

Charles Boyer, Hedy Lamarr In "Algiers" On Craterian Screen Today

SIGRID GURIE HAS IMPORTANT ROLE IN THRILLING PICTURE

Handsome Charles Boyer has his most romantic role as a lovable fugitive in Walter Wagner's "Algiers," the colorful adventurous romance that stars him opposite Hollywood's two most glamorous newcomers, Hedy Lamarr and Sigrid Gurie at the Craterian theater for three days beginning today.

"Algiers" treats the dark-eyed screen lover as Pepe le Moko, devil-may-care international jewel thief, who takes refuge from the French police by living in the Casbah, the mysterious native quarter of Algiers where the law dare not intrude.

Here Pepe le Moko rules as king, idol of the strange, exotic women of the quarter, commander of the men, and beloved by everyone for his handsome, smiling face and high-adventurous life.

Sigrid Gurie, who made a triumphant film debut in "The Adventures of Marco Polo," is seen as Ines, his beautiful and wildly jealous native sweetheart.

Then one day there strolls into the Casbah, a beautiful Parisian tourist, named Gabby—played by the alluring new discovery, Hedy Lamarr. This is the day for which Slimane, suave provincial detective, has been patiently waiting. For he knows that if nothing else can lure the great lover out of the Casbah and into the hands of the law, perhaps a woman can.

Pepe and Gabby fall madly in love and after a series of exciting and romantic adventures, in the course of which the jealous native sweetheart betrays Pepe to the police, the story ends on a breath-taking surprise climax.

"Valley of the Giants" Coming

Romance in the Redwoods—deep in the heart of California's magnificent forests, Wayne Morris and Claire Trevor find love in "Valley of the Giants," the technicolor version of Peter B. Kyne's famous novel, which is coming to the Craterian theater Wednesday for a four-day run. The climax of the great picture is the clash between Morris and Charles Bickford over ten thousand acres of timberland—and a woman. Miss Trevor, other members of the large cast include Alan Hale, Frank McHugh, Donald Crisp, Jack LaRue, John Lyle, El Brendel and Dick Purcell. "Valley of the Giants" will share honors with "The Sign of the Cross" on the all-technicolor program.

Kay Francis In Tuesday Show

Kay Francis and George Brent have the romantic leads in "The Secrets of an Actress," a picture giving intimate behind-the-scenes glimpses of typical Broadway celebrities, which comes to the Rialto theater for Tuesday and Wednesday only. Ian Hunter, Gloria Dickson and Penny Singleton have supporting roles with the two stars. The lovable Gambinis return in a new sports adventure, "Road Demon," which will play as the second feature with the Kay Francis opus. Henry Armetta, Henry Arthur, Jean Valerie and Bill Robinson head the cast of the new thriller.

Funniest Role

Mickey Rooney, fast becoming one of the screen's most important stars, has his funniest role to date in "Judge Hardy's Children," playing today and tomorrow only at the Rialto theater. Lewis Stone, Cecelia Parker and Fay Holden make up the other members of the cast of the famous Judge Hardy family series.

Show Maginot Line In March of Time Film At Craterian

"Inside the Maginot Line," the first motion picture ever taken behind France's 123-mile line of ingenious defense works, obtained exclusively by March of Time in the most complete "scoop" since their first motion picture, "Inside Nazi Germany 1938," will play on today's program at the Craterian theater with "Algiers." The extraordinary privilege of filming these gigantic, hitherto secret fortifications, by which France hopes to stem any attack from the East, was granted March of Time's editors by the French war ministry. In view of the military significance and importance of the Maginot Line in a Europe jealously guarding its defense plans, this permission was unique.

The film shows every conceivable phase of these fortifications and life led by the 300,000 troops who are entrusted with this section of French defense.

Several others of the anti-terrorist campaign conducted in Oregon this year. The governor did not name them.

Martin said that "when the papers of Rosser were examined we discovered there were 19 of these union gangsters getting some of the gray." He said an investigation conducted by Ralph Moody, special prosecutor during the drive, showed that Rosser's income for one year had been $22,900.

He continued that Rosser's tax bill topped $2,000 which was paid by

ROOSEVELT SURE FREE PRESS WILL NOT BE CHECKED

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 10.—(AP)—President Roosevelt asserts in a letter to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch that a free press is primarily a responsibility of the newspapers.

The president, writing for the sixtieth anniversary section of the paper tomorrow, also expressed the hope that freedom of the press to criticize and throughout every administration in all the years to come.

"It is not my purpose primarily to deliver a lecture on the ethics of journalism," wrote President Roosevelt. "But our newspapers are so essentially public institutions that they are subject to the closest scrutiny of their readers. Since it is the readers who make possible by their patronage the publication of all of our papers, perhaps the readers are entitled to be heard on the age-old question of a free press."

