Woodhouse-Haswell Marriage Rites In North Revealed

Coming as a surprise to their many friends here was the marriage on October 31 of Mrs. Harriet O. Woodhouse and Mr. Henry T. Haswell in Vancouver, Washington.

The well-known Medford couple successfully kept their pre-wedding plans shrouded in secrecy when they slipped off to the Washington city and were united in marriage by the Rev. P. L. Kunzman of the English Lutheran church at his home. In attendance were Mrs. Kunzman and Mr. Herbert Frame.

The bride wore an ensemble of navy blue with matching accessories. Immediately after the wedding ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Haswell traveled to South Bend, Indiana, by train, where they purchased a new car. Later they visited in Louisville, Ky., Hutchinson, Kan., and Oklahoma City where they were house guests of Mr. Haswell's relatives. In Denver and other Colorado cities they visited Mrs. Haswell's sisters.

The couple were away a fortnight on their wedding trip and are now residing in this city at 23 Mistletoe street.

Mrs. Haswell has lived in Medford for the past ten years, and has a wide circle of friends here. She is a member of the Craterian Beauty Shop staff.

Mr. Haswell has also lived here for a number of years and is assistant fire chief of the Medford fire department. He has been associated with the fire department for the past 15 years.

Mrs. Phipps to Attend Meetings

Mrs. Dolph Phipps plans to leave tomorrow morning for Portland where she will attend two board meetings.

Mrs. Phipps, as the southern Oregon representative, will attend the state advisory board meeting of the National Youth Administration. She will also attend the University of Oregon Mothers' state board session.

Mrs. Phipps will return to Medford just prior to Thanksgiving day. En route home she will be joined in Eugene by her two daughters, Mignon and Marjorie, who are students at the University and who will spend the holiday at their home here.

Mrs. John Conner Complimented at Bridge Tea Party

Mrs. John S. Conner was honored guest at a bridge tea yesterday afternoon at the E. B. Day ranch in Sams Valley, when her sister-in-law, Mrs. Benjamin Day, was hostess.

Four tables of bridge were in play throughout the afternoon, after which tea was enjoyed.

Mrs. Day's guests included Mesdames Carl Burgeon, William Roberts, S. E. Phillips, Bayard M. Getchell, Harvey Robertson, Roy D. Craft, Charles W. Barnes, Robert Shepherd, William Cunningham, William Bowman and E. C. Westergren and William Robertson of Grants Pass.

Others present at the pleasant party were the Misses Patsy Smith, sister of the honoree, and Barbara Drury. Mrs. Craft received the prize for high bridge score, and the honored guest was presented a handsome gift.

Medford Man Wed In Shelton at October Rites

At Shelton, Wash., on October 20, Mrs. Irene Hocum was wed to Mr. Parker Bundy of Tacoma, a former Medford resident.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hocum of Monroe, Wash. She attended College of Puget Sound and was later an instructor in the Washington Art Institute.

Mr. Bundy is the son of Mrs. Edith Bundy of this city and the late Dr. L. Bundy. He is a graduate of Medford high school and well known in the valley. Mr. Bundy is a brother of Mrs. Benton Newman of this city.

The newly wedded couple will make their home in Tacoma, where Mr. Bundy is associated with the Proctor theatre.

Among those attending the wedding were John Widner of Aberdeen, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Widner of Medford and a long-time friend of the bridegroom.

D.U.V. President On Official Visit Here Recently

On Armistice day Mrs. Ethel Burns of Medford, Oregon department president of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, made her official visit to the local tent.

In the afternoon after the parade in which 20 members participated, the president of the Medford tent, Mrs. Grace Guyer, escorted Mrs. Burns and Miss Ora Cox, national chaplain, on a sight-seeing tour of the valley. During the pleasant trip, the group visited Comrade and Mrs. J. C. Woods of Central Point.

In the evening the members of the organization enjoyed a delightful 6 o'clock dinner at the Hotel Jackson, returning to the armory at 8 o'clock for a regular business session at which time Mrs. Burns, in her gracious manner, addressed the members. She described some of the highlights of the national G. A. R. convention at Des Moines, Ia., after which Mrs. Guyer presented Mrs. Burns with a handsome gift from the tent.

Reception Honors New Grants Pass Episcopal Vicar

An enjoyable evening on Monday was the reception given in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Justin Sargent Edwards, who were welcomed to Grants Pass St. Luke's Episcopal church by a large number of members, their families and friends of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards recently came to Grants Pass from Portland, where he was appointed by Bishop Benjamin D. Dagwell to succeed Rev. H. H. Mitchell, retired.

Receiving were Senior Warden Morris Milbank and Mrs. Milbank, Junior Warden M. E. Treadgold and Mrs. Treadgold, D. C. Bell and Mrs. Bell, president of the Guild, and Rev. and Mrs. Edwards.

The Guild hall was a bower of lovely flowers, chrysanthemums of various shades and sizes filling many baskets and the refreshment tables particularly attractive with pyramids of foliage and berries in a silver bowl while on either side were nests of candles.

Mrs. O. S. Blanchard and Mrs. M. Clemens presided at the coffee urns while Mrs. Bruce Olsen and Mrs. E. N. McKinstry were in charge of the punch bowl. Assisting the general chairman, Mrs. H. C. Cavanagh and Mrs. W. G. Bonney, Mrs. A. S. McQueen, Mrs. LaMar Bell and Mrs. Louisa O'Neil.

