W.C.T.U. Enjoys Recent Program

Women's Christian Temperance Union met last week at the home of Mrs. Eva Younger on North Central avenue with an attendance of 39 members and friends.

The topic for discussion was "Temperance in the Sunday School." P. J. Newman, superintendent of the First M. E. Sunday school stated that it is the responsibility of church leaders to see that the young persons have temperance training.

Other speakers told of the work being done in their Sunday schools and the methods used. Mrs. Bell Littrell represented the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Minnie Crisp, the Christian church, Mrs. M. Russell, the Brethren; Mrs. Anna Snyder, the Pilgrim Holiness; Mrs. Minnie Bryant, the Baptist, and Mrs. Ina Renker, the Nazarene.

Miss Mary Anne Gates, accompanied by Miss Onice Eitenburg, sang two solos, "Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life" and "In the Garden." Mrs. Daisy Douglas was devotional leader and discussed selections from the Book of Daniel, Mrs. W. T. Berry, who recently spent several months in Hayward, Calif., was welcomed back into the organization.

Refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

The Christmas season will be held in the Presbyterian church parlors at which time gifts will be received for the children's farm home.

HARROWING HOURS IN MUD TRAP TOLD BY RESCUED MAN

Hunters Find Him With Only Head and Shoulders Above Bog—Was Taking Short Cut Through Bog

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—(UP)—A 47-year-old WPA worker told from his hospital bed last night of being trapped for 16 harrowing hours with only his head and shoulders protruding from a treacherous swamp-land mud, which gradually was sucking him down.

Three young hunters walking along the banks of the old Illinois-Michigan canal heard the feeble cries of Mike Diglio and traced them to a bog at the edge of the canal.

Edward Novak, 16, and Veto Radnie, 15, immediately began frantic efforts to release the trapped man, while Russell Novak, 15, ran to summon help.

Deputy Sheriff Harold Pandey and Tony Kirinich helped them pull Diglio from the freezing mud to dry land. An ambulance was summoned, a fire built and the mud-stiffened garments stripped from him.

At the hospital where he received treatment for exposure, Diglio said he was taking a short cut on his way home from work Wednesday.

"I cut through the swamp," he said, "and I was almost to hard ground when my feet began to break through the mud."

"It was up to my ankles first," and then in a couple of steps I was up to my knees. I kept struggling, but the harder I tried to get out, the deeper I sank."

When help reached him the mud almost had reached his chin. Physicians who examined him said he would be able to leave the hospital in a few days. A nurse gave him a belated Thanksgiving day turkey dinner.

COUNTY TAX LEVY SLIGHTLY LOWER THAN LAST YEAR

The state and county tax levy for Jackson county this year, will be from 1.3 mills to 1.4 mills lower than last year, County Assessor J. B. Coleman said today.

The county budget committee met today for final certification of the budget, which calls for the raising of $382,590.66 by tax levy. The budget was scheduled to be adopted as advertised.

At the public hearing last Tuesday, Justice of the Peace W. R. Coleman asked for an additional $300 to pay for clerk hire for the year in his office. It is one of the matters to be considered by the budget committee today.

The budget, insofar as county offices are concerned, is about the same as last year, with a few minor increases.

The meeting today was scheduled for next Monday, Henry G. Enders, Assessor, was present at the public hearing, due to absence in California. As he will be called away again this week end, the meeting was held today.

When formally certified and signed by all members of the budget committee, the budget will be turned over to the assessor for extension on the tax rolls.

RIVAL OF JIMMY LOSES IN FIGHT OVER INSURANCE

Auditor Finds Arthur D. Cronin Not Entitled to Share Commission On Big Policy With Roosevelt Son

BOSTON, Nov. 25.—(AP)—In a legal battle over the commission on an $850,000 insurance policy in which James Roosevelt shared, a court-appointed auditor today found a rival insurance broker was "not entitled to recover" in his suit against one of Boston's biggest banks.

Completing a five months' study of the evidence, Auditor F. Delano Putnam filed the final draft of his report in superior court.

