

Society and Clubs

By Clara Mary Davis

Engagement Told at Recent Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Culy was the scene of a delightful Halloween party last week when the Culy's announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Culy to Leonard M. Klein of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Klein of Medford.

The betrothal was revealed on tally cards which were drawn from a large pumpkin by the guests.

Progressive games were enjoyed throughout the evening, after which refreshments were served. Guests present included the Misses Louise Ladd, Marjorie Gregory, Kay Barbour, Helen McAllister, Florence Welter, Margaret Petersen of Ashland, Margaret Culy, and Mesdames Dan Oht, Ed Milne, Louise Putman, Wiley Phanes, J. E. McAllister, E. J. Klein and the hostess, Mrs. A. B. Culy.

Mrs. Thompson Feted at Pythian Party

Pythian Sisters and Knights of Pythias met Wednesday evening in their clubrooms for a delightful party honoring Mrs. Mildred Thompson, most excellent chief of the Sisters, who will leave Medford in the near future for Portland, where she will make her home.

A humorous event of the evening was the race horse stunts acted out by Robert Stout and Ray Yost. The latter played the part of Seabiscuit and the former War Admiral. The act was cleverly presented and enjoyed by all.

Refreshments were served and a Halloween motif carried out in decorations.

Mrs. Thompson was presented with a very handsome gift by the lodges and a beautiful corsage.

Forty members were present at the pleasant affair.

Group Vacations in California

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur R. Childreth and John Grimm left this morning by motorcar for a two weeks' trip to be spent in southern California. The trio will visit places of interest along the inland route. Mr. Grimm will stop in Indio, Cal., to visit with Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Aldrich, former Medford residents and the Childreth's will continue on to San Diego for a several days sojourn with relatives of Mr. Childreth.

The group will drive home via the coast route, stopping at various resorts. Mr. Grimm and Mr. Childreth are associated with the federal experiment station in this city.

St. Mark's Guild Convenes Friday

St. Mark's Guild will convene tomorrow afternoon in the parish hall on North Oakdale avenue at 1 o'clock for its regular hot dish luncheon. An important business session will follow the luncheon. All members are asked to be present.

ADRIENNE'S 13th Anniversary Sale Continues This Week COATS

Regular $29.95 values
Now $25.00

Sport Coats and Persian Fur Fabric. $25.00 values
Now $19.95

SPECIAL GROUP
Now $16.95

Fur Trimmed Coats $69.95 values
Now $49.95

Dresses
Silk and Wool Sport and Dressy types. Values to $12.98.
Now $7.98

Another Group
Dresses
Silk and Wools including Marilyn Dresses, $16.95 val.
Now $12.98

Discount on All Fur Coats
Fri. and Sat. Specials
20%

ADRIENNE'S

Reames Home Scene of Lions Luncheon

Lady Lions met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Reames on Geneva street for an enjoyable covered dish luncheon and an afternoon of cards.

The next session will be held the first Wednesday in December at the home of Mrs. Earl Miller. The afternoon will be devoted to dressing dolls and fixing toys for the club's annual Christmas toy donations.

Attending yesterday's affair were Mesdames Earl Miller, Ray Marti, Frank Bunta, Eaton Humphrey, Arthur Adler, Arthur Bender, Claybourne Konkol, Fred Landers, Leland Knox, E. M. Wilson, Clyde Williamson, Harold Jenkins, William Brooks, H. W. Conger, Michael Beck, Henry Zachariasen, L. G. Morthland, L. B. Thurman, Charles Fritchett, Maurice Schino and the hostess, Mrs. Reames. Assistant hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Morthland and Mrs. Fritchett.

Duo-Artists Will Appear Here Soon

The Medford Music club will present on Wednesday, November 9, the second of a series of musical events. The attraction booked for an appearance here next week consists of Elizabeth and Harlow Mills, duo artists of the violin and piano. The presentation will be held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Fabrick, 106 Crater Lake avenue, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

This colorful concert team comes to Medford highly recommended by critics of the Los Angeles Times, Musical Courier and other well known news sources.

The duo artists will present their program of Humanian and Hungarian music here in costume. They will perform the music of Bartok, Dohnanyi, Monti, Liszt and other composers.

The first evening of music presented several weeks ago by The Medford Music club was attended by a large crowd and it is anticipated that this concert will even surpass the first.

Birthday Party for Mrs. Crowe

A birthday party honoring Mrs. C. Edward Crowe was a pleasant event of Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McNeill on North Beach street.

