

Sport Graphs

Billy Hulen says:

'Frisco Sports Writers Unfair to Southern Cal

Billy Hulen.

Most lovers of warm weather and haters of winter's icy blasts would be loathe to return to this chilly village and climate after a two week's sojourn in sunny California, but not this soul. Actually, we were plenty glad to trade San Francisco's sunshine for Medford's refrigerator-like temperature, due to a combination of reasons at both places.

For one thing, we were beginning to get downright disgusted at the screwball antics and sickening affection sports writers of the bay district have for California's Golden Bear football team. Or, did have, rather, before Southern California's Trojans were voted into the Rose Bowl yesterday. Now that all hopes of the Bears again playing in the Pasadena classic have faded, the football writing gentry of 'Frisco and Oakland may come to their senses and be aware of the fact that U. S. C. also had a grid team this season and, although only tied with California for the Pacific Coast conference crown, was clearly the superior outfit of the two in every respect.

However, until conference maulings ended the suspense by halting Howard Jones men into the bowl and into a $100,000 slice of the gate receipts, sports writers in the vicinity of the Berkeley campus day after day unleashed the most prejudiced, biased and unfair yarns we have ever read, or even dreamed possible for supposedly clear-thinking newspaper men to manufacture. Despite the fact that U. S. C. soundly drubbed California (13 to 7 and 20 first downs to 2, etc.) and boasted better comparative scores against common opponents than did the Bears, with the lone exception of the Washington game, the scribes insisted that California should get the Rose Bowl game, merely because it was champion last season and tied for it again this year.

Even Prescott Sullivan of the Examiner, usually a pretty good sport and our favorite sports writer, tossed plenty of dirt at the Trojans, and it was he who came up with the prize homebased story. After the Trojans massacred UCLA, 42 to 7 Thanksgiving day to definitely prove they were the best team on the coast, Sullivan sat down and pointed out a yarn to the effect that California could have beaten UCLA by as great a margin if only Coach Stubb Allison of the Bears had not felt sorry for the Bruins and told his team to pull their punches and not run up a high score. California beat UCLA 20 to 7, and if we remember right, it was a plenty tough game for the Bears.

Such going on as that were too much for your truly, and we were more than glad to walk away from San Francisco and those nutty sports writers. Why, their writings concerning the Rose Bowl situation made the partiality which creeps into Ashland, Grants Pass, Medford and Klamath Falls newspapers seem like boosts for the other team, in comparison.

While it was a source of much joy to leave California, the actual return to southern Oregon afforded us even more happiness. We might even call it hilarity, and it was just that, too. You see, we had shot the works and wagered one whole dollar with a fellow who signs "I Told You So" to his sports column in an Ashland weekly, the bet being that we took Medford high over Ashland and gave Mr. "I Told You So" and Ashland three touchdowns.

Mr. "I Told You So" made great fun of Mr. Hulen in his column one day, even going so far as to call him a "chump" for making such a bet and remarking that it was "just like finding a dollar." As everyone knows by this time, the score of the game was 27 to 7, Medford, and we believe we will plagiarize the above latter quotation and sling it right back in Mr. "I Told You So's" face. And while we are plagiarizing, we could use that "I Told You So" business and boomerang it right back at the journalist who signs his name to his column that way.

And by the way, we wonder why said columnist employs such a non de plume, anyway? Why doesn't he sign his name the way his mama and papa put it down on the birth certificate? Of course, we know who the writer is, but there are undoubtedly scores and scores of citizens who would like to learn the true make-up of a perfect example of Barnum's famous saying. Why doesn't he get brave for just one week, anyway, and stick his real name over his column so that the football betting populace will know where to go for some of that easy lunch?

Trojans Invite Duke to Annual Pasadena Rose Bowl Party

IRON DUKES BOAST UNBEATEN RECORD IN TOUGH SEASON

Quick Negotiation Will Give North Carolinians First Trip to Pasadena—Other Candidates Gloomy

On to California

DURHAM, N. C., Nov. 29.—(AP)—The thermometer showed it was nearly freezing, but the fragrance of roses mingled with football enthusiasm in the tobacco-manufacturing town today. Until late into the night, Duke students, led by the 60-piece Blue Devil band, paraded from the university campus through the downtown streets, and the cry was "On to Pasadena" or "California, here I come!"

