Legion Auxiliary Sponsors Events

American Legion auxiliary members and friends participated in a very successful bridge party held last week at the home of Mrs. H. J. Meiring on Genesee street. Six tables were in play and the prize was won by Mrs. Raymond Miksche. This party was the first of a series of six that Mrs. Meiring will be hostess for.

Mrs. Edna Overmyer, membership chairman, reports that the membership drive must be completed by Armistice Day. She asks that all members cooperate by paying their dues as soon as possible. Dues may be mailed to Mrs. Overmyer.

Another auxiliary event will be held on Armistice Day when the auxiliary meet for luncheon at the Hotel Medford at 12:30 o'clock. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Myrtle Wright, entertainment chairman, at 641-H or Mrs. Tim Daily at 872-R-3.

Much interest is being shown in the Junior pet parade which will be an auxiliary feature of the Armistice day parade. Jean Kent and Mrs. Myrtle Wright are in charge. There will be five groups participating and a prize will be given for the winner in each group. Candy bars will be given all children who enter their pets in the parade.

The auxiliary is sponsoring a rummage sale for November 12 and will be held in the room next to the Panatorium. Ruth Freed is chairman of the activity. Contributions are to be made by either calling Mrs. Freed or taking them to the room.

M.E. Ladies' Aid Enjoy Meeting

The Ladies' Aid of the First M. E. church met for homecoming Tuesday afternoon in the church parlor, vice-president, Mrs. E. G. Roseborough presided. The fidelity circle was in charge. Mrs. Emma Weldon led devotions. Arrangements were completed for the "Gypsy Bazaar" to be held in the gymnasium of the church Friday and Saturday, December 2nd and 3rd. Dinner will be served Friday evening, December 2nd.

The members received with regret the resignation of Mrs. J. A. Gorby as president. Mrs. Gorby has been a most efficient leader for a year and a half and all are sorry that ill health does not permit her to continue.

Mrs. Riley D. Henson also resigned as publicity chairman. Mrs. Henson took care of the work for several years very capably but is forced to resign on account of illness.

During the program, Dr. Susie Standard entertained with two readings, "Scandal," and "Prayer." Miss Mary Anne Gates was enjoyed in a group of solos, "Thanks Be to God" by P. J. O'Reilly, "Be the Best of Whatever You Are," by John Barnes Wells, and "He Loved Her." Mrs. Vera Dondit Lantz accompanied her. There were six members celebrating birthdays.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

Owl patrol of Talent met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Roy Parr to celebrate Halloween. Each brought a guest and were greeted at the door by a mysterious ghost.

A scavenger hunt was then enjoyed by all. Prizes were awarded to Almena Dobbins and Doris Cooper.

After learning the Virginia reel, they were served cookies and cider by Agnes Lacy and Betty Nichols.

Adult guests were Mrs. J. Terrill, Miss J. Gore, Mrs. G. Nichols and Miss Larson.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

The chief health project of the P.T.A. is the lunch room. In former years our kitchens have been called soup kitchens for the food served was limited to soup, but under the suggestion and help of E. H. Hedrick, plans are being adopted whereby they can be rightfully called "lunch rooms."

Mrs. Mable Mack, the Jackson county home extension leader, has planned a balanced lunch menu especially for children. One hot dish, plus a dessert and a drink will be served for the small cost of 10 cents.

Central Buying has been adopted in an attempt to lessen the financial burden of the P.T.A. groups.

Through the generosity of Mr. Hedrick and the school board, electric refrigerators have been installed in each kitchen, insuring perfectly kept

"My Man" Free to Wed Fair Swimmer

"My Man" Free to Wed Fair Swimmer
HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 29.—(UP)—Billy Rose, "my man" to Fannie Brice during the halcyon days of an eight-year marriage, today was handed his domestic walking papers carrying a conditional go-ahead on his plans, if any, to marry Eleanor Holm, Olympic swimmer.
Superior Judge Thurmond Clark granted Miss Brice an interlocutory divorce decree at a 15-minute hearing which unraveled one of Hollywood's most complicated love tangles. The brief session was completely lacking in fireworks. Rose had entered no contest to her plea of desertion.

Statement of George W. DUNN

Statement of George W. DUNN
Republican Candidate for State Senator

To the electorate of Jackson County, Oregon, I wish to express my appreciation for the kindly co-operation extended to me during the many years that I have tried to represent you in the legislature. My ambition is to merit a continuance of that co-operation and help in trying to solve the many problems that will have to be dealt with in the coming sessions of the legislature.

If elected, I will endeavor to conduct myself in such a manner that I can command the respect and confidence of my fellow legislators.

I will use all my influence to promote sane and sensible legislation. I will work for a balanced budget and will strive to keep the many necessary appropriations within the legal limitations provided by law.

Our dependent citizens who through various misfortunes are being cared for in state institutions, such as the state hospital for the insane, the feeble minded, the tubercular, the blind, the deaf and the abandoned babes in the homes provided by charitable institutions and assisted by the state as well as those who through untoward circumstances are a charge upon the largess of society, must be properly cared for.

Our penal and correctional institutions, now crowded beyond safe and sanitary conditions, demand careful consideration. We cannot hope for reformation of those who have started on a criminal career without they have decent environments while being confined.

It is time to view with alarm our fast diminishing tax base and the great growing demand for more and more expenditures for desirable things, the cost of which is to be matched by U. S. government contributions. Every governmental contribution is a mortgage upon the tax resources of this nation; and, if not curbed, will result in confiscation of all private property or repudiation of debts or both.

With this fact facing us, if elected, I will be conservative in the expenditure of your tax money.

If elected your state senator for another term, I will enter upon the duties of that office free to act upon all matters of legislation without obligation to any interest with no friends to reward or enemies to punish. I will, to the best of my ability, work for the well-being of the state of Oregon, regardless of the "floor under wages or the ceiling over hours" or the day over forty for which we receive no three dollars per day.

(Paid Adv. by Republican Central Committee, Joe E. Wood, Secretary).
