Ethel Chord to Wed Mr. Luman In Near Future

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford J. Chord of this city announce the engagement of their only daughter, Ethel Marie Chord to William Luman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Luman.

The betrothed couple will wed in the near future. Miss Chord and Mr. Luman are both graduates of Medford high school and have resided in this city for a number of years where they have been prominent members of the younger social set.

Plantation Program Enjoyed by Nevita Chapter O. E. S.

Nevita chapter No. 93 O. E. S. of Central Point met for the regular meeting Tuesday evening, November 22 in the Masonic hall. At the close of the chapter meeting a group of "colored gentlemen" entered the room singing plantation melodies. Very soon "Joe", an old decrepit darkey, leaning heavily upon his gnarled and twisted cane, made his way to the stage singing "Old Black Joy." The minstrel show which followed was very cleverly arranged and presented. The interlocutor seemed to pry very deeply into the lives of his companions adding much fun to the situation. Sambo quite "requested" with the inquisitiveness of Mr. Interlocutor got revenge by leaving him to hold his fishing pole while he pretended to get something, but in reality sat down and laughed at his helper.

The men of the chapter were responsible for the very entertaining program and the refreshments that followed. Harold Head was in complete charge of arrangements. Those taking part in the program were: Interlocutor, Harold Head, assisted by Ed. Vincent, M. J. Swing, Hensley Holt, L. C. Scott, E. P. Stone and Everett Faber.

Barbara Holt Receives Honor

Word received in Medford from the University of Oregon campus in Eugene tells of the pledging of Miss Barbara Richmond Holt to Phi Kappa Phi, national music honorary. Miss Holt is one of two undergraduates to receive a bid to this society. She is also a member of Phi Beta, national music and drama honorary.

Miss Holt is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William P. Holt of this city. She was pledged to Phi Kappa Phi at a reception in Eugene Tuesday evening after the University of Oregon symphony concert.

Stockwell Children Honored at Party

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stockwell entertained Friday afternoon at a birthday party at their home in Phoenix. The occasion celebrated the birthdays of their two children, Geraldine, age 3, and Lyle, age 4.

Little guests present at the party included: Eleanor and Max Lindley, Neils Cannon, Joy Finch, Kay and Shirley Dudley, Nanette Purry, Larry Quackenbush and the small sister of the honorees, Carol Stockwell.

Mrs. Hazel Lundgrah, grandmother of Geraldine and Lyle, assisted at the party. The youngsters received many birthday gifts and two large cakes were enjoyed.

Stewards Hosts to House Guests Over Thanksgiving

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Steward had as their house guests at their home on number 1 Eastwood drive over the Thanksgiving Day holiday, Dr. and Mrs. O. R. Chambers and daughter and son, Betty and Neal of Corvallis.

On Thursday the stewards were hosts for dinner honoring the group and Friday afternoon, Mrs. Steward entertained with a party at which Miss Betty was the guest of honor.

Guests invited to meet the visitor included the following members of the younger set here and those visiting their homes from schools: Jean Schuler, Julie Carpenter, Pat Dippel, Lois Pringle, Pat Farrell, Polly Scherer, Jean McPherson, Nanette Rosenberg, Colista Farrell, and Rosalie Roberts.

Miss Betty is a freshman at University of Oregon in Eugene and her father, Dr. Chambers is dean of the psychology department at Oregon State college in Corvallis.

Dr. and Mrs. Chambers and the Stewards, prior to their marriages, were all schoolmates at Indiana university and have been friends for many years.

The northerners left for their home yesterday morning.

Benefit Recital In Masonic Temple Thursday Evening

The Eastern Star Social club will present in a benefit recital Thursday evening, December 1, Mr. George Maddox, well known tenor, in the Masonic temple at 8 o'clock.

Also to appear on the recital program will be Allen Crawford Maddox, pianist, and Hans Hoerlein, who will present a group of piano selections with Mr. Maddox singing.

The public is invited to attend this outstanding performance and tickets may be procured from Mrs. Hattie Alden at 20 South Orange street, phone 847-X or from Kild's shoe store.

All of the artists appearing on the program are accomplished musicians and their performances are always a treat to valley residents.

Bride Party Is Monday Affair

An enjoyable affair of Monday evening was the bride party that Miss Helen McAllister had at her home on North Peach street.

Guests present were Mesdames John Elson, Wiley Phares, J. E. McAllister, Lawrence Espay, Paul Newcomb, Eddie Barnes, Archie Stewart, Fred Woolridge and Maude Wenzel, and the Misses Helen McDonnell, Chloe Elson and Elsie Oliver.

Refreshments were enjoyed later in the evening and recipients of bridge prizes were Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Wenzel.

Portlanders Guests at Hon Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hon had as house guests at their Crater Lake avenue home over Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Rose Wymore of Portland.

On Thursday the Hons entertained the following guests at a pleasant dinner party: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Cobb and Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Heckman.

