

Bob Smith's 92-Yard Run Gives Oregon First Score In Idaho Win

NINTH VICTORY IN ROW REGISTERED BY WEBFEET, 19-6

Vandals Score First, Then Oliver Crew Rallies—Officials Call Off Tally.

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Oregon's unpredictable Webfoots spotted Idaho a touchdown today, then rallied to win their "kings-of-the-coast" conference game from the Vandals, 19-6.

It was Oregon's 9th straight victory over Idaho. Oregon counteracted Idaho's touchdown in the second period when Bob Smith, halfback, broke loose through center and with able downfield blocking, waltzed 92 yards for a touchdown. Nicholson converted and Oregon took a lead it never relinquished.

Idaho scored first in the same quarter when Rolfe passed to Smith, Vandal end, from the 23-yard line. Smith caught it on the 15 and cruised into the end zone.

Oregon drove deep into Idaho ground early in the third period and scored on Nicholson's pass to Nilson but the officials erased the tally and inflicted a penalty. Three plays later, however, Nicholson found a leak in the line and ran 12 yards for another touchdown that was cancelled by penalty. The third time was the charm, however, and when Gebhardt wiggled through a hole at center and sprinted 33 yards into the end zone the referee raised his hands in token of a valid touchdown.

Rolfe of Idaho baffled the Webfoots with passes in the fourth period and once the Idaho got to the Oregon six, but lost the ball on downs.

From this disadvantageous position the Oregon stirred up their third touchdown play. MaBee, right end, ran 62 yards on an end-around play, Nicholson skirted end for another 30 to the Vandal 8. Idaho held and Rolfe punted to Nicholson who took the ball on the Oregon 44 and lit off for the goal. He was finally barred out of bounds on the 1-yard line and Gebhardt hurried center for the score. Nicholson's conversion was wide.

COUGARS BEATEN BY UCLAN STARS

PULLMAN, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Two touchdowns spurts by the great Webfoots of Washington and an 80-yard gridiron run by Chuck Fenebock, sub halfback, gave the U.C.L.A. Bruins a 11 to 0 victory over the Washington State Cougars today before a homecoming day crowd of around 8000.

The Cougars, who haven't won a conference football game this season, had a hard time today to even supply competition and only threatened to score on one occasion, in the third quarter, when a pass from Emerson to Klumb netted 40 yards and put the State on U.C.L.A.'s five-yard line. The Bruins took the ball on downs.

Washington did not enter the game until near the end of the first quarter, which was scoreless.

Midway of the second, the Bruins started their drive when Woodrow Strada, the Bruins' big Negro end, blocked a W.S.C. punt and took the ball on downs on the W.S.C. 30.

JUNIORS MAILED BY POINT, 26-0

Central Point's big high school football eleven got sweet revenge on Medford junior high Friday afternoon at Central Point, defeating the locals, 26 to 0, with a powerful display of running and passing tactics.

In a previous game, the juniors upset the Pointers, 13 to 6, but they were no match for Coach Ken Stuber's gang Friday. The score at the end of the first half was 6 to 0, with the Pointers driving to three touchdowns in the last two periods.

FAVORITES FALL IN GRID UPSETS; PITTS WALLOPED

Wisconsin Beats Northwestern, Purdue Downs Ohio—Rutgers Wins.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Pitt's supposed all-but-invincible Panthers suffered their first defeat in 32 games today as football form took its worst shattering of the season and the fine art of booting field goals was suddenly revived.

Hailed as perhaps the greatest team in Pitt history and rated for several weeks as the nation's No. 1 array, the Panthers were soundly whipped by their bitter city rivals, Carnegie Tech., 20-10. Carnegie, beaten only by Notre Dame, thus contributed its second major upset to the season's fun. Previously the Engineers had beaten Holy Cross.

If Pitt's downfall caused the greatest consternation among football followers, the Panthers had plenty of company for such other favorites as Northwestern, Michigan State, Princeton, Colgate, Ohio State, and Texas A. & M. all went down.

Wisconsin's Badgers and Purdue's Boilermakers together tied the Big Ten championship race into a terrific knot. Wisconsin upset Northwestern's hitherto unbeaten Wildcats, 20-13, while Purdue spilled Ohio State's Buckeyes, 12-0, with a last period surge.

Michigan State's Spartans, who had held Santa Clara to a 7-0 count, were upset by Missouri, 6-0, as Paul Christianman scored the lone touchdown of the game. Rutgers and Princeton renewed the oldest of all intercollegiate football rivalries and the former won, 20-18, for its second victory in a series that began in 1889.

