

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By OLARA MARY DAVIS

Lois Day Marries T. Slater Johnston In Eugene Ceremony

A marriage of much interest in Medford was solemnized in Eugene yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Lois Day became the bride of Mr. T. Slater Johnston.

Mrs. Johnston is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Quisenberry of this city. Mrs. Harold Johnson attended the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston returned to this city last evening from Eugene and today a wedding dinner will be held at Mr. Johnston's river home on the Rogue. They will reside here.

The newly wedded couple are very well known in the valley where they are prominent in social activities.

Mrs. Todd Hostess For Dessert Bridge Party Thursday

Mrs. R. H. Todd entertained with a dessert bridge party Thursday afternoon at her home on South Oakdale avenue.

Guests bidden to the enjoyable event were: Mrs. Louis DeRoos, Mrs. H. C. Jenkins, Mrs. Nell Carter, Mrs. A. L. Beck, Mrs. B. R. Allyn Jr., Mrs. B. H. Allyn Sr., of Bellingham, Wash., Mrs. B. L. Zundel, Mrs. O. C. Gell, Mrs. Ross Grimmer, Mrs. Russell Acheson, Mrs. M. F. Barry, Mrs. R. A. Work and Miss Vera Humphrey.

Mrs. DeRoos and Mrs. Barry were recipients of bridge prizes and a Hal-Jowen motif was cleverly carried out in decorations.

W.C.T.U. Convened Thursday Afternoon

The W.C.T.U. met in the parlor of the First M. E. church Thursday afternoon with a very large attendance.

Mrs. C. A. Meeker sang the W.C.T.U. theme song, "Pure White Ribbons," accompanied by Miss Merle Dawes. Mrs. I. N. McCollum led the devotional service, all singing "Oh, Master Let Me Walk With Thee."

Rev. Noble Stutman of Grants Pass who attended the state W.C.T.U. convention in Eugene, told of the outstanding events of the convention. A group of matrons, holders of the W.C.T.U. gold medal for scripture contests, competed for the pearl medal. The oldest lady was 80 years of age. Dean U. G. Dubach of Oregon State college addressed the convention on "Christian Citizenship." He stressed the thought that we must be prepared to do what Jesus would do in the given case, were He on earth today.

Rev. Joseph Knotts spoke on the bill regulating sale of alcoholic liquor which is on the ballot for the coming election. Discussion on the different measures followed. Mrs. J. W. Smylie was hostess during the social hour. One new member was received, Mrs. M. A. Evans.

In Ballet Sketch

Three of the San Francisco Opera Ballet dancers are shown here in one of the light sketches included in the ballet program being brought to the Holly theatre November 16 by the Southern Oregon Concert association. Left to right: Maria Toranya, Zaida Narina and George Williams.

Mothers, Daughters Honored Guests at Girls' League Tea

Sophomore girls and their mothers were honored guests at a delightful tea given Tuesday afternoon at the high school. Hostesses for the event were members of the Girls' League.

The many guests called between the hours of 3 to 5 o'clock and were served refreshments from a tea table appointed with autumn colors of leaves and pottery. Mrs. C. Glen Smith and Mrs. William Bowerman presided at the tables.

The following program was presented, piano solo by Nettie Tengwald, several readings by Barbara Franklin, violin solo by Florence Hubbert and a vocal selection by Dorothy Gaddis. Miss Catherine Campbell, fashion instructor at the school, presented an interesting talk on "What the High school girl should wear."

A style show followed with these students modeling: Regina Queen, Betty Reames, Dorothy Terrett, Wan-Kunke, Mary Beth Bradford, Shirley Enders, Jean Hermansen, Leslie Bailey, Frances Clark, Fern Tye, Helen Kindle, Marjorie Reich, Charlotte Older and Dorothy Flynn.

Luncheon Bridge Party at Perry Home Wednesday

Mrs. Walter E. Flinn and Mrs. Allan F. Perry were hostesses Wednesday afternoon for a delightful luncheon and bridge party at the J. A. Perry home on West Main street.