The Rose Bowl fever hit town about 9:30 last night when word came that Duke would represent the east in the Pasadena classic on January 2. However, there had been early symptoms of it for two days—ever since the Dukes defeated Pittsburgh in a snowstorm Saturday afternoon.

The celebration was set off by Coach Wallace Wade's brief announcement: "We will accept the bid."

By Robert Myers
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 29.—(AP)—It's Duke, the rock of the southern conference, and Southern California, survivor of a bitter grid campaign along the Pacific, in the Rose Bowl battle January 2.

Concluding in six hours negotiations that usually take a week or more, Southern California last night invited the Blue Devils of Durham, N. C., to play its Trojan Warriors in Pasadena's annual post-season game, and Duke lost no time accepting.

There is joy in the hills of North Carolina today, for never before in the 23-year-old history of the far west classic has one of its teams played in the Rose-Bowered Bowl in the arroyo scene.

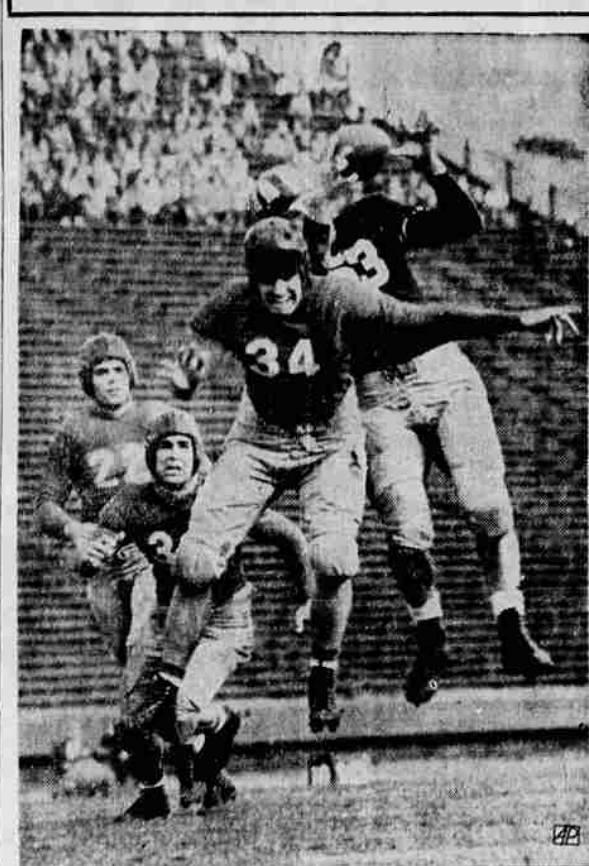

Other Candidates Gloomy
But just as there is celebrating in North Carolina, so is there gloom in bluebonnet state of Texas and a wall for every rebel yell echoing over the rolling countryside of Tennessee, for Texas and Tennessee had unbeaten, untied Rose Bowl candidates, too, in Texas Christian and the University of Tennessee.

Sentiment was high here in favor of Little Davey O'Brien and his T. C. U. Horned Prog mates; Tennessee had a growing delegation of hopeful backers, and disappointment was keen within the two factions when Duke's iron dukes came up with a rush over the weekend and won the invitation.

Duke's supporters in southern California were legion, however, and no one could criticize the 1934 team or its record of nine straight victories with never a touchdown, never a point surrendered.

Tough Assignment
Southern California drew a tough assignment in Duke, the team that tossed back the challenges of Pitt, Colgate, Syracuse and other strong teams of that caliber, and in addition a team coached by a man, Wallace Wade, who brought three Alabama teams to Pasadena and left with two victories and one tie for a near-perfect record.

Dartmouth Gains With Pass

Bob MacLeod, Dartmouth back, leaped high into the air to snatch this pass away from Pete Fay (34), Stanford halfback, for a 12-yard gain during the first quarter of the Intercollegiate game before 20,000 persons at Palo Alto. The dismayed Stanfords in the background are Tony Calveili (25), and Norman Standlee (23). Stanford won, 23 to 13, giving Dartmouth its second defeat in two years, the other being a loss to Cornell recently. (AP Photo.)

Duke Ranks Third in Final Ballot of Sport Writers

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Between their final game of the regular season next Saturday and their appearance in the Rose Bowl January 2, Southern California's Trojans, champions of the Pacific coast conference, have a chance to test the accuracy of sports writers in ranking football teams.

The Trojans play Notre Dame Saturday and meet Duke in the Rose Bowl.

