

Pete Lusts for Revenge in Tonight's Rematch With Joplin Ghost

ITALIAN MEANIE WOULD WIPE OUT FLUKY DEFEAT

Ladies Night Expected to Swell Soprano Chorus — Sookeye and Britt to Grapple in Middle Match

It will be Ladies' Night at the Medford armory this evening when Promoter Mack Lillard unfolds his weekly wrestling program. This means that the big-hearted promoter will let any ticket purchaser, man or woman, take in a woman companion without additional cost.

It also means that the armory is likely to be packed with screaming, screaming women fans, for the girls seem to have a special penchant for wrestling. Next to a good bargain, they like grasping, beat, and tonight they will get both at the same time.

Both Disliked
The ladies will have plenty to shout about in tonight's offerings. In the main event they can open their lungs wide in denunciation of both gladiators, for no one likes either Pete Belastro or Red Lyons, though in a pinch the Mad Italian is usually accorded a little cheering.

Despite his unorthodox tactics, there is something about him that the fans like, especially when he is pitted against another dirty grappler. So far as Lyons is concerned, however, there is no sympathy at all. If Pete can tear the Joplin Ghost to pieces, the audience will be for him. And Pete vows he will do just that. His loss to Lyons last week has rankled Pete and he is out for revenge. If he really gets going, the bout is liable to develop into a free-for-all with Referee Earl Yockley on the free end of the receiving.

A real woman's favorite is in the middle event. He is the big, virile ex-lagger, Sookeye Jack McDonald. The ladies like him because he is a scowling roughneck. His opponent, Floyd Britt, is popular with both sexes because of his clean, fast wrestling.

Two idols will open the card and will probably produce the best straight, out-and-out grappling of the evening. They are the popular Cecil McGill and Frankie Schroll.

Schroll, McGill Clean
Both Schroll and McGill have a big bag of wrestling holds and will probably bring them all into play tonight. Each has a pay-off maneuver which he holds in reserve for use when everything else fails. McGill depends on his long, swift legs and their powerful dropkicks. Schroll puts his faith in his unique crocodile clutch. The clutch usually leaves the victim helpless.

The program opens as usual at 8:30. The first two matches will be under the Australian system of six ten-minute rounds and two out of three falls. The main event will be staged under the American system of an hour of wrestling, two falls out of three.

PRODUCER'S SON KILLED IN RACE

OAKLAND, Cal., Nov. 28.—(AP)—Wealthy, youthful Richard Ince of Hollywood, son of a pioneer film producer, promised to give up the roaring thrills of a motorcycle racer's life, but death—from injuries in a motorcycle race—kept him today from keeping his promise.

Ince, 25, was injured fatally yesterday before the eyes of his 19-year-old wife, the former Barbara Ann Butler of Kansas City, Mo., and his elder brother, Thomas.

Young Ince's motorcycle brushed another machine as he roared around the Oakland speedway in ninth place on the first lap of the 200-mile Pacific coast motorcycle championship race. This caused him to skid into the path of still another vehicle.

Ince lost control of his mount and crashed, head-first, into a side fence. His head and chest were crushed and he died several hours later.

LOYOLA DEFEATS GONZAGA, 20-19

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Loyola's football squad tucked away its uniforms for the season today but continued to celebrate the 20-19 victory in the final game yesterday over the Gonzaga Bulldogs.

Coach Tom Lies also turned in his grid togs, this time for good at Loyola. He resigned his coaching position last week after nine years with the Lions.

The Lions scored first after blocking a punt, and refused to stay behind when Gonzaga came back with two touchdowns—the first on a 103-yard runback of a kickoff by Tony Canedo, the gray-ghost of the Gonzaga backfield.

The Spokane Clippers returned to the Pacific Coast Hockey league campaign last night after a week's lay-off due to financial difficulties but they could not stop the rampaging Portland Buckaroos who won their ninth game by a score of 3 to 1.

Drop-Kicking Grappler

Cecil McGill (above) and Frankie Schroll will provide the legitimate, scientific wrestling on tonight's weekly card at the armory. McGill is quick as a flash in throwing his educated legs into devastating drop-kicks whenever his other stock of maneuvers fails to produce results.

I. Pickem Welcomed Back After Understudies Flop

Mr. I. Pickem came out of hiding today and immediately went into rigid training to prepare himself for predicting the winners in the annual grid classics in the various sports.

It is a good thing Mr. Pickem got back on the job, for his three understudies were something more than a flop in prognosticating last Saturday's games. They had only six winners and one tie out of ten games diagnosed for a 927 average. Even that, however, was better than the expert Mr. Pickem's seasonal average of 662 up to the time he disappeared two weeks ago.

