Concert Artists Feted at Dinner Tuesday Evening

Miss Marjia Van Dyke, of Burlington, Cal., guest artist appearing this evening with the Southern Oregon Symphony orchestra, her father, Edward E. Van Dyke, and her accompanist, Henry Treager, were honored guests at a dinner party last evening in the Hotel Medford.

Hostesses for the enjoyable affair were Zonta club officers, who are in charge of the concert presentation. They are Mrs. John Lawrence, Mrs. Margaret Fabrick and Mrs. Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann, chairman of the concert project.

A capacity crowd is expected to attend the concert this evening, which will be given at 8:15 o'clock in the Medford senior high school.

Theta Rho Club To Party Soon

Theta Rho Girls' club will hold its regular meeting tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. Following the business meeting a Christmas party will be enjoyed. Members are to bring gifts for the tree to be exchanged.

Relief Corps Meets Thursday

Women's Relief corps will convene tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the armory. Members are to bring gifts for the tree to be exchanged.

Nile Daughters Gather for Meet in Grants Pass

Daughters of the Nile from Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass enjoyed a pre-Christmas party Saturday afternoon in the Masonic Temple in Grants Pass following a luncheon in the Redwoods hotel and business session in the temple.

Forty-seven members of Zulema Temple were present for the luncheon. Tables were decorated with poinsettias and small Christmas trees.

Little Claire Lee Ogle opened the afternoon's entertainment, playing two piano numbers. Mrs. Sam H. Baker presented a reading and the women's chorus sang Christmas carols followed by community singing.

At the conclusion of the meeting, tea was served to eighty women. Mrs. Sam Stinebaugh and Mrs. C. E. Weston presided at the tea table.

The temple was attractively decorated with lighted Christmas trees, evergreen branches and holly. Tiny trees, red candles and holly made the refreshment table appointments pretty.

The next Daughters of the Nile meeting will be held in Ashland in January.

Christmas Party for R. Neighbors

The Royal Neighbors and Juvenile will have their annual Christmas party Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the K. P. hall.

An interesting Christmas program will be presented by Margery Pearson and her committee.

There will be a tree and exchange of gifts, each member is asked to bring an inexpensive gift for the tree.

Refreshments will be served following the program.

All Royal Neighbors and their invited guests are urged to attend the affair.

Elta Deuel Hubbs Marks Anniversary By Celebration

The anniversary celebration of Elta Deuel Hubbs tent number 11, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, 1861-65, was an enjoyable event of Monday evening in the Girls' Community clubhouse. Members and friends, numbering about fifty, participated in the fifty-third anniversary of the organization and the fifteenth milestone of the local tent.

The splendid program was opened with two selections by the Lincoln school glee club under the direction of Eleanor Curry Hamilton who also presented several solos. Mrs. Lois Young accompanied on the piano.

The history of the organization was interestingly presented by Miss Ora Cox, national chaplain. Miss Cox is also a past president locally and has held various other positions in the department. Following her talk, Miss Cox lighted 14 candles in appreciation of the Daughters who founded the organization and one candle honoring Elta Deuel Hubbs for whom the local tent was named.

Miss Nola Harwood presented two violin numbers, accompanied on the piano by her sister, Miss Corinne Harwood.

Maybelle Klemm and Mrs. J. C. Woods gave the history of the Lincoln Memorial and Gettysburg.

Mrs. James Stevens accompanied Miss Rose Ellen Stoneker who gave two vocal selections.

A story containing names of all members of the local tent was presented by Mrs. J. O. N. Poling. This was in the form of a guessing contest. Maude Holmes won the contest and was awarded a handsome towel by Mrs. Poling.

An artistically decorated pyramid birthday cake was baked and cut by the president, Grace Guyer. Tokens denoting "fortunes" were contained in the cake. Other members serving on the refreshment committee were Grace Schade, Nina Craig and Pearl Gray. Mrs. L. E. Williams and Mrs. Kathryn Wait, charter members, poured.

Teachers Council Convenes Saturday

Jackson county primary teachers council will convene Saturday at 11:15 o'clock in the courthouse auditorium. The topic will be "arithmetic activities" and has been arranged by the program chairman, Miss Ailene Estes.

Guest speaker at the meeting will be Miss Helen King of the Southern Oregon Normal school in Ashland. Other speakers include Mrs. Mona Ferns of Phoenix, Miss Nellie Bennett of Rogue River and Miss Madge Mitchell of Gold Hill.

All members are asked to be present at the session.

Medford Visitor Is Luncheon Guest

A no-host luncheon held yesterday noon at the Hotel Holland honored a visitor in Medford from San Francisco, Mrs. Carl Spuhn.

Guests present at the affair included Mrs. Belya Alken, Mrs. Henry Weishaar, Mrs. Edward Olson and Miss Coppin.

Mrs. Spuhn and her husband have been in Medford for several days and are house guests of Mr. Spuhn's mother, Mrs. Lily S. Demmer at her home on West Jackson street. The couple formerly resided in this city.

Mrs. Spuhn was Clarice Benacoter prior to her marriage and was active in civic and social affairs when she lived here. At one time she was president of the Business and Professional Women's club.

Disabled American Veterans Sewing Club To Meet Thursday

Disabled American Veterans sewing club will convene tomorrow at noon at the home of Louise Hickman, Ross lane, for a Christmas party and pot luck luncheon. Members are to bring an inexpensive gift to the affair.

