This blanket is on display at Mann's Department store. The receiver of the prize may have a choice of three colors, gold, pink, or blue.

Other guests present were Mrs. M. C. Pape of The Dalles, mother of the bridegroom and H. P. Pick of The Dalles and Mrs. A. R. Hodge. Mr. and Mrs. Pape will make their home in Klamath Falls.

Duo-Artists to Appear Tonight

Many music enthusiasts are anticipating the program this evening when the Medford Music club sponsors Elizabeth and Harlow Mills at the home of Mrs. Margaret Fabrick, 106 Crater Lake avenue at 8 o'clock.

Elizabeth and Harlow Mills, violin and piano duo-artists, will present their lecture recital on Rumanian and Hungarian folk music in costume. The music presented on the program falls naturally into two groups, folk songs and dance music in their simpler form, and the more brilliant concert pieces based on this folk music.

Annual Banquet Event Monday

Crater Lake Guild of the Presbyterian church held its annual banquet served by Grace Circle, in the church social hall on Monday evening. The room and tables were beautifully decorated with fall foliage and orange candles.

The following interesting program was presented: Devotions, Mrs. Sherman L. Divine, who read the book of Esther; "Onward, Christian Soldiers," sung by the entire group. The rest of the program developed the theme "Women Through the Ages," with the following countries represented: India, Japan, China, and the southern mountain states of our own country. Nora Harwood was dressed in Indian Sarong and she and Olive Eldridge, accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Marsh, played as a violin duo, "Song of India," to represent that country. For Japan, Lenore McBea wore a gay Japanese kimono, complete with obi, and Mary Louise McElhose, accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Marsh, sang two songs of that country, "Japanese Maiden," and "The Jap Doll." Dorothy Haynes, in a jade green Chinese robe, represented China, and as a southern mountain woman Emma Jane Brewer wore long cotton dress, white apron, kerchief and a sun bonnet.

Miss Floy Young, accompanied by Mrs. Straughan, played two violin solos, "Berceuse" from "Jocelyn" and "Ethelbert Nevins' "Rosary." A trio, composed of Katherine Wendt, Margaret Hason, and Jean McAllister, accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Marsh, sang "Green Cathedral." For the remainder of the evening Mrs. Francis Bancroft spoke on "Women Through the Ages," giving a very vivid and interesting account of the progress and present condition of the women of the four countries represented. At the close of her talk, the group sang "America the Beautiful" and the meeting adjourned.

JOHN ANDERSON TELLS ROTARY MEMBERS OF JOURNEY TO SWEDEN

John Anderson, well known Jackson county man who recently returned from Sweden and Norway, gave an interesting description of his travels before the Medford Rotary club Tuesday at the luncheon-meeting of the organization. A large gathering of Rotarians and guests assembled in the basement banquet hall of the Hotel Medford, enjoyed Mr. Anderson's enlightening talk, in which he told of the economic conditions and the people of the countries he visited.

A high living standard is enjoyed by the people of Norway and Sweden, Mr. Anderson pointed out. There is no unemployment; wages are uniformly good and the aged are well cared for through an adequate old age pension. Practically all homes are electrified and the important industries include mining and farming. The speaker outlined the unique marketing system employed by the farmers.

In concluding his interesting address, Mr. Anderson said that the people of Sweden and Norway are

PORTLAND'S DOGS HAVE THEIR DAY

PORTLAND, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Multnomah county voters upheld a "bill of rights" for dogs at Tuesday's general election and rescued scores of unleashed and unruled canines from the threat of execution. By a 2 to 1 majority the county permitted the dogs to continue to run at large. The move to curb freedom followed reports the number of dogs suffering from rabies had increased.

A pay-as-you-go sewage disposal plant to clean up the Willamette river here had an apparently safe 7,500 vote lead. Portland voters taxed themselves 4 of a mill for 10 years to improve parks and playgrounds. Municipal voters rejected about 2 to 1 a proposal to establish a city housing authority, discarding the possibility of $5,000,000 in federal money to construct homes for the low income group.
