Billy Hulen says:

I. Pickem Picks Medford, Oregon And Washington

Dispensing with his usual long-winded and inane remarks prior to getting down to the business at hand: to-it, knocking 12 week-end football games dead in a brilliant burst of prognosticating prowess, I Pickem hereby lets fly with both barrels and trusts that the current average of 400 will leap upward along about 5 p. m. Saturday:

MEDFORD-GRANTS PASS. I look like rain, which will chop scoring on that unturfed Cave-man gridiron to a minimum. A wet field and ball will also be disadvantageous to the Tornado's aerial attack, which is quite something. Nevertheless, Pickem confidently expects the Tigers to tally at least twice, while holding Grants Pass to naught.

OREGON-STANFORD. This is the ideal spot for an upset, with a Stanford team, smarting from the Oregon State sting of last week, rising up to topple an Oregon club suffering a mental drop after holding El Trojan to a 7 to 7 tie. In fact, many of the local boys are figuring it just that way, but Pickem believes the Huskies will cop. 6 to 0.

WASHINGTON-U.C.L.A. Here it is, mates. The big upset of the week. A favored U.C.L.A. outfit, defender of mighty Texas Christian, will flounder around in the Seattle "liquid sunshine" and get their ears batted off by the Huskies, 13 to 7.

U.S.C.-WASHINGTON STATE. Poor Babe Holmgren and his Washington State Cougars. After seeing his team held to a draw by Oregon, Howard Jones will show no mercy on the boys from Pullman. The Trojans will massacre State, 39 to 0, maybe more.

ET. MARY'S-CALIFORNIA. Slip Madigan's Galloping Gaels are galloping this year, and the Golden Bear seems to be slightly anemic. Thus, it appears from I. Pickem's corner to develop into a 21 to 6 victory for St. Mary's.

SANTA CLARA-TEXAS A. AND M. Those Texans will be mighty tough and Santa Clara apparently hasn't its usual power-house. Even so, the Broncos should emerge on the long end of a 12 to 7 tally.

MICHIGAN-MICHIGAN STATE. The Wolverines of Fritz Crisler, down for many years, are roaring back. State ain't what it used to be. Michigan, by 19 to 0.

NORTHWESTERN-OKLAHOMA. The best in the Big 6. Northwestern, opening its season, should hurdle the Sooners, but only after the most violent kind of a battle, 7 to 0.

NOTRE DAME-GEORGIA TECH. The Irish won't have much trouble against an undermanned Georgia Tech Rambler's Week. Notre Dame, 28 to 0.

COLUMBIA-YALE. Neither team is much this season, with Yale probably being the worse. Lou Little's aggregation should beat the Blue, 13 to 7.

FORDHAM-ALABAMA. This is the week's biggest inter-sectional classic. The Rams of Fordham, rated one of the nation's strongest, will live up to that pre-season dope by defeating a stout Crimson Tide, 7 to 0.

TIGERS PLAY IN G. PASS TONIGHT

Medford high's Black Tornado football team opens defense of its Southern Oregon conference championship tonight at Grants Pass, clashing with a Cave-man eleven expected to furnish a stiff test for the high-scoring locals. The game starts at 8 p. m.

With a wet, muddy field in prospect, Coach Bill Bowerman stated that John Saulsbury, 190-pound powerhouse, might open at the full-back post instead of Ike Orr, sopho speedster. Remainder of the Tornado lineup will probably be the same as that which crushed Corvallis, 31 to 14, in its last start.

Grants Pass, after losing its first game to Dunsuir, came back to defeat North Bend and Ashland, and has been pointing for the Medford clash. The year's largest crowd in Grants Pass is expected to see the tilt.

LIGHT WORKOUT FOR O. S. C. BEFORE TILT

CORVALLIS, Oct. 6.—(AP)—A light workout was scheduled today for the Oregon State college football team which meets University of Idaho here tomorrow.