In the final Associated Press football ranking poll of the year, 90 sports writers and editors chose Notre Dame as the nation's No. 1 team with Duke in third place, Texas Christian, which hoped for a Rose Bowl bid, came in between them.

The margins separating the first three weren't large. Notre Dame was awarded top ranking by 48 votes, T. C. U. drew 23 first-place ballots and Duke 15. Tennessee collected the other four and fourth place.

Scoring 10 points for first place, nine for second, etc., Notre Dame earned the lead for the third straight week with 823 points to 792 for the Horned Progs and 753 for Duke.

The first 10 (first place votes in brackets, points on 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis):

Team	Points
Notre Dame (48)	823
Texas Christian (23)	782
Duke (15)	733
Tennessee (4)	607
Oklahoma	363
Carrygile Tech	245
Pittsburgh	241
Southern California	194
Holy Cross	180
Minnesota	177

Second team: Cornell 52, California 51, Purdue 41, Texas Tech 39, Villanova 38, Michigan 37, Alabama 23, Tulane 17, Northwestern 15, Dartmouth 14.

Age at Death 122
BUCHARST (UP)—After enjoying the best of health until recently, Ilie Macanestoo, a Rumanian, reputed to be 122 years old, died of pneumonia in the village of Onicesh-Gurgut, Ilie worked in the fields until he was 117.

BOWERMAN'S BOYS 35 ANSWER CALL NAME ALL-STARS FOR BASKETBALL OF ENEMY TEAMS AT HIGH SCHOOL

Axmen Given Four Positions—Bend 2—Grants Pass, Hood River, Roseburg, Klamath and Eureka One

Coach Bill Bowerman and members of Medford high school's great 1934 football team, their season ended, yesterday looked back over one of the finest campaigns in Tiger history and came up with an all-opponents team they figure could play considerable football in anybody's prep league.

Eugene's mighty Axmen, defeated by the Black Tornado, 25 to 19, in a sensational scoring battle, walked off with the lions share of positions on the mythical eleven, placing four players, Bend's Lava Bears, beaten by the Tigers, 12 to 6, gained two posts, and Grants Pass, Hood River, Roseburg, Klamath Falls and Eureka copped one position each.

Players of Coach Fritz Kramer's Eugene club, named by the Tigers as the best they faced at their respective posts, were Bodner and Elliott, the pair of 230-pound tackle; Bishop, guard and Coughlin, brilliant left halfback.

Frank Redden, fullback and Lidstrom, end, mainstay on the Bend team, were considered by the Tigers the best they played against. Steele of Hood River was accorded the other end post and Tomonovich of Eureka, the lone team to beat this season's Tigers, was placed at the other guard spot. Coffman, Klamath Falls center, was named to that position by the Tigers. The other backs selected were Blondell, Owenby, Grants Pass' brilliant broken field runner, and George Sanders, the pass-slinging quarterback of Roseburg's Indians.

Sanders was given additional honors by the Tigers when they named him the finest back they faced all season. Tomonovich, three-year Eureka veteran, was judged the best linemen the locals ran up against.

Fights Last Night
By The Associated Press
CHICAGO—Billy Cefelbron, 180, Rockford, Ill., outpointed Paulie Walker, 156, Trenton, N. J. (10).
PHILADELPHIA—Lou Ambers, 138, Herkimer, N. Y., outpointed Tommy Cross, 136½, Philadelphia (10).
GREEN BAY, Wis.—Phil Zwick, 127, Kaukauna, Wis., outpointed Armando Ceclia, 130, Peoria, Ill. (10).

NEW YORK—Maxie Berger, 140½, Montreal, outpointed Eddie Brink, 144½, Scranton, Pa. (8).
Tennessee farm women are estimated to have saved $8,000 in a year's time by making their own bed mattresses.

Farmers To Play Hockey
AMHERST, N. S. (UP)—A farmers' hockey league is being formed here. Eight teams, the players on which will come from farms surrounding Amherst, have already entered the league, the first of its kind in the Maritime provinces.

The number of Alabama children of school age decreased 6,896 between 1926 and 1928.