Mr. Pickem's understudies, however, failed to live up to the reputation they established the previous week when they picked 12 out of 13 winners for a 923 percentage.

In Saturday's prognostications the three understudies were right on Oregon-Oregon State, Washington-Washington State, Stanford-Dartmouth, Fordham-New York University, Texas Christian-Southern Methodist and Army-Navy. They were wrong on Pittsburgh-Duke, Rice-Baylor and Tulane-Louisiana State.

Georgia-Georgia Tech played a tie and ties don't count in Mr. Pickem's method of scoring.

After two weeks of severe strain in picking the winners, the understudies are all worn out. They welcome Mr. Pickem's return most heartily.

BOWLING

OLD MAN PIGSKIN MAKES EXIT WITH GAMES THIS WEEK

Notre Dame, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Texas Tech to Take Curtain Calls Before Show Finally Ends

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.
NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Old Man Pigskin, co-starred with Miss Upset in the 1938 football drama, takes a couple of curtain calls this week although the play itself ended with last Saturday's climactic scene.

The curtain dropped on a cast that had only eight important members whose performances throughout the two-months' show was perfect. Duke and Tennessee of the south, Georgetown of the east, Notre Dame and Oklahoma of the mid west and Texas Christian of the southwest were the principal actors who suffered neither a defeat nor a tie. In the main supporting roles were Western Reserve and Texas Tech, both with perfect records. Villanova was tied once but unbeaten.

Ten Minor Stars
Ten other teams had unbeaten, untied seasons, but they took only the walk-on roles in the big show. Two which previously had been tied but undefeated suffered their first defeats during the past week. Utah, Rocky Mountain Big Seven champion, lost 16-0 to Idaho Thanksgiving day and Boston college took a 29-7 drubbing from Holy Cross Saturday.

The main roles in this week's curtain piece will be played by Notre Dame, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Texas Tech.

The Fighting Irish, after a week off, go west to meet Southern California, co-champion of the Pacific coast conference and likely choice as western team to play in the Rose Bowl January 2. Oklahoma, winner of the Big Six title, meets an unbeaten Washington State team at Norman, Okla. Tennessee defends its Southeastern conference crown against Mississippi. The Vols can't be beaten mathematically, but since the title is unofficial Coach Bob Neyland says he won't claim it unless the Vols beat Ole Miss. Texas Tech, 21-2 winner over Marquette, takes on Centenary.

Bowl Selections Next
Other outstanding contests listed this week are today's South Carolina-Catholic university game at Washington, postponed Saturday because of snow; Miami-Georgia Friday and on Saturday Florida-Temple, Rice-Southern Methodist to wind up the southwest conference season, and North Carolina State-Citadel in the southeastern conference finale.

The next task is the selection of performers for Rose, Cotton, Sugar and other year-end "bowl" games. The Pacific coast conference will name its Rose Bowl representative today. That team then must choose its eastern rival.

For that choice it appears difficult to overlook either Duke or Texas Christian, which completed remarkable seasons last Saturday.

The Blue Devils showed their might by taking over Pittsburgh, 7-0, just as they had disposed of eight other rivals. Texas Christian, with an unusual display of ground power for the air-minded southwest conference, routed Southern Methodist 20-7, to take the conference crown. The Horned Frogs immediately were invited to play in the Cotton Bowl game but delayed answering.

Notre Dame Out

Notre Dame, with a definite policy against post-season games, is off the list of "bowl" possibilities. Oklahoma, which rang up its 13th consecutive victory Saturday by whipping Oklahoma A. and M., 19-0, hasn't made known its attitude. Neither has Tennessee, concentrating on the Mississippi game after routing its old foe, Kentucky, 46-0 last Saturday.

Georgetown and Western Reserve are being considered as possible rivals for New Mexico in the Sun bowl.

The Army-Navy spectacle before 120,000 fans at Philadelphia overshadowed the other doings as Army, outplayed through a large part of the game, cashed in on Huey Long's 70-yard run and a single concerted drive for 81 yards to win, 14-7.

REVOLTA COPS IN COLUMBIA OPEN

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 28.—(UP)—Johnny Revolta of Evanston, Ill., failed to match par in two rounds Sunday, but stayed in front and posted an aggregate of 284 for $1200 first money in the Columbia-Ridge-wood $5,000 open golf tournament.

Revolta coasted to victory on the lead he had taken at the halfway mark. He started Sunday morning with a 96-hole total of 136, six under par and five ahead of his nearest competitors. He took a 75 and a 73. Craig Wood, New York, and Light-horse Harry Cooper, Cheshire, Mass., tied for second with 285 each.

