Building Permit—Helen Wagner of 518 Pennsylvania avenue applied at the city building inspector's office yesterday for a permit to make an addition to a residence at a stated cost of $45.

Snowing in Park—Snow started falling in Crater Lake national park at 6 a. m. and by 8 a. m. had deposited a quarter-inch layer. Rangers said in their daily radio broadcast. Park roads were still open but were made slick by the new snow layer. The rangers said, adding, however, that traffic was moving through the park without chains. The sky this morning was overcast and visibility was poor. They stated.

Marriage Postponed—Miss Clara Gill, former Medford resident, has been seriously ill with appendicitis in the Mercy hospital in San Diego, Cal. and because of her illness has indefinitely postponed her forthcoming marriage, according to word received here today. Miss Gill, who was reared in Medford, had planned her marriage for Christmas. She resides with her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Gill, at 2120 First Avenue, San Diego. She has many friends here.

Drills Tonight—Company A and headquarters company, 180th Infantry of the Oregon national guard will hold their regular weekly drills in the Medford armory at 8 tonight. Company A is striving to continue improvement in its attendance record and all members are requested by the commanding officers, Capt. Carl Y. Tenwald, to be present this evening. The company jumped from 84th position in October to 11th place in November in the drill attendance records for the state. There are 42 national guard companies and 14 detachments and headquarters units in the state.

Reservists to Study—Third lesson in a course on company administration will be given at a meeting of the Reserve Valley chapter of the Reserve Officers' association tomorrow. Lieut. Joseph W. Scooby will be the instructor. The course of study is being given through the co-operation of the civilian conservation corps and is designed to be of value to all reserve officers. Lieut. Scooby, stationed at CCC headquarters here, is in charge of a correspondence course on administration being conducted for all the camps of the Medford district.

West enlisted in the navy at the recruiting station here in December, 1936, and has been aboard the Faragut, new type destroyer, for the past 16 months. He returned recently from a cruise in Hawaiian waters. His ship is now stationed at San Diego, Cal.

SCHOOLS OF CITY CLOSE WEDNESDAY FOR TWELVE DAYS

With the close of school tomorrow afternoon, students and teachers of Medford's six institutions will say goodbye to the three R's for the duration of the 12-day Christmas vacation period. Studies will be resumed on Tuesday, January 3.

The annual Christmas tree and program for under-privileged grade school students was to be held at the high school this afternoon. It is given by the girls' and boys' leagues of the senior high school, and about 150 children, whose Yuletide might otherwise be gloomy, will be present to receive gifts from Santa Claus, enjoy a Christmas play and eat their fill of candy and fruit.

Bruce Cabot In Drama At Rialto

"Tenth Avenue Kid," today and tomorrow at the Rialto theater, shows the double-reformation of a hard-boiled police detective and a young 12-year-old boy who has been raised for a life of crime in the slums of New York's "Hell's Kitchen." Bruce Cabot plays the detective and Tommy Ryan has the role of the "Tenth Avenue Kid." Beverly Roberts plays opposite Cabot as a soft-hearted boy sister who eternally gets in his hair.

Stars of "Submarine Patrol"

"Submarine Patrol," which opens four-day showing tomorrow at the Craterian theater with Richard Greene and Nancy Kelly sharing the romantic honors, and hailed as one of the most thrilling sea stories ever produced, tells the exciting drama of Uncle Sam's "splinter fleet"—the fleet little submarine destroyers that were hurriedly pressed into service at the outbreak of the World War.

The dangers and high adventures that were faced every day by the motley crew of these destroyers is the nerve-tensing background for a delightful romance between a young officer and an old seadog's daughter. Included in the large cast are such notables as George Bancroft, Preston Foster, Henry Armetta, Slim Sum-
