Duplicate Bridge Club Organized At Sunday Meet

A group of Medford bridge fans gathered Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. R. J. Conroy on Medford Heights to participate in a weekly duplicate bridge tournament.

Guests at the affair included Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Obye, Captain and Mrs. William Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fuson, Mrs. A. F. W. Kresse, Mrs. George Coddling, Gilbert Stuart, William Isaacs, Mrs. F. G. Bunch, Miss Isabel Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson, Miss Frances Kenney and Mrs. Conroy.

Those winning tournament points were Mrs. Coddling and Mrs. Kresse with a score of 37, Mr. Isaacs and Mrs. Kenney, 35 points and Mr. and Mrs. Obye with 34½ points.

The group organized a club that will hereafter be known as the "Medford Duplicate Contract Club." Officers elected include the following: Mr. Isaacs, president; Miss Kenney, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Coddling, treasurer.

The organization is affiliated with the Pacific Bridge League. Winners of the weekly tournaments will receive rating and master points, which will make them eligible for championship tournaments upon completion of ten full master points. Two hundred rating points equal one master point after which it takes only 100 rating points to obtain a master point.

The club will convene each Friday evening. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Conroy at 7 o'clock December 9.

Anyone interested in joining this club is asked to contact Mr. Isaacs at 1103-L or Mrs. Conroy or Mrs. Watson, the tournament director, at 1386.

Mrs. Hurd to Head Pro-America Club For Another Year

Pro-America convened yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Holland for a luncheon session and election of officers.

Thirty members were present and voted upon the following to fill offices: President, C. M. Hurd, re-elected; Mrs. C. L. Hurd, first vice-president; Mrs. H. D. McCasky, second vice-president; Mrs. F. J. Newman, reporting secretary; Mrs. William M. McAllister, corresponding secretary, and treasurer, Mrs. Dwight H. Findley.

The nominating committee included Mesdames M. J. Norris, chairman; W. J. Warner and R. P. Kyle.

The next meeting, which would fall on New Year's day will be held the second Monday in January instead. At this session new officers will take their places and the appointment of six trustees will be made by the executive board which is composed of the officers.

Childreth Home Scene of Party

Mrs. Wesley Childreth was a recent hostess for a surprise party at her home in Eagle Point honoring her husband. The enjoyable event celebrated Mr. Childreth's birthday.

A number of guests were bidden to the affair and presented the honoree with many handsome gifts, including an attractive rocking chair.

Medford children included Mr. and Mrs. Orville Childreth, Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Childreth, Mrs. Loretta Coy, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robertson and children, Wilmer, Helen and Kenneth. From Grants Pass came Mr. and Mrs. Lester Barbeck and daughter, Sandra.

Games and refreshments were enjoyed during the remainder of the evening.

Electa Club Enjoys Meet

The regular meeting of the Electa social club was held at the home of Mrs. Mildred Bliss on South Grape street last week.

Dessert luncheon was served by the committee in charge after which a business session was held. It was decided by the members to send Christmas gifts to the Masonic old people's home in Forest Grove. A needy family will also be remembered with a basket of groceries and other articles.

Sewing and cards were enjoyed after the business session.

Interesting Play Is Wednesday Event

A three-act comedy, "Here Comes Charlie," will be presented at the First Christian church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

The play is sponsored and acted by the young people of the church. All persons interested are invited to attend the play. There is no admission charge.

The theme of "Here Comes Charlie" concerns the troubles of two Oak hill billies who travel to the big city to live.

Church Women to Meet Thursday

The women of the Central Avenue Church of Christ are to meet at the home of Mrs. C. B. Canose, 323 South Orange street, Thursday for a covered dish luncheon. Members are invited to attend the meeting and to bring friends.

The organization urges that anyone having clothing to donate to bring it to Mrs. Canose's home or to the church. The women will do any necessary remodeling on the clothes which will later be given to the needy.

AUTO PROWLERS ARE BUSY AGAIN

Automobile prowlers were busy again Sunday night, with three victims reporting their losses to city police yesterday.

A. R. Renner, manager of the Abbey used car lot at Ninth and Bartlett streets, told police a thief stole at 7:00x11, four-ply U. S. Royal tire and chrome color wheel, a 4.75x19 tire and orange color wire wheel and two electric cigarette lighters off cars in the lot.

A size 40 rubberized raincoat was stolen from the Tom H. Seberry car parked near the Hotel Medford, the owner reported to police.

Bernard W. Roberts of 922 Kiddy street reported that a first aid kit was stolen from his car parked on West Main street.

ALL-STAR POLL IN WEDNESDAY'S TRIB

The Mail Tribune's fifth annual All-Southern Oregon conference football selections, determined by a poll of coaches and sports writers in Ashland, Klamath Falls, Grants Pass and Medford, will be announced in this newspaper tomorrow.

Ballots have been received from the mentors and writers, and the Mail Tribune today is tabulating the votes for each player. Two complete teams, the first and second, and those players receiving honorable mention will be revealed tomorrow.

Coaches cooperating in the selections are Forrest (Skeet) O'Connell of Ashland, Arthur (Snowy) Gustafson of Klamath Falls, Loren Tuttle of Grants Pass and Bill Bowerman of Medford. Writers are Roy Sheedy of the Grants Pass Courier, Ashah Bush Daily Tidings and Bill Hulen of The Klamath Falls News and Herald-Mail Tribune.
