

In 1787 it took 19 persons living on farms to produce enough for themselves and one person in town, but now the same number on farms can provide for themselves and 66 persons in town.

Coeds Criticize Joe College For Sloppy Habits in Dress

EUGENE, Oct. 26.—(P)—The sloppy, never-washed "cords" that drape the legs of Joe College may be comfortable and convenient and may, in his own mind, give him that care-free, sophisticated "collegiate" air.

approval of the cords was unanimous, she found, and many coeds were outspoken on this and other male ideas of apparel and appearance.

MEN LOVE GIRLS WITH PEP

If you are peppy and full of fun, men will invite you to dance and parties. BUT if you are cross, listless and tired, men won't be interested. Men don't like "quiet" girls. When they go to parties they want girls who are full of pep.

But—the coeds don't like 'em! And what's more, they don't like the unkempt hair, the frequent stubble on the face, the dirty shoes that seem to go with the sloppy "cords."

A number of the college women interviewed also took advantage of the survey to level a few shots at the boys in general, and some of their habits in particular. Posture, the coeds agreed, is the most important feature about a man. Many of Oregon's "prize" college men go about "looking as if they went through exam week every day, with their chins out and chests in," one of the girls declared.

However, there doesn't seem to be any tendency for coeds to shun the men on the campus, and no shortage of "dates" has yet been reported—not even by those who wear unwashed cords.

CENTRAL POINT GRANGE TO HOLD PUBLIC DANCE

Central Point Grange will sponsor another dance in their hall Saturday, October 29. The hall has been a favorite place to dance this fall, as it has a large and well finished floor.

Music is to be furnished by Dickey's three-piece orchestra. As it is so close to election time, all candidates have a special invitation to attend.

McNARY PRAISED BY NEBRASKA BOURBON

HOOD RIVER, Oct. 26.—(P)—Senator Edward R. Burke, Nebraska Democrat, complimented Oregon's Senator Charles McNary, Republican minority leader, today because he had won the "respect and confidence of every senator irrespective of party."

Senator Burke paused here on a trip over the Mount Hood loop highway. The senator asserted McNary acted with judgment in difficult times. When a "small band of Republicans" were trying to stabilize affairs.

ICKES TOLD VAST SUM REQUIRED FOR COULEE

GRAND COULEE, Wash., Oct. 26.—(P)—Secretary Ickes came back Tuesday for a view of the $126,000,000 Grand Coulee dam project which he saw launched with federal funds in 1934, and exclaimed: "It's a breathtaking thing!"

"How about the money to keep the project going?" he asked Frank A. Banks, engineer in charge for the U. S. reclamation service, as he viewed the gigantic project from the vista point above.

and a third congressional appropriation to complete the project on schedule by 1942," Banks explained.

Discovery of a new Indian culture in Wayne county, Mo., has been announced by Dr. Brewster Berry, University of Missouri professor. He estimated it preceded that of the known Indian cultures.
