By Winona Varner
Mr. Conrad came to the Independence school recently and organized 4-H clubs for the boys and girls. The girls chose home cooking and the boys camp cooking. Mrs. Catherine Patterson is leader for the girls and Bernard McGrath for the boys.

At their first meeting the girls elected Jeanne Patterson, president; Dolores Hagen, vice-president; Wilma Sauer, secretary; and Winona Varner, reporter.

The boys elected the following officers at their first meeting: President, Glenn Hall; secretary, Bernard Sauer; reporter, Winona Varner.

A three-day outing on Roxy Ann was much enjoyed.

At the girls' second meeting it was decided to write words for a song to suit their division of club work. The words to the tune of "The Club Trail" are:

There's a long, long time for eating if your cooking is good.
We'll do lots of demonstrations, to show how we prepare our food.
We'll do it without much coaching,
to give our leader less to do.
And we're going to show the public what the 4-H girls can do.

Signs Point to Congress
Artists are busy these days in the capitol workshop, Washington, D. C., at the tedious task of painting name plates for the new members of the senate. When completed the plates will go on office doors in the office building. It's a big job as there are 105 (Senate and House), signs to be made. H. E. Cheek is shown working on some of the plates for westerners. (AP Photo.)

OLD AGE PENSION PLAN has its champions in England, too, although £1 a week, or about $4.67, would satisfy Walter
