

BROKEN BOARD BRINGS NEW GRAPPLING HOLD

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Danny McShain invented a new hold—the mat smother—to successfully defend his claim to the light-heavy-weight wrestling championship here last night.

Repeated slams broke a board in the ring floor. McShain quickly crammed "Red" Berry's head into the crevice and flopped atop him.

YOU JUST DON'T DIG A HOLE

THE FUTURE is a willful and unpredictable jade—who always has her way. If suddenly she says "I want more oil," the industry must know where to find it. Otherwise there's the deuce to pay. That's why we continue to hunt new reserves—even in time of plenty.

When the call comes "More oil" you can't just dig a hole and strike a gusher. It took more than 20 years of prospecting to locate the big oil pool of the Kettleman Hills field in California. Some geologists, but not all of them, were sure oil was there, but for two decades the drillers turned up nothing but dry hole after dry hole—19 miles of dry hole, altogether.

Had it not been for fortunate discovery of new fields, the historic shortage of 1920 would have been much worse. At that, we had to refuse gasoline to private motorists at any price—so that commercial vehicles and the farmers could carry on. It was all very upsetting to everybody.

Nobody can foretell demand. Who knows what inventions like the automobile, the compression firebox and the airplane are in store? Even a sustained period of more jobs for more people would skyrocket demand—we don't know where. All we do know is that eternal vigilance is the price of assured supply.

MOONEY COUNSEL FILES NEW PLEA WITH HIGH COURT

Petition Asks Calling of California Convict to Washington for Personal Examination by Justices

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Counsel for Tom Mooney filed another plea with the supreme court Tuesday in an effort to obtain release of the California convict from San Quentin penitentiary.

Mooney is serving a life sentence for conviction of complicity in the 1916 preparedness day parade bombing at San Francisco.

John P. Finerty, Washington attorney, said in the latest petition a pardon application would be filed with the newly elected governor of California, Culbert Olson, when he is inaugurated next January 3.

Olson has publicly announced his belief in the innocence of Mooney and his willingness to consider promptly a pardon application.

Finerty filed an original petition with the high tribunal seeking a writ of habeas corpus. (An original petition asks the court to take direct jurisdiction instead of passing on an appeal from a lower court decision.)

An original petition was filed with the supreme court in 1935 but the tribunal held that Mooney had not exhausted his rights in the state courts.

Denied Writ. Since then the California supreme court has denied Mooney a writ of habeas corpus. The supreme court here recently refused to pass on that decision.

Finerty contended the California supreme court had "refused to permit a single witness for either the petitioner or the state to appear and testify."

The petition asked the court to take the unusual action of bringing Mooney to Washington for examination personally by the justices. Finerty said this had been done nine times in history.

EMPLOYMENT IN OREGON IS NEAR LEVEL OF 1937

Industrial Accident Commission Reports Average of 118,472 Employed During Past Four Months

SALEM, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Improved business conditions in Oregon were reflected today by state industrial accident commission charts which showed that employment in industry is almost as high as last year, the second year since 1929.

During the past four months, an average of 118,472 men were engaged in industrial employment, compared with 126,918 during the same period last year.

Effects of the nationwide industrial recession were not felt in the state until last January, when payrolls for each month began to slip below the figures for the corresponding months of 1937.

127,733 at Work. There were 127,733 men working in October, about 7,500 less than a year ago but more than twice the number working in February, 1932, low mark of the depression.

Industrial payrolls during the past four months totaled $3,944,834, about $6,000,000 less than for the same period last year. The October payroll was $14,274,783, about $1,000,000 less than a year ago and more than double the low depression mark.

The average daily wage for the four months was $4.41, or 13 cents less than the same period last year. The average now is $4.34, compared with $3.13 at the depth of the depression.

Contribution Dips. Employers contributed $1,341,069 to the industrial accident fund during the past four months, about $300,000 less than during the same period of 1937.

The number of man days worked in the past four months totaled 12,321,091, three times the low depression mark but almost 1,000,000 less than the similar four months last year.

All October figures were expected to be highs for this year, since employment levels generally drop after seasonal employment ends in the agricultural, fishing and lumber industries.

MARRIAGE LAW IN EFFECT THURSDAY

The pre-marriage examination law, passed by the people at the last general election, goes into effect tomorrow (Thursday) morning at 8 o'clock.

The necessary blanks have not yet arrived for issuance of marriage licenses under the new law. Until they do, no licenses will be issued, the county clerk said. It is anticipated the missing blanks will arrive today.

Under the new marriage law, both the bride and the groom are required to undergo a medical examination. Under the old law, only the groom was required to do so.
