

Pole And Nazi Clash In Medford Armory Wrestling War Tonight

SMOLINSKI AND SCHULZ SLATED FOR MAIN EVENT

Levin Meets Wilson In Middle Battle — Venable And Ito Open Card—Top Go Promises Wild Action.

Joe Smolinski, a Pole, and Hans (Hitler) Schulz, a German, wage a bitter wrestling war in the armory tonight; a war that is expected to be no less brutal than the violent conflict currently raging in Europe between Poland and Germany. They battle in the one-hour main event, and a capacity crowd is almost certain to be on hand to see for themselves just how a Pole and a Nazi German conduct themselves in combat with each other.

In Europe, the crushing might of Germany's military machine has quickly hung Poland on the ropes, ready for the knockout, put no such situation is expected in Medford's miniature edition of the Pole-Nazi struggle. Schulz, the German, may defeat baby-faced Joe, the Pole, but there is not a single grapple observer in town who believes that Schulz will conquer Smolinski as easily as Germany has Poland.

Smolinski Favored Everybody here, male and female, grapple and grandstand, look for Smolinski to stage a whole of a battle before bowing to the Hitlerite—if he does. Many believe Smolinski will reverse the European tables and slaughter Schulz, and this thought is held by Smolinski, himself. Joe is utterly certain he can whip the German and he plans to waste no time in cutting loose with his most vicious attack. He figures Schulz will fold up when the going gets as tough as he (Smolinski) can make it.

Cool, methodical and loathe to waste time on idle talk, Schulz has not made a public threat to Smolinski's good health. In his first appearance here last Monday night, however, the German displayed a ruthlessness that caused fans to gnash their teeth and there is no doubt in anybody's mind but that Schulz will attempt to make Smolinski suffer plenty.

Both grapplers care nothing for the scientific aspects of the game. They are strictly alley-brawlers and having each other as they do should produce a history-making encounter.

Six-Champ On Bill A former heavyweight champion—Dave Levin—will make his first southern Oregon showing against George (Wildcat) Wilson in the middle event. Levin, 195-pound clean and scientific matman, is one of the finest wrestlers in the game and is expected to offer severe competition to Wilson, undefeated here.

Opening the program will be Billy Venable and Taro Ito, the popular Japanese grappler. Both are clean boys.

RIGGS CRUSHES VANHORN TO WIN SINGLES CROWN

FORREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 18.—(AP)—Bobby Riggs, the Chicago minister's son, finally has won the national men's tennis championship and made good a promise to himself or three years' standing.

He reached his goal late yesterday by knocking the spots from Young Welby Van Horn of Los Angeles, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4, in 58 minutes of endeavor.

Now all Bobby needs is somebody to tell him what to do with the fastest ball of tennis.

Bobby said last night he probably would continue to play as an amateur two more years—at least long enough to defend his Wimbledon and American titles next year. He said his "five-year old plan" still has two more years to run.

Alice Marble of Beverly Hills, who won the women's title for the third time and gained permanent possession of the gaudy trophy by defeating gallant Helen Jacobs, 6-0, 8-10, 6-4, in their final struggle, doesn't have the worries that beset Bobby.

Alice proved herself an able tennis player in one of this city's richest night spots last winter. Patrons who didn't know she could play tennis liked her warbling, so Alice figures to do more than all right. There is a report current she has signed a $50,000 contract to sing on the radio.

SEATTLE, SEALS, SACS AND ANGELS READY FOR COAST LOOP PLAYOFFS

By the Associated Press Another Pacific Coast league baseball season was over today and the top four teams—Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Sacramento, in that order—prepared for the two-week Shughartney playoff to decide $10,000 in prize money.

Seattle, which clinched its first pennant in 15 years last Tuesday, opens a four-out-of-seven-game series with third-place Los Angeles tomorrow night at Seattle while San Francisco and Sacramento clash in the first three games at San Francisco.

Winners of the two series will play next week for the $5,000 first prize. The second place club will pick up $2,500 and the other two teams $1,250 apiece for their trouble.

All the clubs divided doubleheaders in yesterday's finale.

Seattle shut out Los Angeles, 4 to 0, in the opener at Seattle but dropped the nightcap, 6 to 4.

San Francisco nipped Portland, 5 to 3, at Portland in the first game but lost a free-hitting nightcap, 13 to 10, at Oakland, the Oaks beat Sacramento, 2 to 0, but then lost the second, 3 to 0. Hollywood took San Diego in the first game at Hollywood, 8 to 7, but the Padres won the second, 3 to 1.

HUNTERS SHOOT AT RIFLE RANGE

A capacity crowd of pre-season deer hunters riddled targets and laid down a barrage on the running deer target at the Medford rifle club's range yesterday in the second and final Sunday in which the range has been opened up for the valley hunters.