Syracuse, meanwhile, scored its first victory over Colgate in 14 years, 7-0. Texas A. & M. bowed to Southern Methodist, 10-7, as Joe Pasanin booted a 45-yard field goal in the last 30 seconds of play. Five other major games were decided by field goal margins. Fordham whipped St. Mary's 3-0 on Wilbur Stanton's boot from the 32-yard line. N. C. State bowed to Manhattan by the same count on Manlio Boverini's kick from 27 yards out. Joe Schuchie's field goal from the 25-yard line in the last 50 seconds gave Rice a 3-0 decision over Arkansas, and Vic Bradford's kick from the 17-yard line enabled Alabama to turn back Tulane, also by a 3-0 count. Utah State won from Brigham Young by the same method and score.

The wave of form reversals failed to affect such leaders as Tennessee, Dartmouth, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, and Texas Christian while Duke, undefeated and unscored upon, remained idle.

Notre Dame easily swept past Navy, 15-0; Oklahoma continued its march toward the Big Six crown by whipping Kansas State, 26-0; Texas Christian toppled Tulsa, 21-0; Tennessee pushed over Chattanooga, 45-0, and Dartmouth toyed with Dickinson, 44-7.

Iowa State, Western Reserve, Boston college and Villanova also maintained their unbeaten status. Iowa State topped Drake, 14-0; Western Reserve edged out West Virginia, 7-0; Boston college ripped through Indiana, 14-0; and Villanova trounced Auburn, 25-12.

Harvard and Columbia contributed intercollegiate victories for the east, the former spotting Chicago two touchdowns and then winning, 47-13, while Columbia trounced Virginia, 39-0. Furman, of the Southern conference, tripped Marshall, 18-13.

Penn's last period drive at Ann Arbor failed to overtake Michigan's early lead and the Wolverines won, 19-7.

Holy Cross' passing attack buried Temple under a 33-0 count. Yale rallied late to trip Brown, 20-14. Lafayette upset Penn State, 7-0, and Army had to call on its first-stringers to whip Franklin & Marshall, 20-12.

Minnesota stayed in the running in the Big Ten by routing Iowa, 26-0, while Nebraska scored its first victory of the season, a 16-7 conquest of Kansas. In the Southwest conference, Baylor scored over Texas, 14-8, to join S.M.U. and Rice among the day's winners.

Vanderbilt, Georgia, Georgia Tech and Louisiana State all won Southeastern conference decisions. Vanderbilt had trouble with Sewanee, 14-0; Georgia Tech just managed to nip Kentucky, 19-18; Georgia whipped Florida, 19-8; and Louisiana State mopped up Mississippi State, 35-7. South Carolina and Clemson scored notable intercollegiate victories for the Southern conference. The former tripped Duquesne, 7-0, while Clemson was moving down George Washington, 37-0. Conference play was marked by Virginia Military's 6-6 tie with Wake Forest and North Carolina's hard-earned 7-0 victory over Virginia Tech.

Brigham Young's defeat by Utah State enabled Utah to take the lead in the Rocky Mountain "Big Six" race although the Utes got only a scoreless draw with Colorado.

RACING

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Joe W. Brown's T. M. Dorsett won the Kentucky Jockey club stakes at Churchill Downs this afternoon by two and a half lengths.
Junius W. Bell's Steel Heels was second and John Marsch's Lightspur third.

The race for two-year-olds with $5,000 added in years past has been the highlight of Kentucky derby racing. The race is not to be run again.
T. M. Dorsett paid $8.00, $4.00 and $2.00. The time was 1:38.8.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—(AP)—J. A. Manfredino's Ametrol outran a class field over a track slowed by rain today to win the thirty-sixth running of the $10,000-added mile-and-three-sixteenths Hags handicap at Pimlico.
W. W. Vaughtan's Mr. Cannon was second and Mrs. A. J. Abel's Honey Cloud, third.

Trojans Triumph Over Bears, 13-7 AS 95,000 WATCH

California Makes Two First Downs, Victors 20—Lansdell Star of Game.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Southern California's Trojan warriors derailed the California Rose Bowl-bound special here today, wrecking the unbeaten record of the mighty machine from Berkeley and taking to themselves the inside track to the Pacific coast conference football championship and the Pasadena bowl game January 2.

A record-breaking crowd of 95,000, gathered in the sunshine of Memorial Coliseum, saw the Trojans dynamite California, 13 to 7, and hoist the colors of cardinal and gold to heights unseen since the glory days of Troy five years ago.

California's streak of 18 consecutive victories, topped by its triumph in the Rose Bowl last New Year's day, was trumped under foot as the Trojan wrecking crew turned on alternate bursts of aerial lightning and powerful thunder.