He handed Arthur D. Cronin the initial setback in his attempt to obtain $31,750, plus interest, which he claimed was due him despite the action of the National Shawmut bank in giving the lucrative policy to another insurance firm with which the president's eldest son was connected.

James Roosevelt recently replied in a magazine article to assertions he had obtained large insurance accounts because of his prominence as a member of the nation's first family.

The auditor found "one of the principal reasons" why the bank did not accept the insurance proposal offered by Cronin was the "close personal friendship" of a vice president of the bank "for James Roosevelt."

Putnam emphasized the bank's decision to "see to it" Roosevelt shared in the commission was made "with no hope or expectation of favor to the defendant (Roosevelt's) father having in 1933 become president of the United States" and with no thought of repaying Roosevelt and Sargent for past favors done by them for the defendant.

In reviewing the background of the case, Putnam reported the president's son and John A. Sargent, both Harvard graduates, had formed an insurance partnership named Roosevelt and Sargent in 1931.

WOMEN, CHILDREN EVACUATED FROM FOOTHILL HOMES

Creteville by way of a back road into the Mohave desert. Crestline numbers about 400 all-year residents.

The San Bernardino fire, reported to be wholly out of control, places in jeopardy the highly-developed Crest forest district and its 4000 cabins, residences, stores and hotels.

Fanned by a high wind, the flames jumped fire lines established along a high gear state highway.

Charles M. Plummer, chief dispatcher for the U. S. forest service at San Bernardino, describing the situation as "extremely serious," said men had been stationed throughout the endangered area to "assist in evacuation if that becomes necessary."

In Recreation Area Crest forest, comprising a dozen communities, and homebought by twisting roads lined with homes, is a major center of a recreational area which in recent years has been visited by 2,000,000 persons annually.

All available men, many of whom had assisted in partially controlling the fire on two lower fronts, were rushed into the district, under direction of federal supervisors and rangers who flew to San Bernardino from all parts of the state. Early this morning, recruiting of 200 lighters began in the valley cities of San Bernardino and Colton.

Fifteen fire trucks, all that could be spared from other sectors of the blaze which already has destroyed the $750,000 Arrowhead Springs hotel, were in the area, Plummer said, adding the present direction of the wind was carrying the flames away from Lake Arrowhead and other resorts to the east.

The two main highways leading up from the valley were ordered closed and only entrance to the area was by a circuitous route through the Mojave desert on the north side of the range.

Coaches Get Together BELLAIRES, O.—(UP)—Twenty-five Ohio valley football coaches—enough to comprise two good football teams—attended a stag dinner given in their honor by a local country club.

Lineman Meets Issue RHEIN, Sask.—(UP)—Dave Graf, telephone lineman, had to fight to do his work. He was instructed to remove a number of rural telephones because of unpaid bills. Five hard-core farmers fought him on the issue.

PORTLAND TRADE TAKES UPSWING

GERTRUDE E. DAY TAKEN BY DEATH

Gertrude Eina Day, 52, a resident of Medford for the past six years, at 917 W. 11th street, passed away at a local hospital at 3:30 p. m. Thursday, after a short illness.

Mrs. Day was born near Port Wayne, Indiana, Feb. 6, 1886. She leaves besides her husband, John W. Day, one daughter, Miss Dorothy McArthur of San Francisco, Calif., and one brother, H. C. Myers of Pocatello, Idaho.

Funeral services will be held at Pocatello, Idaho, next Monday afternoon. Remains will be forwarded this evening by the Perle Funeral Home.

SHERIFF TREATS COUNTY BOARDERS

Through the generosity of Sheriff Syd I. Brown, 14 inmates of the county jail enjoyed a full-course Thanksgiving turkey dinner yesterday.

The dinner recalled the first Thanksgiving by the Pilgrim fathers as five of the prisoners were Indians. While the big-hearted sheriff would make no comment, it was understood he made up the difference between the cost of the regular jail menu and the Thanksgiving feast so that the prisoners might have something to be thankful for.