Approximately 375 rounds were fired yesterday at the galloping buck, with hits, misses and buck fever to the credit of those who tried their luck. The buck will again make his appearance to the public when the rifle club stage a turkey shoot in November.

Club members are requested to report at the range next Sunday for 30 caliber qualification. Firing will be slow and rapid over the new 1,000-inch course.

DODO TOURNAMENT STARTS TUESDAY

A half-in-one tournament, the first ever held, will open at the Rogue Valley Golf club tomorrow and continue for a month, with all members invited to try their hand at sinking a 140-foot approach shot that Club Pro Laddie Selkirk has laid out between two fairways.

A stake has been planted, at which the golfer will fire, and around the stake has been painted an 8-ft. circle. Every shot landing in the circle will earn a prize for its owner, and the ball closest to the stake during the entire tourney will receive the grand prize of one dozen 75-cent golf balls.

CRATERS DEFEAT GRANTS PASS AND CRIPPEN; 11 TO 9

Leggett Goes Route For Locals—Lewis, Pointer Slam Homers—Victory Deadlocks Playoff Finals.

All good things must come to an end, and conversely a flax won't hold forever.

This the Medford Craters proved yesterday at the high school park by beating over the Grants Pass Merchants for the first time this season, 11 to 9, to deadlock the Southern Oregon league Shughartney playoff finals at one game apiece and set the stage for the third and deciding tilt at Grants Pass next Sunday. The title brawl goes to the Climate city because yesterday's attendance fell below that at Grants Pass a week ago, when the Merchants took the first game of the series, 8 to 0.

All year Steve Crippen, Grants Pass right-hander, had had the Indian sign on the Craters, but he was no mystery to the red-hot locals yesterday. They hammered him for nine hits and six runs in his five innings of mound labor and when he finally retired to the showers, his flax over the Craters completely shattered, the Hoarders continued their heavy-shelling at the expense of Chuck Ostrom, to the tune of five safeties and the same number of runs in the last three hits.

Three Hits for White It was one of the sharpest hitting outbursts the Craters have shown all season. Dick Lewis and Vern Pointer clocked home runs, Calvert socked a double and Tommy White laced out a triple, in addition to a pair of singles.

Harry Leggett went the route for Medford. He gave up 14 blows, the same number Medford collected, but he received sensational fielding support from his teammates and, was fairly tough in the clinch. Harry pitched six heats of scoreless ball, during which the Merchants were able to obtain only four hits. He weakened in the last three innings when Grants Pass bunched 10 hits for all their nine runs, but the Craters had built up too great a lead to overcome.

The Craters scored twice in each of the third, fourth and fifth innings to take a 6 to 0 lead and drive Crippen from the rubber. Leggett tallied Medford's first run in the third when he singled to left and scored on Calvert's double to center.

Great Base-Running Brilliant base-running gave the locals one of their two runs in the fourth. Dixon singled to right and went to third on Lewis' single to center. The pair then pulled a double steal, with Dixon denting the plate.

Lewis came home a moment later when Catcher Wood threw the ball into left field attempting to prevent Lewis from stealing third.

Pointed crashed his homer as first man up in the fifth, the ball towering into right and rolling through the fence. Calvert reached first on third baseman Howerton's error on his grounder; then Hoffard sacrificed Calvert to second. Calvert pulled a glittering piece of base-running by scoring from second as White smacked grounded out to first.

Behind 6 to 6, the Merchants finally found the range on Leggett in the seventh. Four hits—Blacksmith's single, King's triple, Lannting's single and Ostrom's triple—aided by a walk and a hit-batsman, enabled the Merchants to score four times.

The Craters really sewed things up in their half of the seventh by landing on Ostrom for three runs. Hoffard singled, went to second on a passed ball and scored on White's single. Lewis then hammered his home run to left center scoring White ahead of him.

Craters Pull Double Play The Merchants kept fighting, though, and came back with two in the eighth on singles by Crippen and Blacksmith, a walk to King and Wood's triple. A Medford double play prevented more runs from scoring.

Medford closed its scoring in the eighth when White tripled behind Pointer, who reached first on an error, and Hoffard, who walked.

Singles by Lannting, Gray and Howerton and an error gave Grants Pass three runs in the ninth.

The game sparked with great fielding plays. Pointer, in left field for Medford, came up with a whale of a running catch of a foul fly and Dixon, on third base for the Craters, handled six hard assists. Ostrom, Grants Pass centerfielder, flagged a Hoffard hit labeled home run.

Medford's win was its first over Grants Pass in four league starts.

TEXANS NOSE OUT SAN FRANCISCO U.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—(AP)—San Francisco football fans still couldn't believe it today, though the scoreboard read: St. Mary's of Texas 7, University of San Francisco 6.