Henry Picant, Hershey, Pa., Jimmy Henry, Great Neck, N. Y., and Sam Sneed, White Sulphur Springs, Va., were bracketed next with 286's.

SNEAD SETS NEW HIGH FOR MONEY

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—(UP)—Slammin' Sammy Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., set a new high for professional prize money winnings for a single season in P. G. A. tournament play from January 1 to November 15, figures released today showed.

Snead has won a total of $19,272.83, and with $25,000 prize money still remaining on the 1938 calendar, he stands a good chance of setting an almost unbeatable mark.

Johnny Revolta of Evanston, Ill., is second with $7353.33 while Paul Runyan, White Plains, N. Y., is third with $7245.16.

SOUTHERN OREGON COACHES, WRITERS WILL PICK STARS

Mail Tribune Mails Ballots for Annual All-Star Selections in Conference—Results Next Week.

With the prep pigskin season completed for 1938, a season which saw Medford's powerful Black Tornado cop its second straight Southern Oregon Conference championship and remain unbeaten in the state to rate one, two, three with Oregon's best, about all that remains of the football business are the annual all-star selections.

Today, ballots were mailed to coaches and sports writers in Klamath Falls, Ashland, Grants Pass and Medford for the purpose of determining the personnel of the Mail Tribune's fifth annual All-Southern Oregon conference eleven, first and second.

Eight To Choose
Coaches who are being polled are Arthur (Snowy) Gustafson of Klamath Falls, Bill Bowerman of Medford, Forrest (Sheet) O'Connell of Ashland and Loren Tuttle of Grants Pass. Sports writers who will vote are Larry Hunter of the Ashland Daily Tidings, Asahel Bush of the Klamath News-Herald, Rex Tusting of the Grants Pass Courier and Bill Hulen of the Mail Tribune.

The all-star teams, composed of the finest players in the conference, will be selected by vote of the four coaches and four writers. Each coach and writer will name his all-conference first and second teams, and for every first team mention a player will receive two points, for every second team mention one point. Votes will be tabulated by the Mail Tribune, and the players receiving the greatest number of points at their respective positions will be placed on the first team, next highest number on the second aggregation.

To Receive Cards
As usual, to all players named on the first or second team, and to those receiving honorable mention, the Mail Tribune will issue cards designating his position on either the first or second all-conference eleven, or honorable mention. These cards are of a size to be carried in the player's wallet and are symbolic of outstanding football achievement in conference play during the 1938 season.

All ballots are expected to be returned to the Mail Tribune this week and some time next week the all-star teams will be announced.

HUNTING ACCIDENT CRIPPLES PITCHER

DALLAS, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Chance, which zoned Monty Stratton from semi-pro baseball to major league stardom in four years, today apparently doomed him to the sidelines with the accidental discharge of his pistol.

Stratton, the Chicago White Sox ace pitcher, is "pretty certain" to lose his right leg, Dr. A. R. Thomason said.

The leg was shattered yesterday when a pistol accidentally discharged in a holster at the right-hander's side while he was hunting rabbits on his mother's farm near Greenville. The bullet cut into his leg, severing a large blood vessel behind his knee.

Monty, only 25, crawled almost to the farmhouse before one of his brothers found him.

NEW YORK GIRL WINS MT. HOOD SNOW SLIDE

PORTLAND, Nov. 28.—(AP)—A New York girl and two Portlanders emerged victorious in Mount Hood's first winter sports meet of the season Sunday.

Dorothy Hoyt, Schenectady, N. Y., slid down the one-mile course in one minute, 29.1 seconds, to win the women's competition.

Dick Lewis, Portland, won the junior men's mile-and-a-half race in 3:34, and Boyd French the men's race in 2:15.

Mercer Recovers From Concussion

PORTLAND, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Jay Mercer, hardy Oregon State quarterback who did an outstanding job as a blocker in the victory over Oregon Saturday, was released from a hospital yesterday. He suffered a concussion but after a night of observation doctors said his condition was not serious.

TITANS WIN, 7-6, IN CHARITY TILT

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 28.—(AP)—If Coach Buck Shaw of Santa Clara had played football the way Coach Gus Dorais of Detroit wanted to, Santa Clara would have won the ball game.

Playing according to the rule book, the Detroit Titans noted out Santa Clara, 7 to 6, in a charity football game here yesterday because Santa Clara missed the try for point after touchdown. Had the game been played Dorais' style, Santa Clara would have won, 7 to 6.

Dorais wanted to forget about the point after touchdown. Instead the team making the most first downs would get the extra point in case of a tie. The Broncos made 12 first downs to four for the Titans.

Despite the fact the extra point won him a ball game, Dorais still favors his own theory.

"It is not fair to the spectators," he said "to have the result of the game hinge on a conversation."
