BIG ELK THRONG MARKS BIRTHDAY OF LOCAL LODGE

One of the outstanding functions in the club's history—that was the feeling among over 500 Elks from all parts of Oregon and northern California, who attended the 30th birthday anniversary party of the Medford Elks lodge in the temple last night.

Honored guests were charter members of the local lodge, organized in 1909, and T. E. Daniels, the club's first exalted ruler. Mr. Daniels brought memories of the old days flooding back as he talked of events in years gone by and described the inception of the Medford lodge. The first exalted ruler also had charge of the regular lodge session, and cut the huge birthday cake, topped with a hand-carved ivory Elk.

At the delicious banquet, served by Elk Chef Shy Morthland, Senator A. Evan Reames acted as toastmaster.

Elks came from far and wide to celebrate the local lodge's birthday, among them being Alex Rosborough of Oakland, Cal., who made a special trip here to attend. Mr. Rosborough, one of the real old-timers of this community, was an official of the old Rogue River Electric company and is very well-known in southern Oregon. Many Elks, separated for as many as 20 years, spent a large part of the evening renewing their friendship.

The entertainment program, consisting of a vaudeville troupe secured through George Hunt, was exceptionally well received. A complete show was staged during an intermission at the lodge session.

Ernest Scott, secretaray, announced today that a class of candidates would be initiated on October 12, and again on October 19. Fred McHenry of Corvallis, district deputy grand exalted ruler, will be present at the October 19 ceremonies.

Resume Eugene Work

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Termination of a wage dispute between union building laborers and the contractor resulted in resumption of work at Eugene's new bus terminal. Union spokesmen said a 75-cent-an-hour scale was assured. Some of the workers reported they had been receiving 62 cents.

To Reserve Corps.

HART APPOINTED ON STATE BOARD OF AERONAUTICS

able part of his time to party affairs, organization and devoted a considerable part of his time to party affairs.

"After being given nearly nine months of additional tenure at $350 a month under a Republican administration, he accompanied his resignation with a blast at me. The state board now rewards him with a flattering resolution and another month's salary. This attitude on the part of the board shows lack of cooperation which I will not tolerate.

"I do not regard the position of aeronautics inspector just as a political plum. I have steadily resisted pressure to have some Republican appointed for political reward. I shall ask the reorganized board to make a fresh study to determine how much need there is for a state inspector or director. None will be chosen for a technical position who is not fully qualified."

Mr. Culbertson said he would withhold comment until he could have a conference with the governor.