Guests present at the affair included: Madama E. P. Merrick, Harold Larsen, Kenneth Denman, Glen Patrick, C. I. Drummond, S. E. Phillips, Lyle Wilcox, Dwight L. Houghton, William M. McAllister, Chester Hubbard, Harold Reichstein, Bruce Bauer, Warren Olson, T. E. Knackstedt, A. Z. Dean, Raymond Fish, Dwight F. Zippel, George Henselman, Lee Bishop, George Gates and John W. Johnson.

Luncheon was served on individual tables centered with small bouquets of asters. The center table was attractively appointed with bronze chrysanthemums and orange candles in silver holders.

Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Merrick and Mrs. Fish.

Beta Sigma Phi Held Initiation

Beta Sigma Phi entertained with a formal pledge dinner at the Hotel Medford Thursday evening. Yellow roses formed an attractive centerpiece for the prettily appointed table.

Following dinner a formal initiation was held at the home of Miss Gertrude Haskins. The following pledges were initiated: Ruth Hill, Jennie Jensen and Barbara Drury.

Members participating in the event were Patricia Thompson, Gertrude Haskins, Betti Flynn, Mrs. Otto J. Frohnmayer, Maxine Robinson, Mary Peterson, Juanita Moon, Barbara Schmidt, Mildred Drury, Bethel Slagle, Opal Harvey, Patsey Smith and Eweretta Gillipie.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Justine Miller on Thursday.

Mrs. Rickert to Visit Rebekahs

Olive Rebekah lodge will convene Monday, November 7 at 7:30 o'clock in the L. O. O. F. hall.

The session will welcome Carrie Mae Rickert, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, on her official visit to this lodge. Other officers to accompany Mrs. Rickert include Joseph Eckley, grand master, W. A. Morand, grand secretary, Alma Henderson, vice president, Hallie Engle, secretary of assembly, and Minnie Willets, chaplain.

Zonta Formulates Orchestra Plans

The Zonta club of Medford held its monthly evening meeting at the home of Mrs. Effie Kuris last week. Mrs. Thora Lawrence, president, presided. A board meeting preceded the regular business session.

The meeting was opened by singing various Zonta songs after which many important items were discussed. The report from the Symphony orchestra committee was most encouraging. This project is the major activity of the organization and is certainly a worthwhile undertaking. Zonta asks that they have the hearty support of Jackson county citizens in regard to the orchestra.

Following the business meeting an interesting study was held under the leadership of the program chairman, Miss Josephine Kirtley. International relations study was begun by a resume of the racial elements and geographic situation of central European powers. A brief history of various pre-war countries of Central Europe was also reviewed.

Zonta club will meet next on November 14 for the regular luncheon session at the Hotel Medford.

Norcross Couple Honored Guests of Nevita Chapter

Nevita chapter No. 93, O. E. S. of Central Point, held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, at which time the past worthy matrons and past worthy patrons of the chapter were honored. During the regular meeting the worthy matron, Mrs. Clara Vincent, welcomed Mrs. Nellie McGowan of Medford, past grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon and also Mrs. Zenda Sanders, worthy matron of Reames chapter No. 66 of Medford, Mrs. Lela Shores, worthy matron of Adair chapter No. 3 of Jacksonville and Dr. Lloyd Sanders, worthy patron of Reames chapter No. 66 of Medford. Under the good of the order the worthy patron, Harold Head, took charge and all guests present spoke a few words of greeting to the members and complimented the officers for their work.

After the meeting a group of the officers and members led by the worthy matron and patron entered the chapter room and built a "Fence of Love" around the past worthy matrons and worthy patrons. Each of whom was presented with a "red rosebud of love." The unique characterization was concluded with a candle lighting ceremony and a beautiful square march. The women all wore formal of white and pastel shades lending much to the beauty of this part of the program. Those taking part were: Mrs. Clara Vincent, Harold Head, Mrs. Evelyn Skyrman, Leonard Scott, and Mesdames Beulah Pater, Margaret Swing, Gladys Jewett, Marjorie Penn, Lily Holt, Edith Stimpson, Lolita Massey, Marie Stone, Bertha Bonney, Ethel Jones, Edith Scott, Etta Purkypile, Stella Anderson and Miss Roberta Pankey.

