

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By OLARA MARY DAVIS

Miss Mallery to Wed Robert Elson in November Rites

Mrs. H. K. Hamilton and Mrs. G. W. Mallery entertained Friday at a luncheon party honoring the latter's daughter, Miss Betty Mallery.

The occasion for the pleasant affair was to announce the engagement of Miss Mallery to Mr. Robert E. Elson. Their marriage will be an event of early November.

Guests enjoying the party included the Misses Everal Dean, Jean Crawford, Beattie Dean, Virginia Cox, Zetta Dean, Bethel Slagle, Chloe Elson, Viola Cleven, Fern Cherryholmes, Peggy Moran, Bernice Shellabarger and Edna Harper and Mesdames John Elson, Dean Pieper, William Knips, Richard Witt, L. D. Forncrook, Jack Walker and Lloyd Johnson.

Bridge Luncheon Successful Event of Thursday Last

Autumn leaves, touched to brilliant hues by early October frosts, made an attractive setting for one of the most successful social events of the season. The bridge luncheon held on October 19 at St. Mary's Academy drew over one hundred fifty guests who filled the spacious assembly and adjoining parlors. A pleasing program was provided by St. Mary's School of Music. Members of the faculty and high school student body assisted with the luncheon.

The door prize was won by Mrs. B. L. Hunter. Prizes at cards were awarded to Mrs. A. F. Stennett, Mrs. Jack Porter, Mrs. M. Schwartz, Mrs. Fred Wells, Mrs. A. Wetterer.

The success of the event was due to splendid cooperation and enthusiasm manifested by the chairman, Mrs. J. C. Boyle, by St. Mary's Alumni president, Arlene Jensen Espey, and the various executive committees. Those who served on the latter are Mrs. Larry Schade, Mrs. E. H. McKee, Mrs. R. A. Mikeche, Mrs. J. Murray, Mrs. J. R. Marshall, Mrs. J. B. O'Connor, Mrs. R. L. Lewis, Mrs. Frank Applegate, Mrs. Sid Brown, Mrs. John Wilkinson, Mrs. A. O. Bauman, Mrs. J. P. Naumas, Mrs. M. Weston, Mrs. Jensen, Martha De Souza, Helen McDonald, Elsie Oliver, Lenore Estes, Geraldine Wilkinson, Elizabeth Marshall.

The afternoon tea afforded a delightful social hour to late comers and closed the festivities of the day. Members of the faculty of St. Mary's Academy are deeply grateful to all who contributed socially and financially to the success of the bridge luncheon.

Concert Committee Meets Monday Eve

A meeting of membership committee members of the newly formed Southern Oregon Concert Association, was held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Baldwin piano shoppe studio.

Mrs. H. Chandler Egan, president of the association, is urging all committee members to attend the meeting, and invites other interested to take part. The membership drive will be formally started next week, but a number of committee workers have already reported an enthusiastic response to the concert series.

Of particular interest, in comparison with former concert series of this type, is the fact that all three attractions will be staged in the Holly theatre, at a reduced scale of prices, and all concerts will be definitely announced in advance.

The San Francisco Opera Ballet, with two former Medford girls, Janet Reed and Zoe Del Lantia, will open the series November 16.

A group of San Francisco opera artists, headed by John Howell, baritone, and Mary Monti, soprano, will appear here January 17 in two small operas, "Secrets of Suzanne," and "Portrait of Manon."

The Mozart Boys Choir, a company of 20 boy singers from Vienna, brought to this country by Arturo Toscanini, will be heard March 21.

State College Sets Homecoming Date

Oregon State College—November 12, the date of the Stanford-Oregon State football game on Bell field, will be homecoming time on the O. S. C. campus this fall. John A. Day, of Pleasanton, has been appointed general chairman of the homecoming week and by Bob Walker, student body president.

Features already issued for the entertainment of visitors will be the competitive interfraternity sing established a few years ago, the big noise parade and rally the night before the game, and the colorful animated house signs which always attract thousands on a circuit of the living groups.