Active	Moore	109	103	155	477
	Sims	190	142	168	497
	Larsen	181	170	148	498
	DeVore	200	206	166	573
	Burroughs	172	188	179	489
		912	809	810	2581

BOWLING

Classic league bowling action at the Medford alleys last night saw Pruitt's General station take two out of three points from the Ramblers, Maid-Rite beat Studebaker, 2 to 1, and M and M beat Active club, 2 to 1. Ruas Semon, rolling for M and M, had a high three-game series of 611. He whanged 12 strikes in a row, but missed a perfect game because they came in two games. Scores follow:

Maid-Rite	J. Murry	147	158	214	519
	Hagen	162	165	171	498
	M. Bell	126	175	154	455
	Gable	194	150	190	534
	Saylor	174	170	237	581
	Handicap	27	27	27	81

Studebaker	830	845	993	2668
Roy Pruitt	181	169	196	546
R. Webster	145	160	141	446
Sandy	171	168	177	516
Paeke	212	180	133	525
Eads	163	134	191	488
	878	811	983	2672

Pruitt's General	Bean	186	226	156	568
	Weisenberger	177	135	152	464
	W. White	222	180	199	581
	M. Melchert	170	154	170	494
	W. Pruitt	150	166	165	481
	Handicap	11	11	11	33

Ramblers	918	852	853	2623
Cannon	179	148	122	449
Green	142	147	176	465
Mrs. Pruitt	171	134	157	462
Gates	156	183	198	537
Reitama	149	223	180	552
	797	835	890	2522

By The Associated Press
The Spokane Clippers pressed the Vancouver Lions into an overtime period before the Lions could emerge victorious 4 to 3, in a Pacific Coast Hockey league game in Vancouver last night.

The victory shoved the Lions back within two points of the second place Seattle Seahawks and drove the Clippers deeper into the cellar.

Sergeant, 70, Retires
FORT HUACHUCA, Ariz. (UP)—Believed to be the oldest soldier, Sgt. Sandy Gardner, 70, has retired from active service 42 years after he first enlisted in the 25th U. S. (Negro) infantry. He served 30 years in the ranks.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

What Is Style?
A woman says, "Becoming-ness."
A man says, "Something a lot of people wear." That's a LEE WATER-BLOC* on both counts!
Only LEE can make the WATER-BLOC.
Featured at $5
SOLD EXCLUSIVELY BY
M. M. Dept. Store
*REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.
LEE
fine HATS

"In any trouble,"

said Major Adam Drew, "It's the outsider who takes it on the chin." This didn't make sense to young Katherine Cornish until a ruthless murderer terrorized Fort Ben Havens. Then she knew what it meant to be the "outsider".

For a first hand account of army post life, and a swell mystery story to boot, read—

THE ARMY POST MURDERS

By VIRGINIA HANSON

Begins Wednesday, November 30th In the Mail Tribune

TO SPOKANE NIGHT LIMITED DAY EXPRESS

CHOICE OF S. P. & S. TRAINS DAY OR NIGHT

Night Limited Leaves Portland 9:30 P.M.
Arrives Spokane 7:00 A.M.

EVERY REGULAR CAR AIR-CONDITIONED
Observation club car, with lounge, fountain, barber, bath, periodicals, cards. Latest types of standard and tourist sleeping cars—Deluxe coaches, with lounges for men and women, deep individual seats, porter service, free pillows.

Day Express Leaves Portland 8:30 A.M.
Arrives Spokane 6:30 P.M.

Observation reserved seat coach, wide windows, individual chairs (50c), cafe economy meals, standard coach. Scenery of Columbia River and Cascade Range, Bonneville Dam.

LOW TRAIN FARES
Coach . . . $ 7.50 one way, $14.25 roundtrip
Tourist . . . 8.43 one way, 16.05 roundtrip
Standard . . 11.24 one way, 16.90 roundtrip

*And Reserved Seat Coach
Break and reserved seat charges additional

Southern Pacific's home agents will sell through tickets in connection with the S. P. & S. Ry. at proportional fares.

Details or illustrated folders will be furnished on request—E. H. CROZIER, Gen. Passenger Agent, American Bank Bldg., Portland

SPOKANE PORTLAND SEATTLE

GALA BOWLING EXHIBITION

Gene Gagliardi
1937-38 Singles World Champion

Men and Women 2nd. 8:00 p. m.
Friday, Dec. 2nd, 8:00 p. m.
Free Lecture & Instructions at 4 p. m.

MEDFORD BOWLING ALLEYS

Chick Hafey Given Release By Reds

CINCINNATI, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Unconditional release of Charlie "Chick" Hafey, veteran outfielder, was announced today by the Cincinnati Reds. Hafey joined the Reds in 1932. Sinus trouble kept him from the lineup in 1933 and he failed to report to the club last year.