

Nicholson's Place Kick Gives Oregon 3 to 0 Win Over Washington

REVIVED WEBFEET OUTPLAY HUSKIES IN CLOSE BATTLE

Oregon Threatens Touchdown Near Games End—Washington Air Attack Flops.

MULTNOMAH FIELD, Portland, Ore., Nov. 19.—(AP)—The Oregon Ducks, lost a month ago among four major defeats along the football flyway, turned up rejuvenated today to the 3 to 0 embarrassment of what everyone thought was a reconditioned Washington Husky.

Oregon, recapturing some of the promise it possessed in early, bright October, won incomprehensibly, considering records. The team that lost successively by large scores to Stanford, Fordham, Southern California and California, scientifically with the shoe leather of Halfback Jim Nicholson, scored on Washington before 20,000 persons shivering in a semi-fog at the northwest's most historic interstate class.

It was a strange comparison for those who dared to attempt one. Two weeks ago on this field the Trojans, exploded the Webfoots, 31 to 7. A week ago Washington, rising from the depths of conference failures, cracked Southern California, 7 to 6. Nicholson, called to the colors as a second period reserve, lighted the fuse which shot Oregon from its own 23-yard line to the Washington four where he kicked a field goal from placement. His pass to Dennis Donovan, quarterback, was good for 33 yards. Nicholson snugged a pass from Bob Smith, halfback, and then with Marshall Stenstrom churned through the husky forwards into position for the decisive kick.

Washington presented considerable mid-field power in the first half but fought out from behind its goal line for the third and fourth periods. Its passing attack was futile. The Huskies threw eight passes, completed one and Oregon intercepted four.

Washington students in sort of a "reverse celebration" tore down the Oregon goal posts in a near-riot lasting long after the players had left the field. Police broke it up.

Oregon threatened with a touchdown early in the fourth period when Jim Cadenas, center, recovered Dean Adams' fumble on the Washington 37. Stenstrom and Nicholson drove to a first down on the 15 and rushed to the six before the Huskies stopped the attack on downs.

The Webfoots, forced Washington to boot from behind the goal four times in the third and fourth periods, made nine first downs to Washington's four and rolled to 142 yards from scrimmage against 96.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 19.—(AP)—A heavily favored Harvard football team that had been generally outplayed for three periods clocked for one relentless 80-yard scoring drive in the final quarter today to beat Yale, 7-0, and light the crimson flares of victory in the Yale bowl for the first time since 1930.

For better than three-fourths of this ball game, witnessed by a crowd of 62,000 that first sat through a drizzle and then through a downpour, the Crimson's complex backfield maneuvers were short-circuited effectively by a combination of the weather and a savage Yale defense.

Frank Foley, chief feature in Harvard's 13-0 triumph a year ago, shot the touchdown pass into the end zone to Torbie MacDonald, who grabbed the ball out of the clutching arms of Eddie Collins, Jr., Yale's defensive left halfback.

That, plus Chief Boston's placement for the extra point kicked just as the rain was at its worst, was the ball game. As such, it marked the successful end to a Harvard season that began with four straight defeats and finished with four straight victories that took in Princeton, other members of the Big Three.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Notre Dame, Texas Christian, Duke and Oklahoma, all undefeated and untested, maintained their claim to national football championship recognition along with Pittsburgh today as three major sectional titles definitely were decided.

Texas Christian, with Davey O'Brien scoring one touchdown and passing for three more, handed Rice a terrific lacing, 29-7, but Notre Dame, Duke and Oklahoma all had their hands full before they could win.

Notre Dame had to use the field goal route to stop Northwestern's powerful Wildcats, 9-7, Hofer booting a placement from the 20-yard line in the third period to overcome a 7-6 Northwestern lead. Duke, only major team in the country with an uncrossed goal line, had to repel a North Carolina State thrust which reached Duke's seven-yard line and then pushed over one touchdown for a 7-0 victory.

Duke's victory carried with it the Southern conference championship while Oklahoma clinched the Big Six crown by stopping Iowa State, previously unbeaten, 10-0, in a grueling battle.