"But more forcible than any criticism from without is the self-searching inquiry of those within editorial sanctums and the newspaper counting rooms as to what constitutes their obligation to the readers of American newspapers."

TRENTON, N. J.—Dec. 10.—(AP)—Protesting the dismissal of persons over 65 from WPA jobs, Governor Moore wrote President Roosevelt today that if such a practice were carried further by the federal government "we would have to scrap such splendid, able and helpful men as Jack Garner, Cordell Hull, Hiram Johnson, Justice Hughes, Carter Glass and a host of others."

The president has notified Moore that WPA officials considered their first responsibility was "toward those employed persons who cannot qualify for assistance under other federal programs."

Declaring that the WPA action was "unjustified," Moore replied "it is not consistent with your own or my own views of what is fair play or humanitarian treatment."

The governor proposed that WPA rolls be cut by leaving vacancies unfilled. He said there were more than 250,000 persons in New Jersey over 65 and to employ them would cost the state more than $90,000,000 annually.

DRUG STORES GO MODERN

There has been a distinct change in business methods during the last few years. Ten years ago if anyone had said that drug stores were going into the installment business they would have been laughed out of the proposition.

However, this change has come and the Health's Drug Store is now selling electric shavers on time—one dollar down and the balance fifty cents a week. Health's are offering all of the better popular makes on this easy payment plan. Come in and get a free shave on our special demonstrators.

STATE COLLECTS INCOME TAX OF UNION CHIEFTAINS

PORTLAND, Dec. 10.—(AP)—The long arm of the income tax law reached out and extracted stiff sums of money from labor union chiefs on incomes they did not declare in their tax reports. Gov. Charles H. Martin disclosed Friday night in a talk before a joint convention of sheriffs and district attorneys.

In a speech that bristled with invectives, the governor revealed that 19 men he called "labor gangsters" had "dug up checks without protesting" when confronted by state tax agents. Among them, he said, was Al E. Rosser, ex-A. P. L. teamster chief for Oregon who is under a 12-year sentence for arson.

These incomes, Martin said, "did not show in the tax records and when officers went to the men there was no fuse. They . . . paid for the 'gray' they had gotten."

Several others of the 19 besides Rosser were taken in the anti-terrorist campaign conducted in Oregon this year. The governor did not name them.

Martin said that "when the papers of Rosser were examined we discovered there were 19 of these union gangsters getting some of the gray." He said an investigation conducted by Ralph Moody, special prosecutor during the drive, showed that Rosser's income for one year had been $22,900.

He continued that Rosser's tax bill topped $2,000 which was paid by

'VAMPIRE' RUMORS UPSET SOUTHWEST

EL PASO, Texas, Dec. 10.—(AP)—A horror play recently broadcast over a Juarez, Mexico, radio station was blamed today for widespread rumors that a "vampire man" was at large in the southwest.

Lester Farber, president of the International Broadcasting Co., said Juarez residents were talking about the "little girl who was killed by a vampire in El Paso."

"A three-act play called 'The Vampire' that we presented recently may have caused the disturbance," he said. "We are presenting a special program tonight to show that the rumor is unfounded."

An El Paso school teacher told police that her pupils were "greatly upset by tale of the 'vampire man.'"

More "Juice" Sold
SALEM, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Sales of electrical energy for September this year exceed those of the corresponding month a year ago by approximately 58 per cent, state utility corporation Commissioner Wallace reported today.

Nurses On Way
SALEM, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Eight bunnels to be installed in the rotunda of the new $2,500,000 state capitol building here will arrive in Salem Tuesday or Wednesday, the capitol reconstruction commission announced today.

Use Mail Tribune Want Ads.

THREE MEN SLAIN IN ARIZONA FEUD OVER GOAT OWNER

LAS VEGAS, N.M., Dec. 10.—(AP)—Three men were shot and killed today at Murphy's canyon, a rugged and remote region northwest of Mora, N.M., in what one survivor said was the outgrowth of an argument over ownership of a goat.

Mora county Sheriff Isaac Costillo listed the dead as: Fidel Trujillo, 40; Monico Flores, 38; his son, Maurico Flores, 18.

Frank Martinez, 36, the long survivor of the shooting, was held by Costillo.

Sheriff Costillo quoted Martinez as saying he had gone to the Trujillo place to buy a goat. The goat herd, he told the sheriff, was owned by Flores, who doubted Trujillo's claim that one of the animals was his.

Martinez told the sheriff he laid his rifle against a tree and that Flores and his son came up behind as he and Trujillo were inspecting the herd.

