MEDFORD JUNIORS DEFEAT ASHLAND, 24 TO 7, IN WINDUP

Wray-Leonard Passing Combination Accounts for Pair of Touchdowns — Team Wins Five, Loses Two

With the forward-passing combination of Wray to Leonard scoring two touchdowns and setting up another, Medford junior high school's fine football team brought its season to a close yesterday afternoon at Ashland by handing the Lithia city juniors a 24 to 7 beating.

Medford scored twice in the first quarter, once in the third and once in the fourth periods, while the losers tallied their lone touchdown in the final stanza on a line snafu.

The Wray and Leonard battery moved into action early, getting the first Medford touchdown on the first play of the game. After receiving the kickoff, Wray fired a 15-yard pass to Leonard and the latter stepped 88 yards to the end zone.

Again before the first quarter was ended, Wray passed to Leonard to place the ball on the two-yard line, from where Curt Hopkins bucked it over.

Jimmy Glenn, Medford guard, intercepted an Ashland fumble in the third quarter and lumbered 30 yards to a touchdown. In the fourth period, another pass from Wray to Leonard went for a touchdown, with the play gaining 60 yards.

During the season, Coach George Harrington's club won five games and lost two, both defeats being at the hands of Class B high schools—Jacksonville and Central Point. In their class, the local juniors were undefeated, and had only 18 points scored against them.

CECIL GALL COPS RIFLE LAURELS

Cecil Gall, outranking Lew Conger by a close margin, won high honors last night on the Medford rifle club's indoor range, both scoring 378 and 400. Both shooters were tied with 88 and 100 in the offhand stage, but Gall scored a 93 to Conger's 92 in the kneeling position, to place first.

With the indoor shooting season just getting under way, it is an ideal time for the new shooter to break into the game, and by registering in Division II he can compete with others in his own class. Division II is limited to those having rifle and sights valued at $50 and under. The rifle range is the basement of the Natatorium building is open Monday nights for instruction and practice, and Thursday evenings for competition shooting. Club dues and range fees are moderate, considering the facilities offered the members.

Scores last night were:

COAST BASEBALL TO HAVE PLAYOFF

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—(AP)—Pacific coast baseball league directors were expected today to adopt the circuit's 1939 playing schedule.

The directors, opening their annual baseball meeting yesterday, voted to retain the straight playing schedule and four-team post season playoff plan for a $10,000 purse to be divided among the teams participating.

The directors said next year's schedule, expected to run for 34 weeks, would probably be adopted today.

The Hollywood Stars, the baseball team without a park, was given until January 1 to do something about it. Victor Ford Collins, president of the Stars, asserted his associates had several sites under consideration and planned construction of small park with wooden stands. Last season the Hollywood team played in the Los Angeles Angels' park.

WHITMAN AND COLORADO WILL STRUGGLE IN SNOW

WALLA WALLA, Nov. 11.—(AP)—Snow four inches deep covered Stadium field today for the Whitman-Colorado college football game.

It was the first college contest since Thanksgiving, 1931, to be played in snow here. Temperature stood barely below freezing with skies clear.

A slick footing was expected to be of less handicap to the host team than to the Rocky Mountain squad, whose offensive is rated tricky.

Lyons in Action

Red Lyons, who meets Frankie Schroll in next Monday night's middle wrestling event at the armory, demonstrates in the above picture how he whams helpless opponents to the carpet, usually to stay. Red is a rough and tough character.

BOWLING

City league bowling results at the Medford alleys last night saw the Mall-Tribune take three out of four points from Copco, Union Oil beat Orr 3 to 1; Medco and Weeks and Orr tie, 2 to 2; Mobil take all four points from Monarch. Two men's and one ladies' teams from here will travel to Klamath Falls Sunday to roll like teams of that city at the Klamath Recreation alleys, starting at 1 o'clock. WIN BY HUSKIES WOULD CAUSE FOG ON BOWL PICTURE

Trojans Odds On Favorites — Bears Expect Easy Afternoon With Oregon — Beavers Meet Stanford

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—(AP)—University of Washington's Huskies, who finally got around to winning a football game last week by slapping down the feeble Stanford Indians, would certainly fog the Rose Bowl picture if they unexpectedly dumped U. S. C. Trojans at Seattle Saturday.

