illinois for a 13-0 loss. Purdue came from behind to stop Wisconsin, 13-7, as Ohio State ran up a 42-7 count on Chicago. Kansas State, from the Big Six, plastered a 13-6 defeat on disappointing Indiana. Sharing Big Six honors with Oklahoma were Iowa State's undefeated Cyclones who mowed down Kansas, 21-7. Missouri whipped Washington (St. Louis) of the Missouri Valley conference, 13-0.

The South's "off" program was marked by Georgia Tech's narrow 7-6 triumph over Auburn in the chief Southeastern conference game of the day. Tennessee breezed through a "breather," the Citadel, 44-0, as Alabama stopped Sewanee, 32-0; Mississippi rolled up a 47-14 score on Centenary, and Tulane swamped Mercer, 51-0.

North Carolina, which plays Duke in a pivotal Southern conference game next week, ran up a 34-0 score on Davidson as North Carolina State and Furman played a 7-7 draw; Washington and Lee topped Virginia Poly, 6-0; and Virginia Military tripped William and Mary, 14-0. Virginia outscored Maryland in a wild game 27-19.

Rice choked up its first victory, winning a Southwest conference tussle from Texas, 13-6, in the last three minutes of play.

Ohio State Wallops Chicago Squad, 42-7

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 22.—(AP) Ohio State's big team defeated a hapless Chicago Maroon squad 42 to 7 today before 63,069 fans in the Western conference football contest, the Bucks getting 35 of their points in the first two periods when they scored almost at will. The Chicago touchdown came on a 50-yard last-period pass, the aerial game constituting the lone threat of the invaders.

POWER OF BEARS SUBDUES HUSKIES; REVERSES PUZZLE

SEATTLE, Oct. 22.—(AP)—California's marauding Bear, mad terror of Pacific coast conference gridirons, dumped a fighting Washington Husky into the football ash-can as it passed through Seattle today, and when last seen was headed in the direction of the Rosebowl. The score was 14 to 7.

Twenty five thousand spectators saw the winless University of Washington team attempt to make it a battle, but the Huskies wilted under the crushing power of California in the third period to drop to two quick touchdowns.

The triumph was the sixth in succession this season for the undefeated championship Bears, and the 17th game in a two-year stretch without a defeat. The only black mark against California since it lost to Georgia Tech in 1936 was a scoreless tie with Washington last year.

The loss sent Washington skidding into its most disastrous session since 1929 when the late Coach Enoch Bradshaw won only two non-conference games and sonseqpently was fired. Coach Jimmy Phelan's gridders have played five contests without a win this season.

After fighting off a Washington attempt at a field goal and getting nowhere in particular in the first half, California finally got its tricky reverse functioning in the third period and rambled away for two touchdowns, all-America candidate Vic Bottari spiking the first and Louis Smith the second. The touchdowns were mustered in two long, sustained rushes, the first a 41-yard drive, and the second a 73-yard maneuver.

Washington counted its touchdown on a pass from Bill Gleason to Jimmy Johnston in the dying minutes of the game after the Huskies had failed on a previous try on the California 2-yard line with its now famous "fumble and fall back" play.

Big Dave Anderson, California's fullback, provided the spark that started the Bears rolling. At the outset of the third period, California took a punt on the Washington 41-yard line and Anderson ploughed through center for 11 and followed with a zigzag streak that carried him within two steps of the goal before he was forced out of bound by Walt Elliott.

Bottari decided to make the touchdown and he made good on the second try. On the first dive he pushed the nose of the ball up against the goal line and the score was only a matter of time.

Apparently surmising that one touchdown might not be enough, the Bears came charging right back this time driving 73 yards for a second score.

Washington took the kickoff, failed to get out of its tracks, and punted to the California 27.

Junior High Wins From G. P. Rooks

Medford junior high school's fast-stepping football machine tallied its third straight victory Friday afternoon at Grants Pass, defeating the Climate city juniors, 6 to 0, when Halfback Cato Wray dashed 25 yards around right end on a double reverse for the lone touchdown of the game. The score came in the first four minutes of play.

Outstanding for Medford were Wray, Hopkins, fullback; Glenn, guard and Baillen, tackle. The teams were evenly matched and waged a furious battle.

A return encounter will be played here next Wednesday night at the stadium.

Notre Dame Recovery Defeats Carnegie, 7-0

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 22.—(AP) Notre Dame knocked Carnegie Tech into the ranks of defeated teams today by vanquishing the Scots, 7 to 0, in a bruising last period before 28,000.

Getting the ball on a fumble, Notre Dame scored at the start of the fourth, with Kerr, a substitute, going over from the seven-yard line. Morrison kicked goal. The Irish were outplayed for three periods by the fiercely charging invaders.