Masonic Dancing Party November 1

Masonic dancing club committee announces that the next dancing party, of a series of six, will be given Tuesday evening November 1, in the ballroom of the Masonic Temple.

Dancing will be from 9:30 to 12:30 o'clock and a buffet supper will be served at 11 o'clock.

Committee members will be announced at a later date.

Habit Group To Meet Tuesday

Missionary program of the Ladies' auxiliary of the First Baptist church will be held at the home of Mrs. Everett Finley on Ross Lane Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The social committee is composed of Mrs. Clem Finley and Mrs. John Lewis. Members are to meet at the church at 1:30 o'clock for transportation.

Use Mail Tribune Want Ads.

ATTENTION LADIES!

and users of Blanche White Cosmetics. An authorized representative is in Medford to replenish your cosmetic needs and give you another courtesy facial and skin treatment. Phone for appointment.

JACKSON HOTEL, room 212

Janet Reed In Peasant Role

When the San Francisco Opera Ballet appears in the Holly theatre November 16 under the sponsorship of the Southern Oregon Concert association, unusual local interest will center around Janet Reed, former Medford girl, prima ballerina with the company. She is shown here with William Christensen in a Russian peasant divertissement, "Kaleenka," one of the numbers in their widely varied repertoire.

Former Medford Resident Wed In Arizona Rites

Of interest to many Medford persons is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Frances Johnston of Texarkana, Texas, to Mr. Nelson H. Lincoln, son of Mrs. Jean Lincoln and the late Ralph H. Lincoln of Medford.

The wedding of the young couple took place on Saturday, October 15, in Glendale, Ariz., a suburb of Phoenix.

Miss Johnston was graduated from the Texarkana, Texas, high school and attended Arizona State Teachers college, where she was a member of Chi Sigma sorority and of Arizona State Commerce club.

Mr. Lincoln attended Cincinnati university, where he was a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He was graduated from the Arizona State Teachers college and was a member of the Geographic society.

The bridegroom's brother, Warner Lincoln, came from San Diego, Calif., to act as best man at the wedding. The couple will make their home in Eloy, Ariz., where Mr. Lincoln is teaching school.

O.S.C. Plans for Dads' Club Visit

Oregon State College—The Dads' club of Oregon State college has announced November 8 and 9 as the official week end this year for their visitation of the campus and the annual meeting. Officers of the club deliberately chose a time when there would be no football game, as they want to have more opportunity to visit other features of campus life, says Dr. Paul E. Dutton of Portland, president of the club.

Aside from the opportunity to visit all parts of the campus, the tentative program lists a number of inter-class events for freshmen and sophomores to furnish entertainment. An annual banquet in the Memorial Union building will be held, as will numerous organization affairs, arranged for smaller groups.

Masonic Dancing Party November 1

Masonic dancing club committee announces that the next dancing party, of a series of six, will be given Tuesday evening November 1, in the ballroom of the Masonic Temple.

Dancing will be from 9:30 to 12:30 o'clock and a buffet supper will be served at 11 o'clock.

Committee members will be announced at a later date.

HONORABLE in act and deserving thoughtful in service, as well as economical in cost; a complete, simplified service for all, regardless of class or creed.

LADY ATTENDANT

PERL Funeral Home
John A. & Frank Perl
Ambulance Service
Phone 47

Mrs. Gilmore In New York Calls On George Andrews

George Andrews, former Medford resident who has been studying singing in New York, hopes to return soon to his old home town to give a recital. It was stated in a letter received yesterday from Mrs. William S. Gilmore of 712 West 4th street.

Mrs. Gilmore, who has been sight-seeing in New York, met Mr. Andrews recently when she was being conducted through the NBC studios in Radio City. Her guide took her to see Mr. Andrews when he learned she was from Medford, she wrote to the Mail Tribune. Mr. Andrews, a baritone who comes from a long line of singers and musicians, is employed in the NBC radio. He has broadcast numerous times on national networks. He is a nephew of Mrs. James Stevens of Cargill Court.