The Trojans, who overpowered the University of California's conference title defenders in impressive fashion at Los Angeles last week, are odds on favorites to take Coach Jimmy Phelan's Huskies.

A U. S. C. defeat would be welcome news to the Bears who are expected to have an easy afternoon at Berkeley with the University of Oregon eleven which is playing without the services of its backfield ace, Jay Graybeal, who is on the casualty list with a leg injury.

Coach Stub Allison of the Bears has given his boys a rest cure all week and they are expected to be at full strength against Oregon, although they will be outweighed at least 15 pounds to a man on the line.

Oregon State's most powerful team in five years is favored to outpoint Tiny Thornhill's Stanfords at Corvallis. It will be the 13th time the two teams have met with Oregon State yet to win a game although last year the teams battled to a 0 to 0 tie at Palo Alto.

Washington State's weakest football team in years goes to Moscow, Idaho, to compare offensives and defenses with the University of Idaho Vandals while at Los Angeles the U. C. L. Bruins tackle Wisconsin, conqueror of Northwestern, in an inter-conference argument.

Sunday St. Mary's Gaels and the undefeated Santa Clara Broncos who have been at football odds for many years, are expected to play before 50,000 fans in San Francisco with the Broncos 2 to 1 favorites.

SAM SNEAD WINS AT WHITE SULPHUR

He received $750 of the $3,000 prize money. His total for the four rounds was 273.

Snead finished two strokes ahead of Ky Laffoon of Chicago, who took second money, $450, with 275.

EXPLOSIONS PROTEST BELFAST CELEBRATION
BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Nov. 11.—(AP)—Thunderous explosions of dynamite today broke the customary two minutes of silence at Belfast's Armistice Day ceremonies.

No one was injured and the damage was confined to wrecking of the walls in which the dynamite was set off.

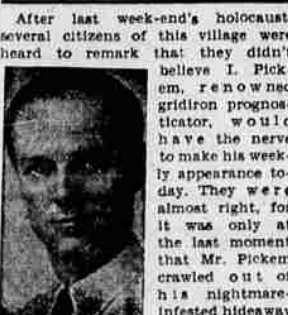

The explosions were reported to have been a Republican protest against the Armistice Day celebration.

Nearly two-thirds of all the lamb eaten in the United States is consumed in the area north of Washington, D. C., and east of Pittsburgh. Less than five percent is produced in that area.

Billy Hulien says:

Pickem Selects Cal Over Oregon and USC to Lose

Billy Hulien.

After last week-end's holocaust, several citizens of this village were heard to remark that they didn't believe I. Pickem, renowed gridiron prognosticator, would have the nerve to make his weekly appearance today. They were almost right, for it was only at the last moment that Mr. Pickem crawled out of his nightmare-infested hideaway and slung his weekly dozen graphs at this space in the paper. He would much rather have remained in hiding, sadly contemplating his piles of impotent dope sheets and dreaming dreams that might have been, but pride in his mighty reputation got the better of his shame, so here he is again.

Without further ado, and shaking in his boots, I. Pickem lets go with the following:

OREGON - CALIFORNIA: Whether California's defeat at the hands of U. S. C. will make the Bears fighting mad or disorganized, only the game can tell, but Pickem thinks the Californians will be too strong for the Webfoots, in either case, Cal, 20, Oregon 7.

ORE. STATE-STANFORD: Those fighting Beavers, with their great line and fast-developing backfield, will knock the block off Stanford's Indians, regardless of Bill Paulman. It may even be something of a rout, OSC 21, Stanford 6.

WASHINGTON STATE-IDAHO: The dope points to the Vandals, but working on the assumption that Babe Hollingbery isn't going to drop every game this year, Pickem names WSC to cop a brutal affair, 7 to 6.

WASHINGTON - S. C.: And here she be. Don't come around crying after the game and say Pickem didn't warn you. The upset, children, sure as shootin', the Trojans will be stymied by the northwest mud and rain and a desperate Husky club that finally tasted victory last week, and wants some more. Washington 13, USC 6.

