Dietrich Home Scene of Meet

Mrs. Peter Dietrich was hostess to members and guests of the Carnation club for a party at her home on North Riverside avenue recently. The affair honored Mrs. Dietrich's daughter, Miss Viola Dietrich, who left here several days ago for Los Angeles to make her home. Sharing honors with Miss Dietrich was Mrs. Mattie Bradshaw who recently returned to her home here from a trip east. The two guests were presented with a handkerchief shower. Sixteen attended the pleasant affair. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Lyle Walther, who accompanied Miss Dietrich to Los Angeles for a vacation.

Spokane Couple Visit Relatives

Visitors here at the E. W. Wakefield home on Almond street this week were Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Wakefield of Spokane, Wash. The couple were on their wedding trip and had visited in Seattle and Portland prior to coming to this city. Their marriage was an event of several weeks ago in Spokane. Mr. Wakefield is a former well known Medford resident, having been associated with an oil company here. The couple also spent some time visiting the recent bridegroom's sister, Mrs. L. S. Bashaw, on Vancouver avenue.

Many Attend G. P. Bridge Luncheon

Numerous southern Oregon ladies journeyed to Grants Pass Wednesday afternoon to enjoy a bridge luncheon when the Climate city Lady Elks were hostesses. Fifty-six attended from Medford and Ashland and fifty were present from the hostess temple. A color scheme of blue and white was carried out in the flowers and other decorations. The afternoon was spent in playing bridge and pinocle. High scores in bridge went to Mrs. R. E. Dietrich of Ashland and to Mrs. A. V. Muchmore of Medford and low scores to Mrs. Lucy Elwood of this city and Mrs. J. W. Potter of Ashland.

Ashland Women Attend Meeting

The Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church of this city entertained ladies from the Rogue River valley at a one o'clock luncheon Tuesday afternoon at their church. Eleven from Ashland attended. The speaker for the afternoon was Miss Ann Bannon of St. Lawrence, Alaska. Those present from Ashland were Mrs. W. D. Jackson, Mrs. Mark True, Mrs. H. H. Gearhart, Mrs. J. Quinby, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Jere Torrey, Mrs. Ramsey Benson, Mrs. W. J. Montgomery, Mrs. Preston, Miss Stella Hays, and Mrs. James H. Edgar.

Forrettes To Visit in City

Mrs. and Mrs. Jack Forrette and son Bruce of Oakland, Cal., are expected to arrive in Medford tomorrow. The former Medford residents will visit Mrs. Forrette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Bergman, at their home on Lincoln street for several days. Mrs. Forrette is the former Miss Loreta Bergman. From here, they plan on going to The Dalles to visit Mr. Forrette's parents.

Flower Show Will Be Saturday Event

The public is invited to attend the flower show tomorrow at the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce. Sponsors of the annual event are the Junior Garden clubs of Medford and Oak Grove assisted by the Medford Garden club. Those participating are asked to bring their flowers to the chamber of commerce by 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Containers will be provided.

Does Your Nose Clog, Spoil Sleep

and make you snore? HERE'S MIGHTY GOOD NEWS... If your nose "closes up" at night and makes breathing difficult, put a few drops of Vicks Va-tro-nol up each nostril. RESULTS ARE SO GOOD because Vicks Va-tro-nol is expressly designed for the nose and upper throat, where transient congestion often hinders breathing. You can actually feel it go to work bringing relief. TRY IT TONIGHT—enjoy the comfort Vicks Va-tro-nol brings.

AUCTION CLOSES LIVESTOCK SHOW FOR 4-H CLUBS

of Ashland, senior club members. Norman was the high scoring pig club member of the year. Jersey Calf Prize Twila Ferns of Fern Valley, outstanding grade Jersey exhibitor, was given a purebred Jersey calf by L. H. Borden of Table Rock. Each club member exhibiting purebred Jerseys was presented with special ribbon awards by Clarence Hunter, president of Rogue River Valley Jersey club, and purebred Guernsey exhibitors also received ribbons from the Jackson county Guernsey cattle club. High scoring exhibitors and contest winners will receive scholarships with a maximum of $12. Erwin Feed and Seed company and Alberts Milling company gave worthwhile prizes in calf manna.
A number of exhibitors left immediately following the auction for Treka, where they will enter their exhibits in the 4-H division of the Skiskiyou county fair in session there this week.

Francis is M. C.
L. E. Frances, county 4-H club leader, was master of ceremonies during the program yesterday afternoon. Dr. Charles Lemery, president of the Medford Rotary club which sponsored the livestock show, spoke a few words, and extended greetings to visiting 4-H members of Klamath county, whose livestock show opens there next week. Mark Goldy, chairman of the Rotarian 4-H committee, congratulated the youngsters on their achievements. L. J. Allen, assistant state 4-H leader, also spoke briefly. A loud speaker system was in use throughout the afternoon, and on hand to fill in during lulls in the auction, although events moved so swiftly that the band music and sandwich stand was operated throughout the three-day period by the county 4-H local leaders' association.
Support Shown
That the Jackson county merchants and individuals stand firmly behind the 4-H movement was shown at the auction, when the entire lot of stock went to buyers in the county. Among the buyers listed, besides Safeway and the Groceteria were Lumman, East Side Market in Ashland, Riverside market, Cramer Meat company, Thumler Meat company of Central Point, First National bank,

United States National bank, J. C. Penny Co., Dr. Charles Lemery, Irwin Feed company, Jackson County Feed company, Western States Grocery, Frank Ray of Central Point, and H. C. Cleland.

WASN'T I RIGHT, SIS? I'VE BEEN TELLING YOU FOR AGES ABOUT THE SMOOTH, MELLOW FLAVOR OF LIPTON'S TEA! REALLY, NOW, ISN'T IT MUCH FINER?

I'LL SAY! MOST DELICIOUS TEA I'VE EVER TASTED—SO BRACING! AND LIPTON'S COSTS LESS THAN HALF A CENT A CUP!

HERE'S why Lipton's is America's most popular tea:
1. World-Famous Flavor—smooth, full, rich, delicious.
2. Tender Young Leaves—and luscious, flavorful buds—give extra fragrance and bouquet.
3. Distinctive Blend—with choice teas from Lipton's own Ceylon gardens.
4. Economical—you use less Lipton's per cup—it's so rich in flavor.