Mr. Andrews has been forging ahead rapidly in his profession, Mrs. Gilmore wrote, and his future appears bright. He and his mother are well and remember Medford fondly, she said. Both are looking forward to their visit here, she added.

Mohrs Hosts for Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Emil H. Mohr were hosts Wednesday evening for a delightful dinner party at the Hotel Medford.

Following dinner, the Mohrs took their guests to the Chateau where dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

Kidds Entertain Bridge Club Group

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Kidd were hosts Wednesday evening for a dinner party at the Hotel Medford.

Guests included the 12 members of a bridge club and their husbands. Twenty-four were present at the pleasant event.

Christian Endeavor Will Meet Tonight

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church will hold a regular meeting tonight at 8:30 o'clock in preparation for the southern Oregon league session on Saturday and Sunday, October 29 and 30. Refreshments will be served at the meeting. Those not having transportation means are to phone 1378-J or 194-J-2.

Mrs. Andrews Host At Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. C. H. Andrews was hostess Friday afternoon for a very enjoyable party at the Hotel Medford.

Twenty-five guests were present at the luncheon and bridge affair. A center table was attractively appointed with a centerpiece fruit bowl and orange candles. The autumn motif was also carried out in the individual tables which were decorated with yellow marigolds and matching bridge tulle.

Mrs. Charles R. Gail and Mrs. Dolph Phipps received prizes in the bridge play.

St. Mark's Group To Meet Tuesday

The women's auxiliary of St. Mark's Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. L. E. Williams, 520 South Peach street at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Christian Endeavor Will Meet Tonight

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church will hold a regular meeting tonight at 8:30 o'clock in preparation for the southern Oregon league session on Saturday and Sunday, October 29 and 30. Refreshments will be served at the meeting. Those not having transportation means are to phone 1378-J or 194-J-2.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil H. Mohr were hosts Wednesday evening for a delightful dinner party at the Hotel Medford.

Mohrs Hosts for Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Emil H. Mohr were hosts Wednesday evening for a delightful dinner party at the Hotel Medford.

Kidds Entertain Bridge Club Group

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Kidd were hosts Wednesday evening for a dinner party at the Hotel Medford.

Christian Endeavor Will Meet Tonight

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church will hold a regular meeting tonight at 8:30 o'clock in preparation for the southern Oregon league session on Saturday and Sunday, October 29 and 30. Refreshments will be served at the meeting. Those not having transportation means are to phone 1378-J or 194-J-2.

Army Dancing Party Anticipated Event For Friday Evening

An outstanding event of Medford's social season will take place Friday evening, October 28th, at the Hotel Medford when the Officers club of the Medford Civilian Conservation Corps will entertain with a dancing party.

The affair will compliment Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Harvey H. Fletcher, recent arrivals in this city. Colonel Fletcher is commander of the Medford CCC district.

The following committees are in charge of the invitational dancing party: Reception, Capt. William C. Ryan and Capt. Herman J. Melring; refreshment, Capt. James R. Chambers Jr., Lieut. Clarence L. Shewalter and Lieut. Maurice W. Harris; floor committee, Capt. William W. Cone, Capt. William H. Discollo and Capt. Philip D. Smith; music, Capt. Ernest J. Brugger and Lieut. Fred W. Greene.

'Composers Evening' in Ashland of Interest to Many

Those interested in compositions of local composers will have the opportunity of hearing several numbers of Lucie Landen when the Ashland Music club presents its "Composers Evening," Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Landen, faculty member of the Southern Oregon Normal school, has studied composition with Hunter Johnson and Dr. Otto Stahl at the University of Michigan where she received her master's degree. She also studied with Dr. Hugo Grimm of the Cincinnati Conservatory, and Bernard Wagenaar of the Juilliard school in New York.

Miss Landen has appeared in performances in several states, having been featured by the Chelan, Wash., Music club and Laurin Sykes, Portland organist. She is a member of the Oregon Society of Composers and the National Association of American Composers and Conductors.