NOTICE

It is necessary that all club, organization and society notices be brought or phoned into this office by Friday noon if they are to appear in Sunday's society page.

Notices which do not reach this office by Friday noon cannot be printed Sunday.

D.A.R. Christmas Box Sent to Island

Members of Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, recently shipped an annual Christmas box to Angel Island for distribution among the immigrants who will be detained on the island during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. H. F. W. Spilver, Angel Island chairman, supervised the work this year. Twenty-five bags were filled with useful gifts and toys and it is anticipated that the donations will afford happiness to immigrants who will spend their first Christmas in a strange land.

In each bag a small American flag was placed in keeping with the D. A. R. policy of encouraging patriotism.

Angel Island bears the same relation to the west coast that Ellis Island does to the eastern sea board and in both projects the national society helps bear the expense of a trained worker in giving immigrants encouragement in becoming citizens that will be a credit to the country of their adoption. The Daughters of the American Revolution aids the incomers in class work and special instruction in gaining citizenship papers.

Bridge Luncheon Thursday Affair

Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. L. Overmyer, the final bridge dessert luncheon of a series will be given at 1:30 o'clock by the American Legion Auxiliary.

A grand prize will be given to the person having highest score from the series. Reservations are to be made by calling Mrs. H. J. Meiring or Mrs. Overmyer.

Besides the grand prize, a handsome traveling prize will be awarded. A holiday decoration motif will be carried out for the affair, which promises to be one of the outstanding social events of the week.

Allons Bridge Club Dinner Party Sunday

Mrs. George Godding and Mrs. Matie Dally entertained the Allons bridge club Sunday evening at the latter's Hillcrest Orchard home.

A community dinner was enjoyed at individual tables decorated in a holiday motif. A festive note of the occasion was the Christmas tree and exchange of gifts during the evening.

Following dinner, 10 tables of bridge were in play with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Edward Leach, Mrs. E. J. Brugger, Mrs. Clotous McCredie, Fred Scheffel and Roland Smith.

Evans Home Scene of Party Tuesday

Mrs. Cecil Evans, 10 South Newtown gave a dinner party Tuesday evening for Miss Bernice Gill, of San Francisco, who has been visiting the past month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gill on McAndrews Road.

Also present were Mrs. Lester Wilson, of Prospect, and Miss Dorothy Eads.

Miss Gill will return to San Francisco soon to continue her nurses training course at Franklin hospital from where she will graduate this summer.

P.T.A. Activities

The presentation of the comedy, "Here Comes Charley," which was to have been produced at the Junior high school Thursday evening has been cancelled due to the fact that several members of the play cast are unable to perform at this date.

December meeting of the Jackson School Parents and Teachers' association will hold its regular meeting Friday, December 15, at 8 o'clock in the school building. The program will be of interest to all parents in the school.

on Cub Scouts. Mrs. Drysdale will give a talk on "Children's Reading." Children from the first, second and third grades will furnish the musical part of the program.

Room mothers from the 3B, 3A and 4B grades will serve refreshments.

A short business meeting with the president, Mrs. Robinson, in charge, will be conducted before the program chairman takes over.

Every one of the parents of Jackson school are invited to come and bring their neighbors and friends.

Baldock Going to Chile

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 14.—(UP)—R. H. Baldock, state highway engineer, prepared today to leave December 19 for Santiago, Chile, to attend a conference of South and Central American road officials. He returned yesterday from a highway meeting at Dallas, Texas.

Hollywood, Dec. 14.—(UP)—Clark Gable's marriage to a woman 11 years his senior today appeared likely to reach a divorce court where he would be freed to wed Carole Lombard, his "best girl."

The husky film idol, himself, announced his estranged wife, Merita (Rita) Langham Gable, from whom he separated in November, 1935, was at last ready to seek a divorce after a ruling on the legality of their property settlement by which she received $285,000.

Gable's and Miss Lombard's nuptial plans, if any, were not disclosed.

Rita Gable, dark-haired stately mother of two grown children, when the rift between her and the actor became known.

A divorcee, she had met Gable in New York when he was an obscure stage aspirant, helped to boost his career, and married him at Santa Ana, Calif., in 1931, after he scored a screen hit. They gave their ages then as 41 and 30, respectively.

MUSCULAR RHEUMATIC PAINS—ACHES

It takes more than "just a salve" to bring speedy relief. It takes a "counter-irritant" like good old soothing, warming Musterole to penetrate the surface skin and help to quickly relieve the painful local congestion and aches due to colds.

Muscular lumbago, soreness and stiffness generally yield promptly.

Better than the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Musterole has been used by millions for 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. In three strengths: Regular, Children's (mild) and Extra Strong, 40¢. All drugists.

GABLE'S SECOND WIFE READY TO CLEAR PATH FOR HIS THIRD MATCH

It would be the untid marriage for the boxoffice king of the movies, the second for the blonde comedienne.

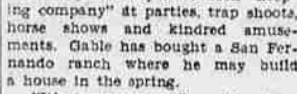

For two years they have been "keeping company" at parties, trap shoots, horse shows and kindred amusements. Gable has bought a San Fernando ranch where he may build a house in the spring.

"It's temperament," explained Mrs.