The chapter rooms were especially beautiful with decorations of fall flowers and shrubs. Large baskets marked the star point stations and those of the principal officers; bowls of chrysanthemums decorated the conductress' pedestals and the secretary's desk.

At the conclusion of the special ceremony all adjourned to the dining room, where the worthy patron again took charge and gave each past matron and patron an opportunity to speak. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Norcross, first patron and second matron of the chapter, were given the honor places at the table. Mrs. Norcross received and out the beautiful birthday cake presented for the occasion by the worthy matron. The cake, bearing 30th anniversary greetings, was decorated with red rose buds and in the heart of each was a pearl. Place cards carried out the same rosebud and pearl motif, marking thirty years since the founding of Nevita chapter.

White tapers in double crystal candelabra were effectively used on either side of the birthday cake in the center of the honor-guest table. Bowls of rose, yellow and white chrysanthemums flanked with white tapers in crystal holders were used intermittently on the other tables.

All arrangements were worked out by the worthy matron, Mrs. Clara Vincent, assisted by Mrs. Evelyn Skyrman and Mrs. Beulah Pater.

Past matrons and past patrons present included: Mesdames Lola Norcross, Bertha Bursell, Vinnie Cook, Agnes Head, Mollie Neale, Estle Martin, Elizabeth Palmer, Isabel Leaver, Elizabeth Scott, Lella Paxon, Betty Pankey, Inez Ferguson, Mabel Bennett, Mildred Ross, Esther Sanderson, Gladys Beebe, Sadie Kohler, Ethel Freeman, Leta Kyle, Della Tex, Minnie Clark and Messrs. W. H. Norcross, H. T. Pankey, B. L. Sanderson, Elmer Kyle, Everett Faber and Ed. Vincent.

Other guests present for the evening included: Mrs. Nell Pick and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Todd of Adair chapter of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Hattie Alden, Miss Gertrude Weeks and Mrs. Meta Gilbert of Reames chapter of Medford.

Alenderfers Feted at Dinner Party Friday Evening

An enjoyable no-host dinner party held at Valentine's cafe Friday evening honored Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer.

Those participating in the event included Mrs. Nellie Reed, Mrs. Belle Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jerome, Mrs. Maude Clamenson, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schade, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Quisenberry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clay, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Orr, Mr. and Mrs. L. Everett Brayton, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Lagoon, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kellom, Mrs. Jean Lincoln, Dr. R. W. Stearns and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stephenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alenderfer, long time residents of Medford and popular members of society, plan to leave here the first of this week for Brookings where they will make their home.

At the party last evening, the honored couple were presented with a handsome gift by the guests.

Mrs. Williamson Honored at Shower Party

Mrs. Franklin George was hostess Wednesday evening at her home on Cottage street for a shower party honoring Mrs. Charles Williamson.

Guests present were Mrs. Charles Hartley of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Delbert Bergman, Mrs. Barney Beaton, Mrs. Millard Younger, Mrs. Bethel Slagle, Mrs. William Knips, Miss Phillis Hegepath, Mrs. Alton Anderson, Mrs. Lou Miles and Mrs. Lyle Lindley.

Mrs. Williamson received numerous attractive gifts during the miscellaneous shower party. Games were enjoyed throughout the evening.