Mrs. Crowe was the recipient of many attractive gifts and the evening was spent in playing games after which the honoree cut and served a beautifully decorated birthday cake.

Guests present at the party included Mr. and Mrs. Crowe, Mr. and Mrs. McNeill and sons, Douglas and Darrel, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker and son Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bohl, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bohl, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lockard, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sewell and son Lonny, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elliott, Clinton Balfour, Mrs. L. MacFarland and Mrs. Georgia McNeill.

'Kicker' Tournament by Women Golfers

Twenty sturdy women golfers of the Rogue River Golf club braved the inclement weather of yesterday and gathered at the clubhouse for a no-hostess luncheon after which they indulged in a "kicker" tournament. This unique type of tournament tends to make better scores and a satisfaction to the players as no other tournament does. Players are allowed to play one stroke over per hole if they are dissatisfied with the original stroke.

The winners of last week's handicap tournament were Mrs. Willis Wood, low net in class A and Mrs. Larry Schade and Mrs. Jean Lincoln tied for winning score in class B.

Next Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock players will again gather for luncheon and a tournament.

Roosevelt Circle Meets Tomorrow

Roosevelt Home and School circle will convene tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in room 11 at the Roosevelt school.

Miss Elizabeth McCallard, county school officer, will talk on the subject "Health of the School Child" and Mrs. George Jennings will read a paper on the relation of the home to the child.

Dancing Club Party Anticipated Event

Medford no-host dancing club will hold its first dancing party of the season Saturday evening at 9:30 o'clock in Dreamland hall.

This formal affair will be the first of several dances to be given within the next few months.

TUNE IN KMED FOR BEN BERNIE ON OUR RADIO SHOW

Hear the ole Maestro at his best! Listen to him wisecrack! Enjoy the smooth music and the featured singers directed by Ben Bernie on the Rexall 1c Sale Program. Tune in Station KMED at 1 o'clock

West Side Pharmacy

THE JOURNAL DRUG STORE for lowest prices in town

It is anticipated that a number of cocktail parties will precede the dance.

Dixie Club To Meet Saturday

Dixie club will convene Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hugh Hamlin on South Oakdale avenue for a regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Hamlin will be assisted by Miss Laura Berry, club president, throughout the social hour.

Juvenile Club Meets Saturday

Degree of Honor Juvenile club will convene Saturday morning at 10:45 in the hall over the Baldwin piano shoppe. Refreshments will be served and all members are asked to attend the session.

Altar Guild Meets Monday

St. Mark's Altar guild will convene Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Guild hall for a regular meeting. A cafeteria dinner will be served.

Calendar

Thursday
6:30 p. m.—Lincoln school, dinner and carnival, school gymnasium.
6:30 p. m.—B. P. W. dinner, Hotel Holland.
7:30 p. m.—Theta Rho, I. O. O. F. hall, initiation.
8:00 p. m.—Degree of Honor, hall over Baldwin shoppe.

Friday
1:00 p. m.—St. Mark's Guild, parish hall on North Oakdale avenue.
2:30 p. m.—Roosevelt Home circle, Roosevelt school.

ELKS WILL HONOR DISTRICT LEADER

Medford Elks lodge will be host at its regular session tonight to John H. Houston of Klamath Falls, district deputy grand exalted ruler. Mr. Houston will pay an annual official visitation to the Medford lodge and a special program has been arranged in his honor.

Tonight's lodge session, which will convene at 8, will be under the charge of members 28 years old or younger, it was announced by W. E. Lantis, exalted ruler.

"These young members have been working for some time on a special program and promise something unusual for the entertainment of our district deputy grand exalted ruler," Mr. Lantis said. "Every member should make a special effort to be present."

A collation will be served in the club rooms immediately after the lodge meeting.

LEADERS TO MEET IN STUDY SERIES

Parent education study club leaders of Jackson county will meet at the courthouse auditorium tomorrow for the first of a series on the "Family Situation Today." Mr. Houston will be Mrs. Beuna M. Marla, resident instructor in family relationships, Oregon State college.

Mrs. Marla was recently appointed as a part-time instructor in the extension service to succeed Mrs. Maud M. Morse, extension specialist in parent education, who resigned November 1.

The meeting will open at 10 a. m. Two leaders from each organized study club are expected to attend.