Some 1000 sun-baked spectators saw the first "big league" game of the local season turn into a startling upset yesterday as the under-rated Texans pushed across a touchdown and conversion in the second period to edge the San Franciscans who wallowed last year 31 to 0.

The St. Mary's touchdown capped a 40-yard march on a pass and five line stabs after left end Paul Buchanan had pounced on a Don fumble. Burden Brown, quarterback from Beaumont, scored from the three and halfback Rene Mouton kicked the extra point.

Louis-Pastor Fracas Draws Little Interest In Wagers

DETROIT, Sept. 18.—(AP)—For one reason or another—either that Joe Louis is too top-heavy a favorite or Bob Pastor is too dangerous a question mark to fool around with—there wasn't enough betting today on Wednesday's heavyweight championship bout to cover a thin dime.

Whether the timidity was the fault of the odds or the better, the "price" for the usual was largely "rumor."

It ranged, on the one hand, from the possibility that the former New York University footballer would be either one of the shortest priced favorites ever to tangle with the Brown Bomber, to the other extreme which made deadpan Joe a 1-to-5 shot to knock Bob's ears down sometime along the scheduled 20-round route.

In either case, the betting was about as active as a diab of cold trips. The boys and girls were falling all over themselves keeping their "mad money" in their pockets. The chances were that the champion, rated off his comparatively recent short and sweet sleep-producing victories over Max Schmeling, John Henry Lewis, Jack Roper and Tony Galento, would enter the ring at something better than 1-to-6 favorite over the one-time collegian who went ten rounds with him back in '37.

WILLAMETTE GRIDDERS ENROUTE TO SAN DIEGO

Derby

DERBY, Sept. 18.—(Sp)—Mrs. Fred Lewis is recuperating at the Community hospital. She has been suffering from asthma all summer and became worse Thursday when Mr. Lewis took her to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit DeHaas and little daughter Pauline of Eagle Point spent Tuesday with Mrs. DeHaas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merl Haynes.

Bill Webber was a business visitor in Medford Wednesday.

The Ladies' club held a meeting at the Derby school house September 14. Mrs. Frank Chaplin, who has been president for the past year, tendered her resignation because of ill health. The vote was unanimous for Mrs. T. R. Mercer as president.

Planning for the year was hindered because so many members were absent. Another meeting is scheduled for Thursday, September 21. It is hoped each member will be there. Present were Mrs. Carl Haynes, Mrs. Bill Snow, Mrs. Ed Eldred, Mrs. D. Bush, Mrs. T. R. Mercer, Mrs. Merl Haynes. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ruth Kaye, teacher of the Derby school.

Al Robison and Merl Haynes were business visitors in Eagle Point Friday.

E. R. Putnam of Eagle Point, who has been hauling slabs from the Totton mill came for his last load Friday.

Dewey Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Boothby of Prospect were callers at the F. D. Hill home Sunday.

FARM WORK GIVES 789 EMPLOYMENT

Lewis Ulrich, local manager of the Oregon State Employment Service, was advised Saturday that the Medford office stood fourth among the 31 offices of the state for farm placements in August.

A bulletin from the farm placement service of the social security board showed 13,985 farm placements in Oregon for the month, Medford making 789.

Mr. Ulrich also stated that this figure would not be the high figure for this year's seasonal work as many fruit and hop pickers are not included in the local figure. However, this work will drop off sharply during the next 30 days. During the past month the active file of the local office reached a record low of 455 registrations. With release of fruit workers, registrations will increase rapidly.

Many of the workers are qualified in skilled and semi-skilled occupations and will be available for other regular or part-time work. Mr. Ulrich urged that all employers contemplating changes or additions in their working force contact the local office in order that the office may assist them in selection of qualified applicants. Workers being released from seasonal jobs were also urged to renew their registrations with the local office at 45 North Fir street.

PARISIANS CRITICIZED FOR RETURN TO HOMES

PARIS, Sept. 18.—(AP)—Parisians returning to Paris in the belief that the city was safe from bombardment were criticized today in a semi-official statement released by Havas, French news agency.

"If no bombardment has occurred yet, that is not sufficient reason to believe all danger has been avoided," the statement said.

FIND NO PSYLLA IN EARLY SURVEY

Surveys made so far in the pear orchards of the Rogue River valley, show the presence of no Psylla, County Horticulturist C. B. Cordy reports. Psylla, a pear pest, was found this summer in Washington state orchards. It leaves a mold and black mark on pears, and its spread to this state is feared.

A survey of the pear orchards of Jackson and Josephine counties is being made by Mr. Cordy and L. G. Gentner of the Southern Oregon Experiment station at Talent and it is expected to be completed within the next two weeks.