Pittsburgh, still among the nation's leaders despite the setback by Carnegie Tech, found inspiration in the return to duty of Marshall (Biggie) Goldberg and crushed Penn State, 26-0, as Dick Casanola raced to three touchdowns.

Pitt and Duke will clash at Durham, N. C., next Saturday. On the same day, Texas Christian, heading toward the Southwest conference crown, will meet its sternest test against Southern Methodist's Mustangs who trounced Baylor today, 21-6.

Army packed too much all-around strength for Princeton and earned a 19-7 victory. Although outplayed, Syracuse hung on just long enough to halt Columbia's unlucky Lions, 13-12.

Georgetown, undefeated and untied, was hard put to top Maryland, 14-7. Villanova, another undefeated eastern army which has been tied once, crushed Boston University, 39-0.

Manhattan took advantage of the break to whip West Virginia, 13-0, while Fordham tamed South Carolina's Gamecocks by the same score. Lafayette and Lehigh renewed their ancient rivalry and the former emerged victor, 6-0.

Purdue and Illinois won the other Big Ten games, the former halting Indiana 13-8, as Illinois mopped up Chicago, 34-0. Iowa closed a disaster season by absorbing a 14-0 beating from Nebraska.

Michigan State, with Johnny Pincel starting as usual, shut out Pop Warner's Temple Owls, 10-0, while Detroit buried Tulsa, 39-14. Missouri smothered St. Louis, 26-0, as Kansas State ran up a 41-14 count on Washburn.

It was a comparatively quiet day in the south as most leaders, including Tennessee, rested before Thanksgiving day tests. Florida surprised, however, by holding Georgia Tech to a scoreless tie. Auburn ran over Georgia, 23-14, after a slow start. Tulane romped at Sewanee's expense, 38-0.

Utah moved one step closer to the Rocky Mountain crown by routing Wyoming, 39-0.

Texas Tech kept its unbeaten streak intact with a 17-7 conquest of New Mexico.

DURHAM, N. A crowd of 11,000 fans witnessed the game.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Notre Dame, Texas Christian, Duke and Oklahoma, all undefeated and untested, maintained their claim to national football championship recognition along with Pittsburgh today as three major sectional titles definitely were decided.

Texas Christian, with Davey O'Brien scoring one touchdown and passing for three more, handed Rice a terrific lacing, 29-7, but Notre Dame, Duke and Oklahoma all had their hands full before they could win.

Notre Dame had to use the field goal route to stop Northwestern's powerful Wildcats, 9-7, Hofer booting a placement from the 20-yard line in the third period to overcome a 7-6 Northwestern lead. Duke, only major team in the country with an uncrossed goal line, had to repel a North Carolina State thrust which reached Duke's seven-yard line and then pushed over one touchdown for a 7-0 victory.

Duke's victory carried with it the Southern conference championship while Oklahoma clinched the Big Six crown by stopping Iowa State, previously unbeaten, 10-0, in a grueling battle.

Pittsburgh, still among the nation's leaders despite the setback by Carnegie Tech, found inspiration in the return to duty of Marshall (Biggie) Goldberg and crushed Penn State, 26-0, as Dick Casanola raced to three touchdowns.

Pitt and Duke will clash at Durham, N. C., next Saturday. On the same day, Texas Christian, heading toward the Southwest conference crown, will meet its sternest test against Southern Methodist's Mustangs who trounced Baylor today, 21-6.

Army packed too much all-around strength for Princeton and earned a 19-7 victory. Although outplayed, Syracuse hung on just long enough to halt Columbia's unlucky Lions, 13-12.

Georgetown, undefeated and untied, was hard put to top Maryland, 14-7. Villanova, another undefeated eastern army which has been tied once, crushed Boston University, 39-0.

Manhattan took advantage of the break to whip West Virginia, 13-0, while Fordham tamed South Carolina's Gamecocks by the same score. Lafayette and Lehigh renewed their ancient rivalry and the former emerged victor, 6-0.