The event tomorrow evening will be held in the Civic clubhouse in Litchia park.

The following numbers will be presented: Women's Trio—Sunset and Serenade—Jeanne Joy, Hope Reinhold, Doris Corey; Dorothy Shalman, accompanist; Soprano Solo—Moods (ms.), Jeanne Joy; Contralto Solo—Magie (ms.), Jeanne Joy; Words by Owen Berrill Schuerman String Quartette—Scherzo (ms.), Autumn (ms.); Harvey Woods, J. G. Anderson, R. H. Cooke, Chester Woods.

D.A.V. Auxiliary Card Party in G. P.

The D. A. V. auxiliary held its annual card party in the Library auditorium in Grants Pass Tuesday evening with seven tables of bridge being played. Mrs. Cora Tingley of Medford, auxiliary commander, presided the event with a group as they stopped in on their return to Medford from Roseburg. The hall was decorated in autumn leaves.

It was announced at the session that Mrs. Mollie Dover, auxiliary department commander, and Tom Kerrigan, D. A. V. department commander, would make a tour of southern Oregon in November. It was suggested that they visit Medford or Grants Pass on November 4 or 5 when both cities hold their annual forget-me-not sale.

Grade Teachers To Convene

The monthly meeting of the grade teachers association will be held at the Girl's Community clubhouse Monday evening.

Mrs. Gore's Pupils To Present Recital

The piano pupils of Mrs. E. E. Gore will appear in recital next week. The time and place of which will be announced Monday.

Electa Social Club To Meet

Mrs. John Gritch will be hostess to the Electa Social club at her home, 108 South Holly street, Friday afternoon. Dessert luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock, after which cards will be played. Mrs. Beate Tuttle and Mrs. Anna Kearney are assistant hostesses for the afternoon.

All non-affiliate members of the O. E. S. are cordially invited to attend these meetings, which are held every fourth Friday in the month.

Recent Bride Feted at Party Shower Thursday Evening

Mrs. Homer Conger was hostess on Thursday evening at her home on the Old Stake road, for a delightful miscellaneous shower party complimenting Mrs. Russell Ayres, nee Miss Roma McReynolds.

Autumn flowers formed the decorative note about the rooms. Games were enjoyed throughout the evening and the honoree was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Those bidden to the party were: Mrs. Orville Shores, Miss Frances Howard, Mrs. Earl Bigelow, Mrs. J. R. Purcell, Mrs. Gene Hooper, Mrs. Rupert Snyder, Mrs. H. C. Goldsmith, Mrs. Ward McReynolds, Mrs. Irene Merriman, Mrs. Willard Sloper, Mrs. Richard Crowe, Miss Helen Snyder, Miss Chloe Ellenburg, Miss Juanita Rector, Miss Dorothy Eads, Miss Gladys Hunt and Henrietta Huger.

Great Homecoming Predicted for Oregon University

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 22—Preliminary plans for what students and alumni already predict will be the greatest homecoming in the history of the University of Oregon were begun here this week. It was announced by Harry Weston, Portland, student-body president.

Weston has appointed Dick Watson of Medford as general chairman for the event, which will take place November 4, 5 and 6. The traditional dance, bonfire, football game and dinners will all be included. This year but new and different ideas of presentation will be worked out, Watson stated.

Group Week-ends in Klamath Falls

A group of Medford football fans attended the Oregon-University football game in Klamath Falls last evening and then were former of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hart, former Medford residents at a dinner party at their home in Klamath Falls. The party planned to return to this city today.

The following couples participated in the out-of-town events: Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Reinhart, Jr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Durno, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pluhner, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Max Peirce, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norris, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Lagoon and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Porter.

Birthday Party For D.A.V. Members

The D. A. V. auxiliary will convene in the armory at 8 p. m. Tuesday. Time will be allowed for a meeting of the Forget-Me-Not workers.

Final plans will be completed for the bazaar which is being sponsored by the auxiliary.