Coach Lon Stiner put the starters through a tough practice session yesterday.

Although Oregon State was a strong favorite, Stiner, remembering defeats by Idaho the past two years, was far from optimistic.

CINCY HEADS FOR HOME WITH VOW 'WE'LL BE BACK'

Junior Thompson to Pitch Saturday Game for Reds—Hildebrand or Hadley Slated to Elbow for Yanks

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds are a brave lot of boys. When they left here last night bound for home and a resumption of their series against the Yankees tomorrow, they were yelling belligerently: "We'll be back."

A full appreciation of this stout-hearted, devil-may-care attitude on the part of the National league champions can be had only by the 118,000 who sat in Yankee stadium for the past two afternoons and watched the lads from the west absorb two of the cruelest beatings ever dealt out by the Yankees or any other club.

McKechnie Confident Beaten by Red Ruffing, 2 to 1, in the opener, and shut out by Monte Pearson's marvelous two-hit pitching yesterday, 4 to 0, the Reds might have been forgiven had they refused to continue their classic unless they were given a head-start of, say, three runs per game.

But in their dressing room and on the cars last night they were insisting "We'll be back!" and Manager Bill McKechnie was rallying: "Nobody can tell me we are as poor a club as we've looked the last two days. Tell 'em we're coming home with our heads up."

At that, the Reds cannot be quite that bad, even granting that they were up against almost phenomenal pitching. Few clubs, in any kind of series, ever were moved down so mercilessly as they have been for two days.

Next 3 in Cincy In two games they have made just six hits, all singles.

Both teams were scheduled to work out today at Crosley field in Cincinnati, site of the next three games. McKechnie is sticking with his original choice of Junior Thompson, rookie right-hander, to try to stop the Yankees tomorrow. Joe McCarthy will put off the announcement of his choice, which was believed to lie between Oral Hildebrand and Bump Hadley.

Oliver Studies Lineup for Stanford Scuffle

EUGENE, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Coach Tex Oliver put his University of Oregon football team through a light loosening up session today and then began studying the lineup he will start Saturday against Stanford university at Portland.

The Oregonians concentrated on Pass defense and offense in a stiff practice session yesterday.

to ward received here from Hiram Light and Floyd Clark of Harbord, who report that four big ones were landed Wednesday, one weighing 86 and one weighing 26 pounds.

Fishing prospects for this week-end were judged as good. Angling for cut-throat and ocean fish is fair; for silversides poor, it was reported.

Monte Mows 'Em Down

Monte Pearson, New York Yankee pitcher, allowed but two hits as he hurled the Yankees to a 4 to 0 victory over the Cincinnati Reds in the second game of the 1939 World Series. Pearson, a Californian, is shown in action during the game.

BELCASTRO GIVEN GOOD CHANCE TO OUTGRAPPLE NAZI

Off his performance against Billy Venable last Monday night, Pete Belcastro, wild Italian from Weed, is given a pretty good chance by local fans to wallop Hans (Hitler) Schulz, undefeated German matman, in the armory main event next Monday evening.

It was Belcastro's first start in the armory in several months and he displayed much of his old-time fire. During the past year and a half Pete had seemed to be slipping, but against tough little Venable he looked like his old self. He fired droppicks with his former abandon, pulled hair and gaped in a manner to bring a pained smile to his adherents, and, in general, cavorted around the squared circle like he did in seasons gone by.

Venable didn't have a chance against the revitalized Italian, capitulating in two straight falls, and because of this savage Belcastro attack many observers of the mat game believe Schulz may suffer his first defeat in southern Oregon.

One of the most famous grapplers in the industry will make his initial bow to Medford fans in the middle event. He is El Pulpo, 215-pound Mexican and Aztec Indian wrestler from Mexico City. El Pulpo, which, translated, means "The Octopus," stands six feet two inches tall and is a clean and brilliant wrestler. He clashes with Cowboy Dude Chick, exponent of the dizzying airplane spin, who has spent the past two months in the southwest.