Piano Recital Enjoyable Event

Mrs. E. E. Gore presented her piano students in a very interesting and complete recital Thursday afternoon at the First Christian church. The presentation was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The following program was heard: Duet, Progress March.....Rebe Shirley-Barton-Harriet Walker On the Lake (secondo).....Keenan The Little Gnome.....McGrath Derva Sater Little Music Box.....Gaynor Guitar Serenade.....Gaynor Harriet Walker Morning Call.....Preston Chinese Theatre.....Welles East Indian Dance.....Munn Melody Smith Vacation Time.....Thompson Aquans on the Lake.....Thompson Sarold Skinner Baague Air— Sung by Anne Conroy Played by Rosalie Roberts Climbing.....McLaughlin Shirley Barton Two American Folk Songs Norma Lee McGlothlin Scherzo in E Minor.....Mendelssohn Festival Polonaise.....Kretalin Nell Stone First Waltz.....Durand Turnleweed.....Bliss Joan Denny Fuga No. 3.....Bach Polichinelle.....Rachmaninoff Stanley Gustin

Rebekah President

Carrie Mae Rickert, president of the Rebekah lodge here on November 7.

Thursday Morning Club Convened

Thursday Morning Study club enjoyed a very pleasant meeting last week at the Girls' Community clubhouse.

Mrs. Bert B. Lowry, Sr. presented an interesting outline of German history from the beginning to the present time. Mrs. Helen Norris gave a talk on "Thomas Mann." She brought out the views and ideas contained in his best known work, "Books of Joseph."

Williams Home Scene of Birthday Party Thursday Afternoon

Mrs. W. W. Williams was hostess Thursday afternoon at her home on King street for a party honoring her daughter, Barbara Williams. The occasion celebrated Barbara's eighth birthday.

Invited to the party were the following small friends of the honoree: Marlene Vincent, Meriam Curran, Marlys Franklin, Delora Wolfe, Barbara Earl, Elizabeth Thompson, Kay Crawford, Joan Crawford, May Adams Sharon Shore, Patricia Jenkins, Doris Kyle, John McDuffey, Delora Pritchett and Frances Pritchett.

The little guests brought Barbara many lovely birthday presents. Games, refreshments and favors were enjoyed throughout the afternoon amid Halloween's decorations.

Barbara Earl and Patricia Jenkins won prizes for the game playing. Miss Frances Maguin assisted Mrs. Williams with the pleasant event.

Hallowe'en Party Sounds Gay Note

One of the most enjoyable of the week's Hallowe'en fetes was the party held Thursday evening for members of the Carnation club in the home of Mrs. George Barker at 26 Portland avenue. Co-hostesses for the delightful affair were Mrs. John Sailer and Mrs. John Tuhler. Twenty-eight guests were present.

The residence was decorated in the traditional Hallowe'en motif, with ghosts and witches lending an eerie touch to darkened corners of the rooms. Weird sounds greeted the guests upon their arrival and added to the spooky atmosphere.

After their arrival, guests were ushered to upstairs rooms where appropriate games and fortunes telling enlivened the spirit of hilarity.

Later in the evening the guests were summoned downstairs by the hostesses for a delectable collation. Table appointments completed the Hallowe'en decorative scheme.

Missionary Group To Meet Tuesday

Missionary society of M. E. church south, will convene Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. C. McCullison, 723 West Main street.

Duplicate Bridge Tournament Of Interest Here

A large crowd is expected to attend the duplicate bridge tournament and tea which will be held Thursday afternoon in the parish hall on North Oakdale avenue. St. Mark's Episcopal guild is sponsor of the affair.

Mrs. Robert Watson, well known in bridge circles and holder of numerous bridge titles in the northwest, is in charge of the tournament. Other committee members include Mrs. A. F. Stennett, chairman, Mrs. I. D. Canfield, Mrs. Jean Lincoln, Mrs. Hugh Hamlin, Mrs. A. G. McMillan and Mrs. Terry Holbertson. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Stennett at 701-J or Mrs. M. M. Herman at 661-Y.

The affair will start at 1:15 and a tea will be enjoyed at 4 o'clock. Prizes will be awarded for winning bridge scores.

Mistletoe Club Met Recently

The Mistletoe club met on Wednesday at the home of Irene Shirley for an enjoyable dessert luncheon. Fredrica Glascock, assisted the hostess.

