Oil in them thar hills? Sir, it's EVERYWHERE

THE INK which forms these words has oil in it. So has the paper. As you sit reading, oil softened the wool in your clothes for weaving, colored your black shoes, helped design your necktie. For oil, now-a-days, goes into almost everything. Daily you don oil, eat it, and—if at birth you joined the ladies—wear it on your face.

Mais oui, madame! But yes! Those face creams, the most delicate, the most inspiring, start with petrolatum, born in turn of heavy lubricating oil. Lip rouge contains wax from oil. Mascara draws come-hither from both wax and petrolatum. Naturally, they're refined to the nth degree—as is the oil you take for your stomach's sake.

If you're a sinus sufferer—as you isn't these days—oil carries ephedrine for you to the spot where it's needed. Oil heat may have rescued for you the oranges for your morning orange juice.

Actually it's completely impossible to realize the extent to which oil has become interwoven into every necessity and every comfort of living. Without oil, the modern world would come instantly to a dead stop. And—unless it could be instantly restored—nobody would care much.

PRESIDENT WILL IGNORE RESULTS RECENT BALLOT

government with dictatorships—with-out mentioning minority persecutions abroad—he asserted:

"There may be those in the world who believe that a regimented people, whose every thought and action is directed by one man, may give some people a type of security which is pleasing to them.

"But whatever convictions I have, none is stronger than my abiding belief that the security and well-being of the American people can best be served by the democratic processes which have made this country strong and great."

He added, however, their futures rested "not on chance alone, not on mere conservatism, mere amnesia, mere fatalism, but on the affirmative action which we take in America."

Placing his hope in the younger generation and pleading for tolerance and a national point of view as against sectionalism, Mr. Roosevelt told the students he was still a believer in capitalism despite what they read in "newspapers and heard on the air."

Practitioner of Peace

Whereas the latter had pictured him as about to plunge the nation into war as the "inventor of economic royalists," and as breakfasting every morning on "grilled millionaires," actually, he said he was an "exceedingly mild-mannered person—a practitioner of peace, both domestic and foreign, a believer in the capitalistic system, and for my breakfast a devotee of scrambled eggs."

He said other men in public life had protested against certain forms of economic control and epithets far stronger than any he had ever used had been employed by other presidents.

"Those of us who knew Woodrow Wilson and Theodore Roosevelt and Grover Cleveland could hardly call them mollycoddlers," he said. At another point he asserted:

"It is only the unthinking liberals in the world who see nothing but tragedy in the slowing up or temporary stopping of liberal progress.

Should Admit Change

"It is the unthinking conservatives who rejoice when a social or economic reform fails to be 100 per cent successful."

"It is only the 'headline' mentality that exaggerates or distorts

REELECT SCHADE AS PRESIDENT OF BOY SCOUT AREA

Larry Schade was unanimously reelected president of Crater Lake area, Boy Scouts of America, at the annual meeting and court of honor held in Yreka Sunday with over 200 in attendance. Other Medford men reelected included Gene Thorndike, treasurer, and R. E. McElhose, commissioner.

Appointments by the president included W. J. Moyer, chairman of organization and extension; M. N. Hogan, finance chairman; Fred Schefel, camping chairman, and Don R. Newbury, advancement chairman, and Seth Bullis health and safety.

Awards were made to Jack Hamilton, of Jacksonville, a bronze eagle palm, for additional achievements since becoming an Eagle Scout, and a silver beaver to L. D. Jones of Medford, chairman of the camping committee, by the national council for distinguished service to boyhood.

The award to Jones was the second such received in this district, the other going to Larry Schade, two years ago, for similar service. Veteran awards were given and three Eagle Scout medals, the highest rank in scouting, went to Mark Smith of Ashland, troop 12, and to Grants Pass and Dunsmuir Scouts.

Principal George Luttrell, of the Yreka schools, was host chairman for the council meeting which was held at the Yreka inn. The fine turkey banquet at the inn was enjoyed by over 148 ladies who accompanied council members to Yreka were guests of the Yreka theater management and were also entertained at a musical.

TRY TO COLLECT $5000 GRID POOL

Frank Reinhart, one of the five Medford men who won $5000 in a football pool November 26, left for Portland last night to see what could be done, legally or otherwise, toward obtaining payment of the amount from the operators of the pool.

Reinhart, with four other local men, picked correct the outcome of 12 games on two tickets, each of which paid odds of 100 to 1. All the local men chipped in $5 apiece.

A hitch in the payoff developed when the Portland operators claimed the two Medford tickets didn't arrive in Portland until 9:30 p. m., November 26, when they should have been there by 10 a. m. The tickets were dispatched from here on a stage in the morning, the same method by which the local agent for the pool had been using all year to send tickets to Portland, and which had met no disapproval until November 26.

Holiday Cards Should Be Signed According To Type

In general, the husband's name comes first. How should cards be addressed? No card should ever be sent without a Mr., Mrs. or Miss prefix. (A young boy may be addressed as "Master" although that's being used less and less.)

An unmarried woman is always addressed as "Miss." A married woman—whether her husband is alive or not—is addressed with "Mrs." prefixed to her husband's full name. A woman's maiden name is used only on legal papers or when she uses her maiden name professionally. In case of divorce, however, the name may have been changed by legal procedure. In that event, address your card to the divorcee's legal name.

IT'S THRILLING to watch the flashing greyhound in full flight. But it's important to note that when the race is over he lets up and rests—as the greyhound above is doing now. Though the dog's high-keyed nervous system closely resembles our own, the dog relaxes instinctively! Life as it is today leads us to ignore fatigued nerves. We're apt to carry on despite increasing tension and strain. Be kind to your nerves if you want them to be kind to you. Pause a while every now and then. LET UP—LIGHT UP A CAMEL! DID YOU KNOW? —that tobacco is remarkably sensitive to moisture? That at one stage, practically all the moisture is removed from cigarette tobacco, and then later just the proper amount restored? That there are more than 40 huge air-conditioning machines where Camels are made? Camel spends millions to insure all the mildness and ripe richness of Camel's finer, more expensive tobaccos.