The crowd, biggest since 92,000 saw Southern California and Notre Dame here in 1932, sat stunned as the Bears, favored by odds of ten to seven, were held to two lone first downs, the first of which came 34 minutes after the game began.

Leading the Trojan climb back to triumphant heights was Greenville Lansdell, flashy quarterback, who pitched strike after strike to his pass receivers, and scored the first Trojan touchdown in the third quarter on a brilliant sweep around California's left end after a six-yard jump. Phil Gaspar converted, ending a drive of 40 yards in six plays.

Troy forged into a further lead in the fourth quarter when its second string backfield lugged the ball on straight running plays 50 yards, Jack Banta crashing the California right side for the touchdown from the one. Gaspar missed this conversion.

California battled furiously to stem the Trojan tide, and twice stopped it within the one-yard line, but was unable to generate a scoring punch worthy of moment until late in the final period.

Unable to dent the Trojan defense, the Bears took to the air and Vic Bottari, who had been expected to prove his All-America claims, but who failed dismally, got hot enough to pass his mates 66 yards, with Morely Matthews, right end, snagging a final pass good for 38 yards and the lone Bear touchdown. Bottari drop kicked the extra point.

The Bears' related pass attempts gave the hosts in the final minute when the Bears got the ball deep in their own territory, but Bottari's first pass drifted into the arms of Lansdell, and there went the last chance for another California score.

JOPLIN GHOST TO TACKLE SOCKEYE

Big Red Lyons', 205-pound Joplin Ghost, who has been absent from the Medford armory for the past several months, clashes with Sockeye Jack McDonald in the main grappling bout tomorrow evening, and local fans are expecting one of the best bouts of the season. They will go one hour, or until one brute obtains two falls.

In the center attraction, Mad Italian Pete Belcastro faces Frankie Schroll. Opening the all-star program will be Cecil McGill, dropkick specialist and Bobby Wagner of New Hampshire. Both are old favorites who will be returning after extended absences.

Clever, smart and rough, Lyons is expected to give McDonald a whale of a battle, maybe beat him. The four-faced red-head, who has caused considerable trouble here by running out on matches, etc., features a highly effective leg-breaker hold which has caused many opponents many unhappy moments.

The Belcastro-Schroll bout will be clean versus meanie and foul tactics versus the crocodile clutch, the spectacular maneuver Schroll brought back from South America. Pete is determined to win this match so as to get back in the top spot.

HUSKIES MANAGE TO DEFEAT CARDS VIA FIELD GOAL

Palermo Wins Hectic Battle From Powerful Upstate Squad Before 2500 Fans.

PALMO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 5.—(AP)—University of Washington, beaten, bewildered and seemingly going nowhere in the football world, snatched a measure of satisfaction from a disappointing season by scoring a 10 to 7 victory over Stanford's rickety gridiron squad today.

The Huskies, although trounced in three previous Coast conference contests, kicked off as the favorite to win from a Stanford eleven which had won two and lost two in the league competition.

The role of favorite, it turned out eventually, was well deserved. Washington scored a touchdown in the opening period on a 45-yard drive which included a gain of 19 yards when Stanford was penalized for interfering with a pass receiver. It gave the Huskies the oval one yard from goal and Fullback Al Cruser was quick to take advantage. He bumped the middle of the line for the score.

A second period field goal added three points more, the winning margin as it turned out. It was Druser again, booting the oval through the uprights from the 23-yard marker, after he had his teammates huddled together from their own 30 to within 15 yards of the Indians' goal.

Stanford, throughout the game, offered but small proof it should be ranked as a major league club, but it came through to smash over a third period touchdown with a total of 85 yards chalked on the ground and through the air.

Throughout the first half, the play was all for Washington. The northers really looked like a top grade club during that time, hanging the Stanford team all over the field while chalking up seven first downs to two and claiming most of the yardage.

SALEM KEEPS UP VICTORY MARCH BY DOWNING ASTORIA

By The Associated Press

Oregon's high school football championship map got a face-lifting yesterday that virtually eliminated at least one fond hope.

Salem, Willamette valley invincibles trotted out the best attack and chucked Astoria's pennant hopes into the ashcan with a 19-14 victory.

MacLoughlin, Milton—Prewater deadpanned, ploughed through the Dales 25 to 0, ending the latter's reputation as a giant killer. Corvalis bowed to Milwaukie 45 to 0. Klammath Falls polished off an interstate game by beating Eureka, Cal., 18 to 0.

In Portland, the teams scheduled to meet Armistice day for the city championship, Jefferson and Franklin, continued their unbeaten drives. Franklin bumped Commerce last night, 14 to 6, while Jefferson whipped Lincoln 20 to 0 Thursday.