Following the luncheon, a business meeting was held with Nora Glascock, president, presiding. Plans were formulated for aazaar to be held the first part of December. Polly Anna gifts were exchanged during the meeting.

Members present included: Nelle Laing, Myrtle Kent, Alice Lewis, Beale Smith, Virie Lewis, Anna Hodgkins, Dorothy Scripser, Maude Cleland, Classic Baird, and three guests from Ashland.

The next meeting will be a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Baird, 333 Haven street.

Eagles to Have Birthday Party

Eagles auxiliary and their husbands will participate in a birthday party for members having birthdays in September or October, Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Eagles hall on Front street.

A pot-luck supper will be served and gifts and entertainment enjoyed.

(Continued on Page Five.)

Starting Monday An Interesting Demonstration

VASSAR WAVERS

For Long Hair or Bobs

The VASSAR demonstrator will show you how to use these little green rubber curlers.

Guaranteed By Good Housekeeping

MANN'S

MAIN FLOOR

B. Thrifty Says:

HERE'S SOME GOOD NEWS FOR YOUR BUDGET. B. THRIFTY HAS PROVED TO ME BY MY OWN FIGURES THAT HE CAN DO THE WEEKLY WASH CHEAPER THAN YOU CAN.

Most wives would be tickled to death to lose ONE part of their job—WASHDAYS!

Don't be so sure you can do your own washing cheaper at home. Let B. THRIFTY give you the straight dope—and then YOU do the figuring, with our own pencil!

You'll find B. THRIFTY Service will do ALL that work at LESS COST . . . and, excuse our nerve, do it BETTER!

DAMP WASH 4c per pound
30c Minimum Bundle
B. THRIFTY SERVICE SAVES WASHABLES
Phone Tomorrow No. 873

Your Master Laundry

AMERICAN LAUNDRY

"Washers"

132 SOUTH CENTRAL

Hathaways Have House Guest

A visitor in this city from Piedmont is Mrs. Isabelle Warden. She is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hathaway at their home on East Main street.

Mrs. Warden has been entertained at a number of pleasant social affairs since her arrival and many more are being planned during her fortnight's sojourn in Medford.

Hensons Have House Guest

James G. Henson of San Francisco is in Medford visiting at the country home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Card Readings

Advice given on Love Affairs and Business. Best of references.

READINGS $1.00. A. Mueller, 723 Sherman, Phone 363-J-2.

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTING Wiring Repairing

OLSON ELECTRIC

Phone 115. 3 N. Bartlett

It's Here, Folks!

That Sensational New

Blue Flame Aladdin

High Efficiency KEROSENE HEATER

It HEATS It FRIES It BOILS It BAKES and How!

Let us demonstrate this marvelous new Aladdin. Has tremendous capacity—will heat a large sized room easily. Simplicity itself in care and operation. Be sure you see the Aladdin Heater before you buy.

Hubbard Bros.

Main & Riverside. Phone 281

With each pair of shoes purchased Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday during

ADRIENNE'S Birthday Party the Shoe Department will present

FREE One pair of Larkwood or Strutwear HOSE

Adrienne's Shoe Department

Reliable Footwear Correct Fitting

Adrienne Is Having a Surprise Party!

To celebrate our 13th Anniversary, our newly enlarged shop is filled with birthday surprises, special free gifts from Adrienne to you, in addition to what you save when you buy your Fall apparel here.

A special birthday gift to every customer bringing in a new customer.

A special birthday gift to every customer who makes a purchase over $1.50.

Gifts are out of our regular stock, including hosiery, handkerchiefs, and jewelry.

Special birthday discount on new Fall Coats, Fur Coats, Dresses, Hats, Skirts, Sweaters, Gloves, Robes, Foundation Garments and Corsets, and Lingerie. Our store is brim full of new Fall merchandise!

Adrienne invites you to her party which starts tomorrow morning at nine.

Come — Come — Come to ADRIENNE'S Party