Following the business session the semi-annual birthday party will be held in the dining room. All auxiliary members having birthdays since April 30 will be honored guests.

The committee in charge of the party includes Mesdames Nees, Drummond, Hickman and Wolf.

Bible Class Has Enjoyable Meet

Miss Mary Phipps entertained the Women's Bible class of the First M. E. Sunday school Thursday afternoon at her home on East Main street. Following a brief business session the afternoon was spent in quilt making after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

W. C. T. U. Convenes Thursday Afternoon

The W. C. T. U. will convene Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parlors of the First M. E. church. The Rev. Joseph Knotts will give a talk on the coming election. The Rev. Noble Stutzman, pastor of the Brethren church in Grants Pass and Mrs. Stutzman will give their impressions of the state W. C. T. U. convention in Eugene. Mrs. Minnie Bryant will also report on the convention.

Special music has been arranged for the program and Mrs. Lucretia Whillock has charge of devotions.

Lucie Landen

Lucie Landen, composer and member of the Southern Oregon Normal school faculty, whose numbers will be presented in "Composers Evening," Monday evening in Ashland.

Eastern Star Dinner Party Thursday Evening

The regular meeting of O.E.S. will be held Thursday evening in the Masonic Temple. This will be "Past Matron and Past Patron" night and the October social committee combined with the November social committee are arranging a covered dish dinner to take place at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Lillian Woodford is chairman of the October committee. Committee members for October are: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perry, Dr. B. R. Elliot, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Mrs. Elizabeth Young, Mrs. Lucy Elwood, Mattie Alden, Florence Butler, Kate McMurtry, Eva Younger, Kate Young, Fowler, Ruth Dodson, Effie Adams, Ralph Dippel, Leta Stewart, Edna Overmyer, Mrs. Milton Matson, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Norris, Maude Mausand and Mrs. C. E. Kunz.

Any members having extra jelly, jam or pickles will be gratefully accepted by the committees.

P.T.A. Activities

Jackson School Parents and Teachers Association held its Oct. meeting in one of the new rooms at the school on Friday Oct. 21.

Mrs. Albert Rollinson, president, presided over the business meeting, then turned the meeting over to the program chairman, Mrs. Ray Harrison and the two assisting teachers, Mrs. Murray and Miss Henderson. Miss Carin Dezermark gave a most interesting and educational discussion on radio program in the home. She also described in detail Radio City in New York where she spent the past two months.

Miss Floy Young and a quintet from the high school entertained. Those studying were Bill Vawter, Wilson Church, Don Hathaway, Raymond Ross and Bill Taylor with Dorothy Wilder at the piano. They sang "In the Garden of Tomorrow" and "Blow the Man Down."

Our next meeting will be Nov. 18 and will be especially for "Daddys." Refreshments will be served by the mothers of the fifth grade rooms.

(Continued on Page Five)

ARISTA'S
THIRD ANNIVERSARY SHOWING
ALL THIS WEEK

Furs—Fur Coats—Jacquettes—Capes
In The Season's Smartest
STYLES and FURS
At The Season's Lowest Prices

ARISTA
Furs of Distinction

Holly Theatre Building Phone 684

If You Like That HOME-MADE TASTE In Bread ASK FOR

DOBLMEIER'S HONEY-MAID BREAD
WHITE MODEL BAKERY MEDFORD

It's Well Done Too!
A Cake Board With Suggestions For Games Given With Every
GOBLIN CAKE
MODEL BAKERY

"The more time a mother must spend in her home washing the less time she has for her children."

Let those old "jinx" Mondays be just that many more days of home-pleasure and home-making for your wife! Tell her TODAY to have B. THRIFTY Service take that Washday load off her mind and hands.

We do BEST work because we have BEST operators and BEST methods. COST LESS!

DAMP WASH 4c per pound
50c Minimum Bundle

All flat pieces beautifully ironed for just a few cents more than for washing.

Your Master Laundry
AMERICAN LAUNDRY
"Wifewavers"
132 SOUTH CENTRAL