PROVOLT, Nov. 24-(Spl.)-George Kincaid of Williams and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lewman and children, Alta and Floyd, motored to Holland, Ore., and on to the Oregon caves Sunday. It was Mrs. Lewman's first trip to Holland in 26 years. The day was spent in renewing old acquaintances with friends of Mrs. Lewman when she worked at the Holland hotel 26 years ago. At Kerby, she called on Mrs. Clara McGill, who operates the Log Cabin Lunch. Mrs.
Lewman worked for Mrs. McGill at the Holland hotel. At the Oregon caves was found about three inches of snow, icicles at least one foot long were hanging from the eaves of the Oregon Caves chalet. It is one of Oregon's most beautiful scenic spots.

A large crowd attended the show at Provolt Monday evening. A posture of Will Rogers travels over Europe, "Flying High Over Europe," was shown. The main feature, "The Lucky Texan," was especially enjoyed by the crowd. It was explained that the picture "Flying High Over Europe" was being made but was not shown to schools, etc. but was not completed because of the death of Will Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carl spent a few days last week visiting relatives in Coquille.

Mrs. Jesse Treloar and son, Harry, left for Butte, Mont., Monday night.
Lester and George Fields are cutting wood on Thompson creek this week.

Terry Roberts is the proud owner of a new guitar. He is a talented musician and is planning on playing at the dances at Provolt.

Roy Williams, who has been in the Railroad hospital at San Francisco, returned home last week.

Alta Lewman attended the amateur hour at Williams Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carl were visiting at the Bell York home at Missouri Flat Sunday.

June Provolt, who has been attending beauty school in Portland,
returned home last week.

Norval Carl returned home from Bonanza Tuesday.

All are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bennett to the community. They have traded for the Carl Franzen ranch.

EVERYONE is looking forward with eager anticipation to the big annual carnival to be held in the basement of the Grange hall on the night of December 3. Beginning in the early evening there will be fun every minute for everybody.

The big country store will be a main attraction. Here every variety of food may be had at unheard of bargains. Staple groceries, vegetables, fruits and meats direct from the farm to you. Chickens, turkeys, geese, ducks, chickens and pigs, dressed and undressed, will be among the bargains offered.

A fancywork booth where many lovely articles of fine fancywork which have been made by the ladies of the Grange will draw the attention of those interested in getting beautiful Christmas presents for friends at a low price.

Sandy and refreshment booths will take care of your needs along that line.

Other feature will be a nigger baby shooting gallery and various varieties of amusement are provided.

Band music will be played throughout the evening.

Everyone interested in an evening of fun and frolic, in bargains in foodstuffs or in an assortment of fine Christmas presents, please wait for the carnival at the Eagle Point Grange hall and do your buying there.

EVERYONE is invited.