UCLA-WISCONSIN: This looks like a really terrific battle, with Wisconsin, defender of Northwestern, doing the same to the Bruins, 14 to 12.

MONTANA - MONTANA STATE: Montana's much-defeated team will take another one on the nose here, although it's one of those traditional things in which anything can happen. State to win, 7 to 0.

NOTRE DAME-MINNESOTA: After so many tough games in a row, the Irish are bound to suffer a letdown sooner or later, unless they are another Notre Dame "wonder" team. The Gophers to win, 13 to 7.

PITTSBURGH: The Cornhuskers can't stop Pittsburgh's powerhouse Pitt by three touchdowns.

MICHIGAN - NORTHWESTERN: Pickem sees where some of the astute prognosticators are selecting Michigan 20, Michigan 13.

DUKE-SYRACUSE: Duke's Blue Devils, gunning for a Rose Bowl bid, to sock Syracuse, 14 to 7.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN-TEXAS: The Horned Frogs will continue their drive to the national championship with an easy win over Texas. About 24 to 6.

SANTA CLARA-ST. MARY'S: This looks like the spot where those stampeding Broncos of Santa Clara will be halted. They play Sunday, and the Gaels will grab a thriller, 14 to 13.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

PETE WOULD GRAPPLE EX-LOGGER WITHOUT SERVICE OF REFEREE

There may be a referee in the ring next Monday night when Pete Belcastro clashes with Sockeye Jack McDonald in the main grapple at the Medford armory, and there may not. It all depends on how persuasive Mr. Belcastro, the Weed Mad Italian, can be with members of the Medford boxing commission.

Belcastro, although he burns with the desire to face the big ex-Seattle logger, would much rather there were not a third man inside the squared circle when such occurs. In fact, Pete refused to meet McDonald last week when the local boxing commission decided that, from now on, there would be no more wrestling matches hereabouts in which a referee was not in there with the boys at all times.

After much squabbling and bickering, Pete finally agreed to wrestle McDonald next Monday night, regardless of the necessary referee, but he made it clear to Promoter Mack Lillard that he was going to have a personal and friendly chat with boxing commission members in an attempt to change their minds and get the referee ultimatum rescinded. In case he does, the two bitter enemies of the grappling mat will toss their Sunday punches at each other without benefit of official help or hindrance, as the case may be.

Red Lyons tangles with Frankie Schroll in the middle event, and Bobby Wagner meets Cecil McGill in a rematch in the opener.

Budge Move to Pro Rank Means Goodbye Davis Cup

By Gayle Talbot
NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—(AP)—The Davis cup is a gone gooding with the decision of Donald Budge to take the $75,000 and launch his professional tennis career against Ellsworth Vines here on January 3.

Budge won the big money trophy from the British almost single-handed a year ago, and his mighty play enabled this country to turn back Australia's "fine challenge last August on the moth-eaten courts of the Germantown Cricket Club.

Now the Garish Bowl can be created up and prepared for shipment either to Australia or Germany, depending upon whether Baron Von Cramm, the German ace, is forgiven the mistake that sent him to jail last winter.

If Von Cramm is chosen on the German team, and his months in prison did not break his spirit or rust his game, he and HennesHenkel should be good enough to whip any combination that either Australia or this country can put on the court.

Otherwise, it looks like Australia. When Budge signed the papers, Uncle Sam was left with a prospective

Why have WARDS

Power Grips outsold any other make of extra-traction tire?

ANSWER: They're BEST for Deep Mud, Snow!

Best because they have the one, proved-right design for getting you through the worst roads! Best because those GIANT round knobs tapered from the base pull equally well forward or reverse with maximum resistance to side-slip! Only the knob type tread does that! "Power Grips" make chains unnecessary!

Save the Cost of Chains!

One "Power Grip" User reports: "Our roads become almost impassable. We tried and compared various 'traction' tires. Finally 'Power Grips' solved our problem. They've more than paid for themselves in saving of time and chains!"