BALLET COMPANY ARRIVES FOR GALA OPENING TONIGHT

The San Francisco Opera Ballet company of 30 artists arrived in Medford at 2:00 o'clock today and began immediately to make preparations for their appearance at the Holly theatre tonight under sponsorship of the Southern Oregon Concert Association.

The curtain will rise at 8:15 tonight on what will undoubtedly be the most important concert attraction Medford has seen in many years. The beautiful Holly theatre has been made ready for the affair and everything from the flowers in the foyer to the attractive stage decorations will be in keeping with the brilliance of the occasion.

With the company came Janet Reed, former Medford girl, who will appear as prima ballerina. "I am thrilled at the opportunity to appear before my old friends," she said. "I know you will enjoy the ballets which Mr. William Christensen, our choreographer, has programmed for tonight."

Zoe Del Lantis, Medford's "Pirate Girl" with the San Francisco exposition, described as the "most photographed girl in the world," was brought to Medford by special arrangement and will dance with the company tonight. Noted more for her dancing specialties than as a ballet artist, Miss Lantis is nevertheless a fine ballet dancer, and will be making her debut in this medium tonight.

"I have been looking forward to Medford for weeks," said Miss Lantis. "This is my first appearance in concert work and I can't tell you what a lot of fun it is to come back here with the opera group."

From Christensen, ballet director and choreographer, came words of praise for the Medford girls who have made such a name for themselves in the world of dance.

"You are all familiar with Miss Lantis' success as theme girl for the exposition," he said. "She is a brilliant dancer and I have been pleased to make a place for her in the ballet for Medford tonight. I'm sorry she will be unable to continue north with us for appearances in Portland, Seattle and Victoria, B. C., but she must be back in San Francisco for other engagements this weekend."

"In Miss Reed, you will see a young lady who is to become one of the truly great personages in dance. She is not only 'tops' as a classic dancer, but she has an unusual comedy sense, as you will see. I am proud to have had a part in her development and I know you will love her."

Two grand pianos have been tuned together and moved into the pit for the duo pianists, Leo Yergano and Marya Smith, who will accompany the ballet. Both are concert artists and the music alone will be thrilling, according to Franklin Smith, company manager.

The sale of memberships in the Southern Oregon Concert Association, which is sponsoring the ballet as one of a series of three concerts, has been booming the past few weeks. Tickets are still available, however, and may be obtained by calling the concert headquarters at Pruitt's, phone 22, or at the box office.

DANCE AND BOX SOCIAL REESE CREEK SATURDAY

ELK CREEK, Nov. 16.—(Spl.)—P.T.A. of Elk Creek school will give a dance and box social at the Elk Creek social hall Saturday, November 19. The regular admission will be charged, and the same orchestra will play. Ladies are asked to bring baskets to be auctioned off during the evening, the proceeds to go to the Elk Creek school lunch fund.

The social hall is being donated to the P.T.A. for the occasion.

PORTLAND, Nov. 16.—(AP)—Mrs. J. A. Turner, 35, died today of burns received when her clothing, soaked with an inflammable fluid, caught fire last night.

Mayor Furnas Heads Welcome to S. F. Ballet

In an informal letter today, Mayor C. C. Furnas, of Medford, welcomes the members of the San Francisco Opera Ballet to Medford, and urges everyone in the community to join in making their visit here a pleasant one.

Mayor Furnas' letter follows: "As Mayor of Medford, I am pleased to take this informal manner of welcoming, through the Mail-Tribune, the members of the San Francisco Opera Ballet to this community."

"The appearance here of the ballet company is an important event in the cultural and entertainment life of Medford, and the Southern Oregon Concert Association is to be commended for its splendid work in bringing this and other outstanding attractions to this city."

"Medford is proud of its two daughters, Janet Reed and Zoe Del Lantis, who play such prominent parts in the ballet's appearance. Medford has always been a leader in the cultural and artistic life of the state, and we are always happy when young people who have received their start here, develop into figures of national prominence and add their contributions to the worth-while things for which America is noted."

"I offer no key to the city, for our doors of hospitality are never locked. We hope the entire company of artists will long remember Medford for its cordial welcome and its heartfelt appreciation for the opportunity we have to enjoy this splendid entertainment."

Medic Attempted Horrible Torture Is State's Claim

Dr. Berry began by telling us he and his wife held a July Fourth party at Mud Bay and he had to come into Olympia for some night work at the hospital, Harridge said. "His wife arranged to stay at the party and was to drive in later with some friends."

The friends finally decided to remain all night, and a "garageman and car dealer" volunteered at about 3 a. m., Harridge quoted the doctor as saying.

Dr. Berry then told us his wife said the dealer, on the ride, started in to "make advances, mauled her around, tore her slacks and underwear off, bruised her and finally raped her," Harridge testified.

"The doctor said his wife related the advances. He said she told him about it in explanation of her disturbed condition on her arrival at Olympia."

Harridge said he gained the impression Mrs. Berry had not told her husband for several days.

The witness then testified that Dr. Berry "wanted us to help him take the car dealer out and beat him up."

"We were supposed to get him out and tie him up and Dr. Berry would do the beating."