MOUSE IN PANTS LEG CAUSES $250 DISGUST

CLEVELAND, Nov. 3.—(UP)—I. V. Rosenman today valued at $250 the "loathing and disgust" he assertedly suffered when, he said, he squeezed to death a mouse that ran up his pants leg while he sat in a theater. He said he also lost sleep that night and had to throw away a $25 suit describe the dim shapes of the future the effects can be of two sorts. If the Republicans are given another great licking, the president's prestige will be greatly enhanced. In the last year, and particularly in the last six months, Democratic politicians have been saying that the president's magic has gone. The purge suggested rather clearly that the electorate was tired of boosing to his slightest whim. But a resounding triumph on Tuesday would efface this impression pretty completely. Grateful Democratic job-holders will sniff the delicious scent of pap and patronage, and murmur to themselves, "You've got to hand it to the big boss. He certainly knows how to keep his friends on the payroll." Consequently, the president will find it much easier to force his party along the road he has chosen for it.

On the other hand, if the Democrats lose several important governorships, several senate seats and a respectable number of places in the house, the president will lose much of the prestige which remains to him. A Republican landslide is not necessary to damage the president. All that is needed is for Frank Murphy to lose in Michigan, for Herbert Lehman to succumb to Dewey in New York, and for a few other conspicuous Democratic candidates to be beaten. Every Democrat in the election, conservative or liberal, is running, essentially, on the New Deal record. And if only a few of them fall by the wayside, that will be in the house, the senate will still remember the purge. And the president will find it a trifle hard to manage senators with such a bitter memory poisoning their minds.

The Capital Parade

(Continued from Page One)

Yet, unless the president and his advisers change their plans, the effects of congress' attitude will be felt chiefly in the area of foreign policy. The armament program, the related tax program, the nature of American neutrality—these should be the big problems. As for domestic affairs, the president's conservative advisers always prefer a gentle passivity, and now the left-wingers at the White House think that all controversial domestic issues should be avoided, in order to give the president time for his fight to liberalize the Democratic party.

Meanwhile, the character of the president's party is all but certain to be intimately affected by the election results. So far as one can enough to prove that the New Deal record has lost political appeal.

Of course, as soon as the New Deal's political appeal can be doubted, the Democratic organizations will be up in arms. There is nothing so ungrateful as a well-fed politician, and the organization Democrats, while taking pap from the president, have always longed to bite the hand that fed them. They will practically chew it off the minute they dare to. And if they do gain courage from the spectacle of a defeated leader, the president may as well tear up his plans for his party.

On the other hand, if the Democrats lose several important governorships, several senate seats and a respectable number of places in the house, the president will lose much of the prestige which remains to him. A Republican landslide is not necessary to damage the president. All that is needed is for Frank Murphy to lose in Michigan, for Herbert Lehman to succumb to Dewey in New York, and for a few other conspicuous Democratic candidates to be beaten. Every Democrat in the election, conservative or liberal, is running, essentially, on the New Deal record. And if only a few of them fall by the wayside, that will be enough to prove that the New Deal record has lost political appeal.

Of course, as soon as the New Deal's political appeal can be doubted, the Democratic organizations will be up in arms. There is nothing so ungrateful as a well-fed politician, and the organization Democrats, while taking pap from the president, have always longed to bite the hand that fed them. They will practically chew it off the minute they dare to. And if they do gain courage from the spectacle of a defeated leader, the president may as well tear up his plans for his party.

On the other hand, if the Democrats lose several important governorships, several senate seats and a respectable number of places in the house, the president will lose much of the prestige which remains to him. A Republican landslide is not necessary to damage the president. All that is needed is for Frank Murphy to lose in Michigan, for Herbert Lehman to succumb to Dewey in New York, and for a few other conspicuous Democratic candidates to be beaten. Every Democrat in the election, conservative or liberal, is running, essentially, on the New Deal record. And if only a few of them fall by the wayside, that will be enough to prove that the New Deal record has lost political appeal.

Of course, as soon as the New Deal's political appeal can be doubted, the Democratic organizations will be up in arms. There is nothing so ungrateful as a well-fed politician, and the organization Democrats, while taking pap from the president, have always longed to bite the hand that fed them. They will practically chew it off the minute they dare to. And if they do gain courage from the spectacle of a defeated leader, the president may as well tear up his plans for his party.

On the other hand, if the Democrats lose several important governorships, several senate seats and a respectable number of places in the house, the president will lose much of the prestige which remains to him. A Republican landslide is not necessary to damage the president. All that is needed is for Frank Murphy to lose in Michigan, for Herbert Lehman to succumb to Dewey in New York, and for a few other conspicuous Democratic candidates to be beaten. Every Democrat in the election, conservative or liberal, is running, essentially, on the New Deal record. And if only a few of them fall by the wayside, that will be enough to prove that the New Deal record has lost political appeal.

