WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—Without Colic!—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning!
The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.
A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, acting in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25 cents. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

"Men With Wings" Coming Sunday

"Men With Wings," the flaming story of American aviation, the first air story filmed entirely in technical color, will open a four-day showing Sunday at the Craterian theatre, with Fred MacMurray, Ray Milland and Louise Campbell in leading roles.

Army Picture

A picture that has as its theme the much discussed rivalry between the "old horse cavalry" and the "new mechanized tanks" is "Army Girl," opening a three-day run tomorrow at the Rialto theatre with Preston Foster and Madge Evans heading a cast of 15 featured players.
The gigantic, powerfully acting scenes in "Army Girl" depict contests between cavalry and tanks in tests ordered by army headquarters to decide whether the 31st regiment, a cavalry post near the Mexican border, should be mechanized or not. The realistic and thrilling make-believe war fills the screen with thundering excitement. Romance enters the plot when the colonel's daughter falls in love with the man who is trying to out the colonel and his "old fashioned" ideas about modern warfare.
Other members of the all-star cast include James Gleason, H. B. Warner, Billy Gilbert, Ruth Donnelly, Heather Angel and 300 of the world's crack horsemen in a display of horsemanship never before pictured on the screen.
"Where Buffalo Roam," starring singing Tex Ritter, will play as the companion action bill on tomorrow's program.

SPECIAL PROGRAM AT ELKS SESSION

Six men will be initiated into the Medford Elks lodge tomorrow night, the ritual to carry out the "Americanism" theme in line with a nationwide Elks club observance of "Americanism Night," according to Ernest Scott, secretary. Regular officers of the local lodge will be in charge of the ceremony.
There will be a special program of entertainment and a feed and beer following the initiation, the secretary stated.
Although the local lodge will not officially observe "Americanism Night," Mr. Scott explained, the initiation ritual will follow closely that theme.

Antelope

ANTELOPE, Nov. 30.—(Spl.)—Mrs. Sarah Riley and son, Tom, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. George Holmes and family, of Eagle Point.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Owens, Mrs. Jim Rummel and Dave Rummel left November 24 to spend a week visiting with relatives and friends in Chico, Calif.
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yorton and family spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. Yorton's mother in Medford.
The day before Thanksgiving was rather an exciting one for the Carl von der Heilen family. In the afternoon, during a high wind, the roof of their house caught fire. The fire was extinguished without serious damage but the same night the wind increased to gale proportions and blew the roof off their kitchen. They were without a fire in the house until noon the following day when, with the aid of Cecil Culbertson, Floyd Harper and Walter Gehrig, the roof and chimneys were replaced.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gentner and daughters and Mrs. Laura Pierce of Medford called at the C. R. Culbertson home last Thursday.
Maurice Davies left recently for Portland, where he will undergo an operation.
Mrs. John Rader of Eagle Point enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner with her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Stanley.
Mrs. Vern Anderson, who has been staying in Ashland the past six weeks will return home Tuesday with her new daughter, Ariadne.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bigham and family and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bigham and family spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Mary Myers of Table Rock.
Members of the Ladies' club who were not present at the last meeting are reminded that the next meeting, December 14, will be the occasion for a Pollyanna Christmas tree, at which time all members will exchange small gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clark spent Thursday with Mrs. Nellie Glass of McCleod.
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harper and family and Mr. Floyd Waicher and son, Homer, had Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Carl von der Heilen.
