College Club Has Interesting Meet at Thayers'

The Rogue Valley College Women's club held the first meeting of the year, Saturday, at the home of Mrs. P. G. Thayer on Lyman avenue.

The new officers presiding were: President, Miss Vera Humphrey; secretary, Mrs. A. R. Clement; treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Burr.

The following program was presented: Mrs. Margaret Pena reviewed "High Horizons," a book on the Great Smoky mountains of Tennessee. The author, Elizabeth Skaggs Bowman, lived most of her life within 50 miles of "The Smokies" and was an eye witness to the advance of civilization in this forgotten frontier. Mrs. Pena told humorous incidents of the people she related items of their history, legends, and traditions, and described the beauty and fascination of this Tennessee Smoky mountain region.

Mrs. Walter Redford of Ashland gave a competent review of "The Hudson," one of a series of twenty-four books on the rivers of America. This book, written by Carl Carner, deals principally with the people dwelling in the adjacent Hudson valley. It is a study of the social, political and economic history of this region. Mrs. Redford explained the landlord and tenancy system of land tenure existing from early times until the latter part of the last century.

After the program refreshments were served by the following committee: chairman, Mrs. G. S. Jennings; assistants, Mrs. James Campbell, Dr. Eva Carlow, Mrs. G. W. Nelson, Mrs. Flora Childers, and Mrs. Olen Armstrong.

Many Attend W.C.T.U. Bi-County Convention Here

The W. C. T. U. bi-county convention was held Thursday in the Nazarene church with President Mrs. Ellen Thrasher of Grants Pass, presiding.

The morning session opened with devotional service by Rev. Fred M. Weatherford, Rev. Floyd Hawkins sang "I Know a Name."

In summing up the year's work Mrs. Thrasher spoke of the meetings held for Miss Maude Aldrich, national lecturer, and the placing of a road sign near the Jackson-Josephine county line.

Memorial services in memory of Mr. Augusta McCormick of Medford and Mrs. Stella Leavitt of Ashland, who passed away during the year, were conducted by Mrs. Viola Wilkins of Grants Pass.

During the lunch hour guests enjoyed numbers by Pruitt's accordion band, and a solo by Mrs. Floyd Hawkins.

The afternoon program opened with musical numbers by Mesdames Edna Smith and Litwiler of Ashland. Rev. Joseph Knotts spoke on the subject "Looking forward" stressing the importance of increased instruction to young folks on the effects of alcohol and tobacco. Mrs. Edna Smith sang "Make Me a Blessing," Mrs. Litwiler was accompanist for the convention.

Mrs. Viola Wilkins of Grants Pass will attend the national W. C. T. U. convention in Rochester, N. Y., September 27 to October 3. The state convention convenes in Salem, October 17-23. These conventions will have special features in commemoration of Frances Willard's centenary.