Two clean boys, Speedy LaRance and Davie Levin, former heavyweight champ, tussle in the opener.

Grid Expert Picks Oregon, Trojans, St. Mary's, UCLA

By HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Editor.) NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Applying an old golf maxim to football, this gusser will proceed to "miss 'em quick": Holy Cross-Louisiana State: L.S.U. will be no pushover, but we'll take Holy Cross.

Northwestern-Okahoma: Northwestern may take the wraps off Bill De Corvovent in this one. Northwestern gets the nod.

Notre Dame-Georgia Tech: The Ramblers weren't steady a ball of fire against Purdue but the talent and the man-power are there. Notre Dame.

Fordham-Alabama: This one counts and only by the toss of a coin is Fordham the choice.

Tulane-Auburn: Tulane. California-St. Mary's: The grapevine says Slip Madigan has a good ball club at St. Mary's this year. California supposedly had too, but that defeat by College of Pacific in the second game of a double-header creates at least a slight element of doubt. St. Mary's.

Cornell-Syracuse: Two up-state New York power-houses collide. This corner takes a flier on Cornell.

Yale-Columbia: Taking Columbia, but not with any degree of comfort.

Navy-Virginia: This may be awful close but we'll go down (if absolutely necessary) with the Navy.

Iowa-Indiana: A sheer guess. Iowa. Nebraska-Minnesota: The Huskers didn't seem to have much of an attack against Indiana and the choice is Minnesota.

Wisconsin-Texas: Foggly, Wisconsin. Michigan-Michigan State: Michigan.

Santa Clara-Texas Aggies: As close as they come. Texas A. & M. Arkansas-Texas Christian: T.C.U., but not by much.

Pitt-West Virginia: Pitt. Oregon-Stanford: Oregon State one week, Oregon the next. Putting together last week's result (always dangerous practice) Oregon.

Washington-U.C.L.A.: Taking U.C.L.A. with full knowledge the Uclans seldom do well in the north.

Southern California-Washington State: That tie with Oregon should have shaken up the Trojans. Southern California.

Oregon State-Idaho: Oregon State. PORTLAND, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Grant high school opened its 1939 Portland interscholastic football season yesterday with a 7 to 0 win over Benson Polytechnic school. Grant scored in the third period.

THREE BIG COAST TEAMS FACE HARD GAMES SATURDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Pacific coast football fans hesitated today to predict the outcomes of this week-end's encounters, having seen so many rude upsets in the first week of the 1939 campaign.

The outlook wasn't exactly cheering to three of the coast's bigger teams whose performances last Saturday made everybody wonder "what next?"

California's Bears, a highly-regarded outfit until they were upset 6 to 0 by a little College of the Pacific team which outplayed them all the way, face the big and tough St. Mary's Gaels, who have ideas of a national championship this year. The Gaels and Bears will play at Berkeley.

Bruins Meet Huskies Three Pacific coast conference games will find Stanford meeting Oregon at Portland, U.C.L.A. taking on the Washington Huskies at Seattle and Washington State rolling out its pigskin machine for its first league battle, with Southern California at Los Angeles.

The two Oregon schools did all right last Saturday. Oregon State beating Stanford 12 to 0 and Oregon breaking even with the supposedly invincible U.S.C. Trojans, 7 to 7. U.C.L.A. started out with a rush last Friday night with a 6 to 2 victory over Texas Christian. Washington lost to Pittsburgh 27 to 6.

Bronco Play Tonight Santa Clara, which got off with a 7 to 7 tie with Utah last Saturday, meets Texas A. & M. here tonight, while College of the Pacific meets Loyola in another floodlight affair at Los Angeles.

Oregon State entertains Idaho at Corvallis tomorrow, and in a night game University of San Francisco meets Montana at Missoula.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.
