On Furlough—Ray Churchill is spending a month's furlough from the U. S. army with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Chapin at Merrick's auto camp. He is a member of Company A, 29th engineers at Fort Barry, Cal.

Meeting Tomorrow—Regular semi-monthly meetings will be held by Jackson county chapter and auxiliary of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War in the Medford armory at 8 p. m. Tuesday. Final plans will be made for the organization's annual Christmas party.

To Conference—Leaving today by motorcar to attend the annual conference of the extension service at Oregon State college in Corvallis were Robert G. Fowler, county agent, C. B. Conroy, county horticulturist, C. D. Conard, county 4-H club agent, and Mabel Mack, county home demonstration agent. The conference is to last through Friday.

On State Official—M. J. Melchior is transacting official business here for the World War veterans state aid commission for which he is field inspector. He plans to remain here until Wednesday when he will leave for Roseburg and Eugene. He makes his Medford headquarters at the real estate office of Carl Y. Tengwald, the commission's county representative, at 125 West Main street.

Flying South—Lieut. J. A. Tobler stopped at Medford municipal airport yesterday to have his army Douglas observation plane refueled. He was en route from Fort Lewis, Wash. to Oakland, Cal. on a routine flight. Arrivals Sunday included Capt. R. A. Wilson, March field, Riverside, Cal., in an Army North Vancouver, Wash., in an Army North American basic combat plane.

Many At Park—Sixty-five cars and 240 persons were registered yesterday at Crater Lake national park headquarters here reported today. Of the visitors 102 went to the park primarily for snow sports, 111 to view the lake in its winter setting and 27 to use a cut-off in getting from one point to another, a substitution showed. Skiing was good only for experts as the snow was crusty and icy. The temperature yesterday ranged from 30 to 8 degrees. The weather this morning was cold and clear, the snow remaining heavily packed and icy, rangers reported by short wave radio.

Recruiting Limited—With the U. S. army again at full authorized strength, a restriction has once more been placed on recruiting. It was announced in a press release today from Maj. H. D. Byrnes, officer in charge of the Portland recruiting district which includes southern Oregon. Enlistments are now restricted to men with prior army service, the major said. Qualified young men without prior army service should register without delay at the nearest recruiting station so as to get their names on the waiting list and thus be in preferred position when general recruiting is resumed, the officer stated. The Medford recruiting station is in city hall and is in charge of Sgt. Willis S. Estep. General recruiting was resumed last June after a suspension of several months.

Delay Decision on Dyer Extradition KIAMATH FALLS, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Justice of Peace W. B. Barnes deferred decision until tomorrow on whether Mrs. Olive Dyer, 40, should be held for possible extradition to McDonald county, Mo. where murder charges face both her and her husband, Jack Dyer, after a preliminary hearing on a fugitive complaint had been conducted in justice court here today.

Mrs. Dyer had been accused of slaying her mother, Mary Sullivan, near Pineville, McDonald county, Mo. in 1933, and Missouri officials are here to seek her return for trial.

HIGHER TURKEY PRICES IN CHRISTMAS MARKET SEEN BY COUNTY AGENT

Turkey prices for the Christmas markets will be slightly firmer than at Thanksgiving. In the opinion of the county agent's office, with a chance the price will go to 23c per pound here.

Shippers are expected to be brisk this week for the eastern market. The co-operative expects to ship a car this week.

PORTLAND, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Prices ranged firm to higher today under the influence of a keen demand for turkeys. Operators hastened to fill orders for the final shipments to the eastern Christmas markets.

Strong market conditions prevailed in the east and there was a possibility prices would go higher. General buying price for turkeys here was 21c and hens 23c.

Handlers estimated between 4,000-5,000 and 5,000-6,000 pounds had been forwarded to the east during the 1938 holiday period. The movements at Thanksgiving reached 2,300,000 pounds.

There was considerable movement to California markets. Oregon birds commanded the highest prices in the country both in the east and in California.

Current selling quotations offered growers indicated a consumer price here of 32 to 35 cents. In some instances growers were getting as high as 22 cents for toms and 24 for hens.

"Suicide Watch" Is Laugh for Slayers OAKLAND, Calif., Dec. 12.—(AP) Rodney Greig, 21, laughed in his jail cell today at the "suicide watch" set up outside his cell where he is awaiting preliminary hearing December 20 on a charge of murdering Leon D. White, 19, former University of California student. "I wouldn't try to cheat them that way," he told newspapermen.

Cat Adds Squall To Double Thrill Of Horror Films BANGOR, Idaho, Dec. 12.—(AP)—The audience was tense as the "horror" film "Dracula" approached its climax at a theater here last night.

