STUDENT REPORTERS

By Jane Hooker

Eight experienced dramatic club members have been selected for roles in the forthcoming student production, "Rooting for Ruth."

Action of the one-act comedy centers around a typical farm home in which all the principles are involved in a hilarious romance. This play which is to be given the second week in January, according to Bert Adams director, will be the first of a series by the dramatic club.

The cast includes Mary Letcher, Jean Goldsmith, Barbara Franklin, Margaret Ruth Bolton, Earl Conway, Don Hathaway, Jerry Vawter, and Richard Schuchard.

A new organization, "The Ski Club" was formed at a meeting of 20 snow enthusiasts, December 8. The charter members voted on rules and regulations and adopted a formal constitution. The clubmen decided that any member of the student body who is present at two consecutive meetings held in the snow cans would be eligible for membership.

The skiers will be divided into two groups, the Juniors and the Seniors. Junior rating includes those just beginning to ski while senior rating requires the ability of skining down a moderately-sloped hill and of making right and left stem, and kick turns as well as being able to side step and herring-bone up a slope.

The officers elected were: Harry Thurman, president; Warlow Purdin, vice-president, and Rhea Anderson, secretary. The activities of the club are supervised by Bill Bowerman, athletic coach.

News of 4-H CLUBS

By Kenneth Bendure

A meeting was held at Elk Creek school to reorganize the 4-H clubs for the coming year. Mr. Conrad, county club agent, was present and gave out pins and cards to the members who completed their projects during the last year. He also gave a short talk.

Several musical numbers were given as part of the program. Eugene Ditsworth and Kenneth Bendure gave a chicken calling demonstration. Several minutes were given to questions and answers. About forty people attended.

The Grange

Upper Rogue Grange

Upper Rogue Grange met December 1 with large attendance. Several interesting committee reports were given.

Several members met at the Grange hall December 6 for clean-up day. H. E. club purchased linoleum for the kitchen floor and it was put down that day, making a great improvement in the kitchen.

Next meeting is to be the Christmas program and tree. We hope to have a nice attendance December 15. The lecturer asked that each member bring a toy for Christmas tree exchange. The gift is not to exceed 10c.

All Boy Scouts of Troop No. 19 are also invited to our tree and are asked to bring a toy exchange gift for the tree.

H. E. club will meet at the Grange hall December 20, they will also have a Christmas tree exchange and will reveal their polyanna's that day.

Don't forget installation date, December 20 at Eagle Point.
