Many Medfordites Anticipate College Homecoming Events

A special edition of the Oregon Daily Emerald, University of Oregon campus publication, was received in Medford yesterday by all former students of the university. The entire paper features the 1938 Homecoming week-end which will be an event of November 4, 5 and 6 in Eugene.

The main attraction for the week-end of course will be the Oregon-Idaho football game, but judging from the recent Emerald edition, there will be an abundance of other enjoyable activities.

A feature of the Homecoming night life will be Harry Harris and his orchestra who are coming to Eugene straight from an extended engagement from the Cocomms Grove. The dance will be held in McArthur court which has been newly decorated with palm trees and a special "oasis" for patrons and patronesses. Campus clothes advisors state that semi-formal dress will be worn at the affair.

Other activities planned for Homecoming include an alumni "get-together" the afternoon of November 4, immediately following the football game. A concert will precede the dance. In addition there will be parades of alumni and a tour of the campus.

Of interest to Medfordites who plan to attend this great Homecoming week-end and who have good daughters, is the news that a special time extension has been given. The dance at the McArthur court which has been newly decorated with palm trees and a special "oasis" for patrons and patronesses. Campus clothes advisors state that semi-formal dress will be worn at the affair.

Dick Watson of Medford is the general Homecoming chairman and says, "this will be Oregon's greatest Homecoming week-end."

Luncheon Shower Fetes Mrs. Jones

Mrs. Lottie Daniela entertained Wednesday afternoon with a delightful luncheon party in honor of Mrs. L. D. Jones.

Luncheon was held in the Hotel Holland, after which guests went to Mrs. Daniela's home on South Grape street. Here a handkerchief shower was given for Mrs. Jones and the afternoon spent in visiting.

Guests enjoying the pleasant event were the honoree, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. M. A. Thierolf, Mrs. Ella Westerlund, Mrs. Oris Crawford, Mrs. W. H. Bailey, Miss Sophia Helmberg and Mrs. Frank Hull.

Mrs. Jones has resided in Medford for a number of years and will leave in the near future to make her home in Redding, Cal. Her many friends will regret her departure from this city.

La Tosca Inn Is Scene of Party

Miss Mary Carrara was hostess for a recent dinner party given at La Tosca Inn in Phoenix. The affair honored Fred Harris and Tom Clements, enigmas of the U. S. West Virginia in San Pedro, Cal. The two are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Harris in Phoenix. They will leave tomorrow for Billings, Montana, where they will be guests of the latter's parents until their leave is completed.

Miss Carrara's guests at the pleasant affair included Mr. and Mrs. V. Harris, Al Carrara, Betty Frick, Jeanette Metell, Dickie Harris, Kathleen Carrara, and the two honored guests.

A clever color scheme of red, white and blue formed the table decorations.

LeClerc's Return From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Harry LeClerc and daughter, Miss Ruth LeClerc returned to their home here the first of the week from a three weeks' vacation.

The group traveled from Medford to Kansas by train. In Topeka they purchased a car and motored to this city by the southern route, stopping in New Mexico, southern California, Reno and other places of interest.

In Kansas they visited friends and relatives in Lyons and Hutchinson and spent some time in their former home of Burrton, where Mr. LeClerc transacted business in connection with his oil property.

D.U.V. To Meet Friday Night Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil war will convene in regular session Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the armory.

Presbyterian Group to Have Conference Coming Week-end

The southern Oregon Presbyterian league conference will convene Saturday and Sunday, October 29 and 30 in the Presbyterian church in this city.

The program on Saturday will begin with registration at 2:30 in the afternoon, and will be followed by a devotional and business meeting. At 6:30 o'clock a get-acquainted banquet will be served by the Missionary Society after which Miss Helen Witzaker, recently returned missionary from China, will speak. Later in the evening a party will honor the guests.

Activities for Sunday include Sunday school and church, committee meetings in the afternoon and a consecration meeting which will adjourn the two-day session. Special numbers provided by the guests will be offered during the various sessions.

Officers and advisers of the organization are Edith Hodgkins, president; Glenn Stove of Merrill, vice-president; Joe Beach of Jacksonville, vice-president; Virginia Barber of Grants Pass, secretary and Emma Jane Brewer, treasurer pro tem. Addressors are Dr. H. E. Reichard, Grants Pass; Mrs. Edith Baker, Madras; Doreen Polce of Grants Pass, and the Rev. Rosenkild of Malin.

Dinner and Program Well Attended

The Royal Neighbors and their invited guests numbering about sixty, enjoyed a covered dish dinner at the K. P. hall last week.

The tables were decorated with autumn flowers and fruits.

Mrs. Irene Shirley, Mrs. Pearl Miller and Mrs. Freda Kingsley had charge of the dinner.

Following dinner, Mrs. Myrtle Arnold, program chairman, presented the following program: Mrs. Elsie Alexander and her orchestra; humorous reading by Mrs. Pearl Miller; piano solos by Frances Klemm and a musical reading by W. H. Arnold. Games in keeping with the Halloween spirit were played after the program.

Dinner Party Event Held at Mack Home

The Genessee street home of Mrs. Mabel Mack was the scene of an enjoyable dinner party Tuesday evening when members of the county extension committee were guests and Maude Morse of Portland was honored guest.

Those present were the honoree, Maude Morse, Miss Alice Hanley, Mrs. G. E. Ousterhout, Mrs. Nora Strawn of Sams Valley, Alice Ricks of Howard, Pearl Williams of Talent, Mrs. Lee Port of Applegate, Olive Floyd, Zuba Gates of Trail, Gladys York, James Jensen, Ida Sweeney, and Miss Clair Hanley.

The honoree returned to her home in Portland Tuesday evening.

Small Girls Enjoy Birthday Party

Six little playmates of Shirley Moffat had a gay time last Saturday afternoon when Shirley celebrated her sixth birthday at her home on Spring street.

The afternoon was spent in playing games in the rooms which were decorated in autumn colors. Halloween refreshments were served. Guests included Miss Ava Ayres and three small girls, Kay McClanahan, Nancy Pierce, Barbara Crocker, Betty Ellen Frye, Lorraine Moffat and Shirley Moffat.

Moose Lodge Party Friday Women of the Moose and their husbands are to meet at the home of Florence Brunson on Berrydale avenue tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Cards will be played and luncheon served at the Halloween party.

Constipated? Then Ask Yourself This Question!

If constipation has you bogged down so you feel tired, sunk, all played out—it's time you asked yourself a question! What have you had to eat lately? Just meat, bread, eggs, potatoes? It's no surprise you're constipated! The chances are you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement. If this is what you lack, your ticket is crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast. It contains both "bulk" and the great intestinal tonic, vitamin B. And it's not a drug, not a medicine! Eat All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water, and take a new lease on life! All-Bran is made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.