The Wymores left Medford for the coast where they were to visit Mr. Wymore's brother.

Starlets Display Latest In Millinery

A nest of green felt with a cluster of white-colored flowers is adapted from the period of Marie Antoinette, and worn by Lana Turner.

Ann Rutherford wears an adaptation of the tam in black velvet with blue feather detail perching precariously forward, and held on with a black velvet head-band and bow.

Family Reunion Held at Davis Home In Phoenix

At a family reunion held at their new home, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Davis entertained a group of relatives with a Thanksgiving dinner.

Following dinner the entire group attended the Ashland-Medford football game.

Mrs. Wilson visited friends in Portland and Vancouver and spent some time in other Oregon and Washington cities during the trip.

Medford Girl Is Feted at Dinner

Miss Mary Cummings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cummings, of 10 Laurel street, was honor guest at a birthday dinner given at Maryhurst college Monday evening. Miss Cummings is a Maryhurst freshman.

Other pre-holiday affairs at the college included a dramatic presentation and a formal dance.

Beach Home Scene of D.A.R. Session Saturday Afternoon

Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. R. G. Beach on Saturday, November 19, for their regular monthly meeting. Members enjoyed a special treat in hearing Miss Betty Jane Johnson play "Scherzo" by Mendelssohn and "Tapping at the Window" as an encore.

Mrs. Sherman Divine read a most interesting paper on Mary Morris, wife of the financier of the American Revolution. Mrs. Divine is a former member of Mary Morris chapter of Washington and her paper well portrays the fine character of this lady of colonial days.

Several guests were present and introduced, among them were Mrs. Ray Willey, a member of Quivera chapter of Fairbury, Neb., Mrs. Chas. Johnson, and Mrs. A. F. Burke of Whitewater, Cal.

The regent, Mrs. Bert Lowry, announced the gift of a chair to Kate Duncan Smith school in Alabama. The gift was made by Mrs. H. E. Armstrong, past regent of Crater Lake chapter. Mrs. E. H. Hurd also contributed a chair to the school.

Mrs. A. E. Stratton and her twin sister, Mrs. A. F. Burke, made a lovely picture as they presided at the tea table. Mrs. Beach, the hostess, was assisted by Mrs. J. H. Cochran, Mrs. A. C. Stratton and Mrs. S. S. Smith.

Group Motors To Eugene

Gilstrap Home Will Be Scene of Tea Wednesday

The Ernest R. Gilstrap home on 35 Geneva street will be the scene of a tea Wednesday afternoon for persons who will sell Christmas seals in booths throughout the city. The annual drive of the Jackson County Public Health association for sale of Christmas seals was formally opened Thursday.

Invitations have been issued for the hour of 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock for the tea and all persons planning to sell seals through the booths are expected to attend.

A member of the board of the health association, the seal sale chairman and the booth chairman will speak during the afternoon.

Phipps Vacation In This City

Mr. and Mrs. William E. (Estill) Phipps of McMinnville are spending the Thanksgiving Day holiday in Medford at the home of Mr. Phipps' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Phipps on Niantic street.

Mr. Phipps, a former Medford resident, is associated with the Telephone Register newspaper in McMinnville. The couple plan to leave for their home in the north today.

Luncheon Enjoyed at Ray Residence

Mrs. B. L. Ray was hostess recently at her home on Oak Grove drive for a delightful luncheon.

Guests included Mrs. C. M. Hon, Mrs. Jack Hemstreet and Mrs. E. E. Ends. During the afternoon, many other guests called informally at the Ray home.

Yellow chrysanthemums were about the rooms and the table was centered with yellow chrysanthemums in a crystal vase on a mirror.

Marcella Jones Thursday Bride of Mr. Troyanek

On Thursday at a 9:30 o'clock ceremony at the home of her mother, Mrs. Laura Jones of 543 South Ivy street, Miss Marcella Jones became the bride of John Frederick Troyanek, Jr.

The bride was attractive in her mother's wedding gown of white wool challis made on princess style. Her all white bouquet was composed of carnations and chrysanthemums. Miss Winifred Jones was her sister's bridesmaid. She wore a frock of pink net over satin and a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

John Smith acted as best man for Mr. Troyanek. Rev. W. E. Stram of the Church of Christ united the couple in marriage before an improvised fireplace altar decorated with varied shades of chrysanthemums. Candles were lighted on the mantel.

Miss Mde Bottom played the wedding march.

The bride, daughter of the late Sam L. Jones, was born and raised in this valley and graduated from the Jacksonville high school.

Mr. Troyanek is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Troyanek of Chattanooga, Tenn. He received his schooling in that city and later attended the state university at Knoxville, Tenn.

A reception followed the wedding at the Jones home after which 17 guests including the immediate family and friends enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner.

The couple will make their home here at 16 Middleton street. Among out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pence and the Misses Winifred and Thelma Jones of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Pence and the Misses Jones are sisters of the bride.