40,000 See Gophers Smother Iowa Eleven

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Minnesota's Gophers smothered Iowa's Hawkeyes today 28 to 0 in Memorial stadium before a Dad's day crowd of 40,000.

Wilbur Moore scored the first touchdown in the second quarter on a nine-yard dash and Marty Christiansen shortly afterward scored from the one-yard line. Minnesota scored twice more in the fourth quarter. George Franck going over from the five-yard line and Bobby Paffrahn took a long pass on the five and drove scores.

CAMPBELL SPARKS TIGERS TO 25-19 WIN OVER EUGENE

Medford Wins Hectic Battle From Powerful Upstate Squad Before 2500 Fans.

Faced by Shorty Campbell, a 150-pound substitute halfback who throws strikes with his pitching arm and runs like a scored jackrabbit, Medford, high's Black Tornado football machine remained in the running for the mythical Oregon state championship by outscoring Eugene high's gigantic Axmen, 25 to 19, at the stadium Friday night in a wild-eyed, hysterical battle between two teams with but one thought in mind—to tally touchdowns.

With a surprisingly fast turf underfoot, the two clubs opened up with a display of offensive pyrotechnics the like of which has seldom been seen in southern Oregon. The score was tied twice, at 13 to 13 and 19-19, as everything in the book was revealed to some 2500 thrilled customers. Neither team could halt the other's attack. Eugene's powerful running offense, featuring reverses, spinners and devastating blocking, split the Tiger line asunder, while Medford's ground and aerial attack was just as unscalable to the Axmen.

Campbell, a senior, had not seen much action this season because of an injured ankle, but when he swung into action in the second quarter there was no stopping him. Almost single-handed he sparked the Tigers to a pair of touchdowns in the second period, which deadlocked the half-time count at 13 to 13, and again in the fourth quarter he provided most of the dynamite as Medford drove to its winning touchdown with only three minutes to play.

That final Tornado tally cracked a 19 to 19 tie, and climaxed a scoring drive which started on the Tiger 35-yard line. Billy Piche, another substitute back, carried it 50 yards from the one-foot line on a wide reverse play.

Eugene's right end, in desperation, Eugene tried long forward passes in the waning moments, but Medford's Jack Bowman made a great interception on his own 23-yard line to halt the threat and insure victory.

Neither team scored in the first quarter, but both went crazy in the second. Eugene's right end, in desperation, Eugene tried long forward passes in the waning moments, but Medford's Jack Bowman made a great interception on his own 23-yard line to halt the threat and insure victory.

By their victory, the Tigers took their place alongside Salem and McLoughlin high of Milton-Prewater as the outstanding non-metropolitan teams on the road to the mythical state championship. Next Friday afternoon, Armistice Day, the Tigers play Wood Col. high at the stadium.

Coach Bill Bowerman revealed after the game that all his players came through the encounter in excellent condition. There wasn't a serious injury, he said.

BEST NOTRE DAME TEAM LICKS NAVY

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Notre Dame's greatest football team since its last glorious 1930 model, turned out by Knute Rockne, rolled over hapless outclassed Navy, 15-0, today as a capacity throng of 62,000 half-asleep spectators wondered what the score really could have been if Coach Elmer Layden hadn't hooked the leash on his touchdown misers.

It was a sad, wet day for the Mid-dies, long one of the most dangerous platoon foes of the Fighting Irish. If some of their pass receivers, who had 31 forwards pitched to them during the alternately exciting and uninteresting game, had reached a bit higher the score might have been close. But the Irish secondary, as alert as the forward wall was strong, broke up the aerial bombardment and then snuffed down the field with touchdown thrusts in the second and third periods to clinch the victory.

North Carolina Wins
CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Nov. 5.—(AP)—North Carolina scored in the third period to defeat Virginia Tech, 7 to 0, today in a driving rain before 14,000 high school student guests of the University and some 4,000 other fans. Strawness, North Carolina quarter, went five yards for the score four minutes before the period ended. Moronic placekicked the point.

Indicative of the wild scoring duel is the fact that Eugene was forced to punt only once, an 8-yarder, and Medford but twice. Practically every time the two teams met, Eugene struck on the ball and the result was a touchdown. Long, sensational broken-field runs were in abundance, with Coughill and Robertson of Eugene and Bowman of Medford proving the big ground-runners.

The game was exceptionally clean. Only two offside penalties being inflicted, one on each club.

By their victory, the Tigers took their place alongside Salem and McLoughlin high of Milton-Prewater as the outstanding non-metropolitan teams on the road to the mythical state championship. Next Friday afternoon, Armistice Day, the Tigers play Wood Col. high at the stadium.
