HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS TAKE SEAL STORY TO CHILDREN IN COUNTRY

Three students from the Medford high school carried the story of the Christmas seal into rural schools of Jackson county and received today many words of praise from Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, chairman of the rural school program in the annual drive against tuberculosis.

The three are enrolled in Bertrand C. Adams' public speaking class. "Each did extremely well," Mrs. Kenly stated, "showing unusual ability in adapting the speeches to the ages of the various children before whom they appeared."

Younger, accompanied by Mrs. Kenly, visited and spoke in the Prospect schools and all schools on the Crater Lake highway between Medford and Prospect. Cameron, with Mrs. David Rosenberg as escort, included the Phoenix, Howard and other schools, neighboring Medford.