In the hushed darkness, a step-comer groped for a seat. He stepped on the tail of the theater manager's cat. It screamed, loud and long. So did a major part of the highly-strung audience which had already seen an earlier spine-tingler on the "double 'horror' bill.

RUTH ETTING ON WITNESS STAND AGAINST SNYDER

Former Husband Telephoned From New York He Was Coming to Kill Her, Is Testimony of Singer

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Ruth Etting today took the witness stand to testify against her former husband, Martin Snyder, who is on trial for the attempted murder of Myrl Alderman, the singer's accompanist.

Dressed in gray and wearing dark glasses, Miss Etting began a detailed account of events leading up to the shooting in Alderman's home last October 19.

"Early last January, Snyder telephoned me from New York," she began, "and said, 'I am going to hop a plane and come out there and kill you.'"

"We'd been having an argument over the phone in which he was upbraiding me and I was trying to reason with him. The conversation occurred more than a month after our divorce."

She testified when she divorced Snyder, she gave him half of her accumulated earnings—$50,000 in cash, some securities and a half interest in Beverly Hills home.

In making the settlement, she declared, she deducted $50,000 for gambling debts, which she said she had paid, and the cost of a home Snyder had provided for his mother.

"He claimed on the phone that I had 'held out' on him," Miss Etting continued, "on property that I had inherited from my father. He claimed he also had another man I told him I thought that was all right because I was divorced, but he kept on upbraiding me, saying he heard I was going around to various places with another man."

Etiquette Expert Opposes Curtsy For Duke's Wife LONDON, Dec. 12.—(AP)—The Countess of Pembroke, an expert on court etiquette, emerged in the weekend London press as a forthright devotee of the "no curtsy to the Duchess of Windsor school."

"If the duchess is made a royal highness, she told the Sunday Dispatch, "then I shall be pleased to lady her a curtsy."

Lady Pembroke is the wife of the Earl of Pembroke. She said she had scolded Lady Diana Cooper, wife of the former first lord of the admiralty, and Mrs. Susan Wallace, wife of the parliamentary secretary of the board of trade, because they told her they curtsied to the wife of the former King Edward in Paris "to please the duke."

Flippant Star

Kay Francis has the role of a gay, flippant Broadway star in "Secrets of an Actress," coming to the Rialto theatre for tomorrow and Wednesday. Ian Hunter and George Brent play opposite the star in this Movie Quis picture.

"Road Demon," starring the sports loving Gambini family, will play as the companion feature with the Francis opus.

Brilliant Case in "Algiers" Current Craterian Picture Charles Boyer, smooth, suave idol of the feminine fans, filled the Craterian theatre with feminine sighs last evening as he played the most exciting role of his career in "Algiers."

The picture, which is set in the unusual and fascinating locale of the Casbah, the mysterious native quarter of Algiers, casts Boyer as the lovable Pepe le Moko, notorious jewel thief, who has taken refuge here from the French police. For the Casbah takes the law into its own hands and protects its citizens with a fierce loyalty.

Thus, the law, in the person of Silman, a provincial detective, can only wait patiently until some Pepe out into the open.

Thus far, Pepe has been satisfied to live in the safety of the Casbah with his beautiful native sweetheart, Ines. For in this little world, he reigns as king, the head of his little band, the idol of all the strange and exotic women of the quarter.

But a distinctly upsetting influence enters the scene in the person of Gaby, alluring Parisian tourist (played by Hedy Lamarr), and Pepe is no longer content to remain within the confining limits of the Casbah. For the love of this beautiful creature he risks freedom, life, the danger of betrayal by the insanely jealous Ines, and after a series of thrilling and beautifully romantic episodes the picture ends on a surprise note which left last night's audience with a lump in its throat.

WILD GRAB FOR ROPE SAVES YOUNG DOCTOR FIFTEEN-STORY FALL

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A young West Virginia physician stepped into an open elevator shaft on the 17th floor of the Hotel Pledantly today, grabbed wildly for the elevator cable, and dropped 15 stories in a flesh-searing slide which seriously injured him, but probably saved his life.

The cable slide of Dr. Constantine Konstan, 28, of Elkins, W. Va., stopped on the roof of the elevator which was on the second floor. His hands were burned when the hole, but he was conscious when hotel employees reached him.

At Roosevelt hospital it was said he suffered possible internal injuries, a fracture of the left leg and severe burns and abrasions on both hands.

Dr. Konstan's mother-in-law, Mrs. M. Manners, of Reensburg, Pa., who was walking behind him, saved herself from following him down the shaft by clutching the side of the elevator entrance and dropping to the floor.