STATERS COLLECT LONE POINT WIN OFF COUGARS, 7-6

O. S. C. Comes From Behind In Rout Jinx And Gets Outside Title Chance.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 22.—(AP) Oregon State college burned the record of first half disaster today to come from behind for a skimpy 7 to 6 victory against the oft-beaten Washington State Cougars.

Prescott Hutchin's successful try for point after touchdown kept the Beavers, upsetters of the faltering Washington Huskies last week, with an outside change to collect the Pacific Coast conference title.

Oregon State, awakening in the second half after the Cougars, now five times beaten in the conference, shot a touchdown pass on the opening play of the second quarter, fired up the furnaces of energy to outplay their inter-state rivals the rest of the game.

Vic Kohler, halfback, and Jim Kisselburgh, fullback, began the victory drive late in the third period. Together they passed or ran from the Oregon State 44 to Washington State 19.

Washington State intercepted a fourth down pass but fumbled and the Beavers started with a new series of downs on the 18.

As the fourth period opened, Hal Higgins, fresh in the contest at quarterback, and Kisselburgh tried the tackles and reached the W. S. C. eight. Higgins got five yards on three shots and then pushed through the center to score from the three.

Paul Kallo, Washington State halfback, who started a march by running a punt back 30 yards, passed to Cecil Welchko halfback, to put the Cougars on the O. S. C. 23 late in the first period. Chuck Holmes, fullback, took over the running assignments and reached the six where he passed to Callow for a touchdown.

Joe Angelo, quarterback, failed to convert from placement but it didn't seem important at the time because the Cougars were having no difficulty in blasting the Beaver line.

The Cougars played all their football in the first half and twice got inside the Beaver five-yard line.

Oregon State made 271 yards from passes and scrimmage and the Cougars 158. The Beavers, however, doubled the first downs, 14 to 7.

IDAHO HOPES FOR ROSE BOWL GAME GET 33-0 JOLT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The University of California at Los Angeles jolted Idaho out of its pleasant Rose Bowl dream today, smearing the erstwhile unbeaten Vandals, 33 to 0, before 25,000 sunbaked grid fans.

Leading the triumphant Bruins in the biggest walloping ever handed Idaho by the Uclans was Kenny Washington, who broke loose for 46 yards on one dash to set the stage for a touchdown, tore down the field for 47 yards for another score, and wound up his day by going 7 yards for still another tally.

Idaho showed little to justify its hope for consideration as the Pacific Coast conference representative in the Rose Bowl. The nearest Vandals got to the U. C. L. A. goal was the 46-yard line as the stalwart Bruins forwards, led by Center Johnny Ryland, stopped the threats of Hal Roise and his cohorts, giving them only three first downs.

The Uclans scored in the first quarter, driving 31 yards and sending Bill Overlin one yard for the final thrust. They tallied again in the second after Washington's 46-yard run to the Idaho four capped a 75-yard drive. Hal Hirshorn drifted untouched around left end to make the touchdown.

The rout came in the final period, starting with Washington's spectacular 47-yard scoring run. John Frawley, ponderous guard, who booted three placements for the points after touchdown, blocked an Idaho punt and U. C. L. A. took the ball on the Idaho 11. A moment later Washington traveled around right end, leaving a strip of his jersey in an Idaho player's hand enroute.

Hirshon intercepted an Idaho pass late in the quarter, and ran 30 yards across the goal to end the day's scoring.

ARKANSAS BEATEN BY SANTA CLARA

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Undefeated, untied University of Santa Clara, strengthened its bid for national recognition today with a smashing 21 to 6 victory over the University of Arkansas Razorbacks.

From the opening kickoff until the final gun barked it was the wildest, thrill-filled game seen here this year.

Some 25,000 fans stayed until the last play as the ball changed hands time after time on intercepted passes, punts and recovered fumbles.

Army Runners Win

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Placing five men in the first 12, the Army cross-country team won the second annual Army, Navy, Princeton, Columbia quadrangular meet today, although Barney Oldfield Navy, traversed the five-mile Van Cortland park course in 29:43 to capture first place.

STANFORD BEATEN BY TROJANS, 13-2

By BRIAN BELL

PALO ALTO, Oct. 22.—(AP)Southern California had to come from behand to defeat Stanford 13 to 2 this afternoon but when the Trojan Horse started galloping after the intermission there was nothing the Indians could do about it.

Thirty thousand spectators, inding James Roosevelt, son of the president, sat under a warm sun to see the home team take an early lead with a lowly safety in the first few minutes of the struggle.

The game was only three minutes old when Oliver Day, starting Southern California quarterback, getting his hands on and off a punt and finally recovering it under a pile of Stanford tacklers behind his goal line.

The two points thus presented the Indians loomed large on the score board as the teams left the field at half time for although Stanford could not score again, a stout defense kept the visitors back in their own territory most of the time.

It was a bruising struggle with few holds barred. A couple of near fights broke out and there was much tugging and hauling throughout.