Of course, as soon as the New Deal's political appeal can be doubted, the Democratic organizations will be up in arms. There is nothing so ungrateful as a well-fed politician, and the organization Democrats, while taking pap from the president, have always longed to bite the hand that fed them. They will practically chew it off the minute they dare to. And if they do gain courage from the spectacle of a defeated leader, the president may as well tear up his plans for his party.

On the other hand, if the Democrats lose several important governorships, several senate seats and a respectable number of places in the house, the president will lose much of the prestige which remains to him. A Republican landslide is not necessary to damage the president. All that is needed is for Frank Murphy to lose in Michigan, for Herbert Lehman to succumb to Dewey in New York, and for a few other conspicuous Democratic candidates to be beaten. Every Democrat in the election, conservative or liberal, is running, essentially, on the New Deal record. And if only a few of them fall by the wayside, that will be

BURELSON'S HOSIERY

By GOTHAM

Three-thread crepe, all new shades; sizes 8 1/2 to 10 1/2. Regular 79c hose. 10th Anniversary

Sensational Values
Be Here Early Friday & Sat.

68c pr.
3 pair $1.98

BETTER DRESSES

Flatteringly designed, every one a real value. Scores to choose from, including newest styles and colors. Missy and Women's sizes—14 to 20 and 14 1/2 to 24 1/2.

Regular Value to $22.50
10TH ANNIVERSARY SALE PRICE $15.99
2 Dresses for $30.00

SILK DRESSES

Smart models of all descriptions, correctly styled for daytime wear. Tailored and dressy models, new Fall colors; regular and half sizes.

Values to $16.50
10TH ANNIVERSARY SALE PRICE $7.88
2 Dresses for $15.00

NEW FALL DRESSES

All types of dresses for sport, street, school and dinner. Values to $9.85. 10th Anniversary sale price $4.88

FORMALS

An outstanding group of new formal and dinner dresses. satin, Red, Venetian Rose, Crepes, Royal, Gold, Black, Cerise. Sizes 12 to 20. 10th Anniversary sale price $7.88

Fur Trimmed and Sport Coats

Regular Values to $29.75. Now $24.75
Regular Values to $24.75. Now $16.88
Regular Values to $14.95. Now $8.99
Sizes 12 to 44—All linings guaranteed

BARGAIN BASEMENT

100's New Sweaters

Including new Jitter Bugs and Bunny Kids, Brushed Wools. All colors and plenty of whites. Sizes 32 to 40.

$1.98 and $2.98

BARGAIN BASEMENT

Anniversary Special

Regular $1.98 and $1.50 Cotton House Coats. Sizes 12 to 20.

ANNIVERSARY SALE PRICE $1.10

BURELSON'S LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR STORE

Another Smashing Value! Newest 1939 9 Tube, High Fidelity Radio!

DON'T PAY $65-85 for a New CONSOLE GRAND

The New Low-boy! Style III of the Year! Wards Take the Padding Out of Radio Prices!

Wards price is only... 49.95

as a Month, Down Payment Carrying Charge

- You get 9 tubes—not 7! And World range!
- High Fidelity for complete tone range!
- A big 10-inch Super-dynamic speaker!
- Automatic Bass Booster!

Here's the BIGGEST radio news in months! Check it feature for feature with nationally advertised $85 radios! Besides the above you get: a lighted Full-vision dial! Tuning Eye! Automatic volume control! Hand-rubbed cabinet! Latest Super-heterodyne! Quantity limited! Don't delay—get yours!

Choice of Celebrities!

New Remote Control Automatic Tuning! B Tube A. C. Console! World Range - 3 Bands!

$99.95

as a Month, Down Payment Carrying Charge

MADELINE CARROLL
Star of Walter Winchell's "Blacks" (later in her Active Radio)

COMPARE WITH ANY $175 SET!
America's Finest Radio

You'd pay $175 elsewhere for such majestic beauty—such thrilling performance! Exciting new Remote Control... you tune your favorite stations from your easy chair! Automatic Tuning... Just push a button! A 20" speaker, High Fidelity and Automatic Bass Booster to bring you "lifelike" tone! The biggest dollar's worth of radio in 1939!

Montgomery Ward

117 SOUTH CENTRAL TELEPHONE 286