Then, he continued, Flores grabbed the rifle and shot Trujillo. In a three-way scuffle for the gun, the boy was shot and then, wrestling the rifle away, Martinez told the sheriff, he shot the elder Flores three times as he was reaching for a pistol.

Sheriff Costillo said his investigation showed all the participants were heavily armed. Martinez told him he was carrying a rifle because he was on the lookout for cattle rustlers.

Gale Hit Sydney
SYDNEY, Australia, Dec. 10.—(AP)—A 75-mile an hour gale crippled Sydney and other cities today and fanned dangerous bush fires in outlying areas.

Vanderbilt Honors
BAKER, Dec. 10.—(AP)—First place in the amateur vanderbilt contest conducted by the Civilian Conservation Corps 3275, Pollock, near Riggs, Idaho.

Jack Oakie, Lucille Ball Star in Comic Picture At Rialto

Flavored with high-speed humor and side-splitting situations, "The Affairs of Annabel" comes to the Rialto theater today with Jack Oakie and Lucille Ball co-starring.

"The Affairs of Annabel" revolves around the unexpected results of a series of imaginative exploits contrived by Oakie in his role of a rash press agent to publicize the studio's foremost star, played by Miss Ball.

Unfortunately these stunts have a habit of backfiring. To attract attention to a prison picture, Oakie has Lucille jailed under an alias, promising a reward of $10,000 upon her release a few days later. But real prison terms loom for the pair if the scheme is learned; and Lucille has to serve out her time for fear of exposure.

Although enraged, Lucille tongue falls for Oakie's persuasive logic and goes to work as a housemaid, a publicity build-up for her new picture, "A Maid and a Man." However, two kidnapers fleeing the G-men involve the principals in a fast and furious mix-up.

Renfrew of the Royal Mounted in "On the Great White Trail," the newest of Renfrew's adventures in the land of the frozen north, plays as the companion feature with "Annabel" at the Rialto today and Monday only. James Newill and Terry Walker have the leading roles with Silver King, the wonder dog, in support.

Oats Price Better
PORTLAND, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Encouraging firmness appeared in Pacific northwest oats markets in the week ending December 8, with prices advancing 5 cents per 100 pounds here on No. 2. White oats and receipts reaching 16 carlots in fairly active trading.

Thrilling Sea Rescue
BOSTON, Dec. 10.—(AP)—In a dramatic Cape Cod rescue in a pelting rainstorm two hours before dawn, seven men were taken off the grounded Boston trawler Andover by breeches buoy today. While a pounding surf threatened to break up the leaking, heavily-loaded vessel.

Use Mail Tribune Want Ads.

MEET ALLURING ANNABEL....

She's Kissability Mixed With Dynamite!.. You'll Laugh and Thrill as She Goes on a Rampage With Oakie!

See their amazing story. A rave of a picture!... Fast-talking Lanny and fiery Annabel... off the screen with the movie highups... heaping laugh upon laugh as you revel in refreshing romance.

Another $250,000.00 Movie Quiz Picture with Ruth Donnelly, Bradley Page, Fritz Feld, Thurston Hall.

Medford Theatre SCRIP BOOKS Make Ideal Xmas Gifts

Shows Today: 1:15 - 3:15 8:15 - 9:30

"ANNABEL" 2:00 - 4:10 8:15 - 10:15

Algiers!.. strange city of shadows and secrets...and sinners in hiding!

Every throbbing minute is exciting... every romantic second pulsates with thrills... every exotic scene throbs with beauty... every moment beats with adventure!

starts TODAY - 3 days

ALGIERS

STARRING Charles BOYER

... with the most beautiful, most exciting damsel the screen has discovered in years!

HEDY LAMARR

Sigrid GURIE • Joseph CALLEIA • Alan HALE • Gene LOOKHART

Special Screen Hit: MARCH of TIME presents INSIDE THE MAGINOT LINE

The one fixed boundary in a Europe of trembling frontiers!

Shows Today: 1:15 - 3:30 8:45 - 9:00

CRATERIAN

Mats. . . . 35c
Eves. . . . 35c
Kiddies . . 10c

Shows Today: 1:15 - 3:15 8:15 - 9:45

"RENFREW" at 3:30 7:15 - 9:45

DRUG STORES GO MODERN

There has been a distinct change in business methods during the last few years. Ten years ago if anyone had said that drug stores were going into the installment business they would have been laughed out of the proposition.

However, this change has come and the Health's Drug Store is now selling electric shavers on time—one dollar down and the balance fifty cents a week. Health's are offering all of the better popular makes on this easy payment plan. Come in and get a free shave on our special demonstrators.

However, this change has come and the Health's Drug Store is now selling electric shavers on time—one dollar down and the balance fifty cents a week. Health's are offering all of the better popular makes on this easy payment plan. Come in and get a free shave on our special demonstrators.